INSTALLATION AND BANQUET.

As per announcement in the Pioneer of last week, the annual installation of officers of B. F. Davis Post No. 157, G. A. R., occurred at Pioneer House hall, on Friday night, Jan. 4.

It was a notable affair, the commodious hall was tastily decorated with flags and bunting, and arranged in banquet style, long tables extended from the stage to rear of hall, and these were spread with snowy cloths and bright new crockery graciously loaned by the Big Store, the chairs were placed at the tables, but turned facing the stage this arrangement gave the hall the appearance of a banquet room, and also avoided the usual confusion attending the serving of refreshments.

By 8 o'clock every chair was filled by the most thoroughly representative audience ever assembled in Pine City. The fact was early noted and duly commented upon by those who have watched the trend of social events in our town.

Promptly at 8 o'clock Col. J. F. Stone called the assemblage to order and made a brief address of welcome. Comrade C. A. Upright was appointed grand officer of the day, and the obligation was administered by district deputy Robert Greig to the officers elected for the current year: J. E. Neustrom, P. C.; J. Nettger, V. C.; Oliver Wilcox, J. V.; J. F. Stone, A. J.; M. O. Guphill, Q. M.; Robt. Greig, Chaplain; H. S. Austin, Surgeon.

The program followed, the brass quartette under the direction of Prof. Edwards gave the key-note of the evening and cleared away the serious, sub-strata of thought produced by the impressive ritual of installation, and put every one in cheerful humor to welcome Miss Nellie Greeley, who gave the "Minnat" with much grace and effect. Comrade Upright followed with negro solos, he was accompanied by Mrs. Upright and daughter, Mrs. W. Lee of Rush City, Pa., and undoubtedly made the "hit" of the evening. Maj. Cosley came next with a clever rendition of Eugene Field's story of early Colorado life, entitled the "Conversazzyony." "A Conversazzyony is a thing where people speak the language in which they air, particularly weak."

The song by Miss Hattie Pennington was well received, and seemed to recall to the veterans the days of "I" with their pathetic incidents. The duet by Mrs. Clara L. Albrecht and Miss Nellie Sloan followed, and was greatly appreciated. "Katie's Letter," by Bret Harte, was next given by Mrs. P. W. McAllen in a manner pronounced "simply perfect," and added if possible, new lustre to the already established reputation of this talented lady. She was recalled and gave a gruesome Scotch incident with great dramatic force. Comrade Upright broke the spell with more plantation songs and then gave place to Mrs. Franklyn W. Lee in an Irish character sketch—the "Widdy Breen," which showed to be as versatile as she is charming. Comrade Upright again intimated, and Col. Stone closed the mental feast with the Valedictory. This was an original poem written for the occasion in his own inimitable style. He took the boys back to the days when they wore the blue—with some personal incidents in the life of the members of the Post, and closed with a tribute to the ladies of Riverside Circle and to womanhood in general.

Supper followed, each guest squared themselves to the table, and the ladies of the Circle did the Hobe act. Hobe bore glasses of Ambrosia to the Olympian gods, you know—but that Ambrosia was 'n in it, compared with the concentrated essence of Mocha and Java which the ladies served with such dignity and grace. The tables were loaded with all that men and women could eat—from crisp to sticky—from sour to sweet.

The young folks did not need to be told what to do next. Scarcely had the last guest reached the condition of a city street car, (full inside) when the fragments of the feast were gathered up—the dishes were cleared—and the dreamy waiters left gentle aid to the digestion and stimulation of the "army bean." The thanks of the Post are tendered to the ladies and gentlemen who took part in the program—to the ladies of Riverside Circle for the serving of refreshments, and especially to Col. J. F. Stone, whose experience, tact and hard work made the event a success unparalleled in the history of the social functions of Pine City.

—Special reduction on the celebrated Chase & Sanborn Teas for next week at the Big Store.

MEADOW LAWN.

Fine winter weather. Elmer Smith had the misfortune to lose one of his horses. It got hurt on the ice which caused its death.

Orson Schofield's infant daughter is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler of Beroun, visited with J. Clynne on Sunday.

The men put in Saturday swamping and cleaning the section line road. They intend having a road in spite of us.

The teacher is at now boarding at Mrs. Clynne's.

James Franklin has been engaged by Mr. Perdy as sawyer, August Spurling is the engineer.

Mr. Perdy is getting quite a number of nice logs in his mill yard. We would like to see the mill start.

—The Big Store has some great bargains in Ladies', Misses and Children's Jackets this week.

RUTLEDGE.

Mrs. D. S. Scott has just returned from an extended trip in the West, where she went to visit her sons.

W. Wilson is getting along fine with his broken jaw received some time ago.

A girl baby was born to Mrs. Christ Peterson New Year's morning, but sorry to say it passed out of this world of sorrow as soon as it came.

J. D. McCormack's children are here spending the holidays with their father going to the camps.

We had a very fine card party last Monday night for the benefit of Father Smear's and the game was smean. One way of raising money for the church.

Mrs. Richardson, of Eau Claire, Wis. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Kallis, our station agents wife.

Carrie Minogue, is visiting in Duluth. We understand she has skated one trip to the Soo and back, pretty good for a young girl of 15 years, ha!

Joseph Conway left Monday for Spokane, Wash., to work for the G. N. R. R. Goodby Joe.

One of Frank Innman's children was badly scalded in a pan of boiling water left on the floor by its mother, the child doing well however.

Pat Crowe has been seen in Rutledge. There is only one more town in the state that he has not been seen in and that is Duluth. He seems to be riding around Rutledge on a bike.

Z. Garwood has given up his school and has hired out as cook in camp.

A man whose name we could not learn had his foot badly cut in Rutledge Lumber Co's camp on Tuesday. He went to Duluth for treatment.

Forest Destruction.

There is a strong movement in the northwestern States for Congress to make a national park at the headwaters of the Mississippi, in order to save from destruction very nearly the last virgin forest of pine existing in America. The movement finds voice in the February number of The Delinicator in a description given of the work undertaken by the Women's Clubs of Minnesota. Their forestry work will have interest for the States of Wisconsin and Michigan; in fact, the country at large.

Hot Water and Mustard For Your Feet Outside

Hot Spirits and Quinine For You Inside

This is the old way—the good old way—of curing a cold. But it is inconvenient and only adopted as a last resort.

There is another old way which is more convenient and quite effective—We refer to

Brown Mixture Tablets

They have been curing colds for over half a century and are still in favor. We have it in tablet form, handy to carry in the pocket, and suggest that you think of them when your next cold is coming on—Also think of
