A COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

Keep us, Oh God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pi and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make u grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences.
That in the big things in life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common, human heart of us all.
And, Oh Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

OUR PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

It is a glorious privilege to live, to know, to act, to listen, to behold, to live. To look up at the blue summer sky; to see the sun sink slowly beyond the line of the horizon; to watch the world come twinkling into view; and you and I are here.

-Marco Morrow

On journeying the benefits are many; for seeing and hearing marvelous things, beholding strange cities, meeting new friends, --these things bring freshness to the heart.

Life is always flowing on like a river, sometimes with murmurs, sometimes without bending this way and that, we do not exactly see why; but always flowing with a look of treachery about it; it is so swift, so voiceless, yet so continuous.

-Faber
