Territorial Seal of Minnesota

1849 - 1949

MINNESOTA TERRITORIAL CENTENNIAL

This Seal was prepared one hundred years ago. We see the white man plowing the land where he has made his home. Near him lies a powder horn and gun.

An Indian rides at full speed toward the setting sun. This symbolizes that the savage Indian must go, and that the white man and civilization are here to stay.

The Mississippi River and St. Anthony Falls are seen in the distance. The Motto means, "I Wish To See What Lies Beyond."
