

Chengwatana Farmers Song.

(1. verse)

In the eastern part of Minnesota
There lies a Township fair Chengwatana is her name with her none can compare.
Good rich soil of great abundance
And fine farm buildings too.
Honest settlers, good location
Oh! its just the place for you.

(Chorus)

Chengwatana Chengwatana.
we are proud of you for your land is rich and new
and your future is bright.
With so much in sight.
Come here and buy you landless guys:
for this is surely true.
That some glad day.
You'll be proud to say.
You're a Chengwatanian too.

(2. verse)

Chengwatana has a bright future
this we know is true.
In raising corn hogs and cattle and a weekly Cream check, too.
potato crops that are unsurpassed,
Best gardens that ever grew
Big red clover that will reach to your shoulder
Oh its just the place for you.

3rd
verse)

(rep. Chorus)

With courage born in the struggle of life.
of toil we're not afraid.
We're clearing our farms
and buildings our homes in the battle we stand undismayed in our overalls and Calico dresses we'll conquer without the sword and better times are coming.

Continued over

Tune (same as) 3rd verse con.

so will keep things a humming
For the Club calls all aboard.
(rep. Ch.)

4 verse.

Changwatana has a Club.
of citizens small and great.
if you wish to join just wink your eye
Your name of course we'll take.
We stand for right and justice to all.
And for lifting the toiler's load.
Each for all and all for each
As our slogan ringing loud.

words written by

W. H. Cutler.

Changwatana that my Dad wrote.
there is one line that is missing in the Ch. it goes like this.

Changwatana, Changwatana.

We are proud of you.

For your land is Rich & new.

And your future is bright

With so much in sight.

Come here and buy you landless guys.