WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, OCTOBER 8th, 1901.

The modest little Dutch Reform Church chosen by President Roosevelt as his place of worship is to profit largely by his preference. The members of his denomination throughout the Union are raising a fund of $50,000 with which to erect a more commodious and stately church on the ground now so humbly occupied. President Van Buren was the only other member of this particular communion who has occupied the presidential office. In his day there was no society of the Church or church building of the name at the national capital. President Roosevelt's selection of the church is likely to give vigor to the denomination during his term of office and the prospects now are that the society will become a strong and notable factor in the religious life of the city.

The independence which characterizes President Roosevelt seems also to obtain in his family. Mrs. Roosevelt is a loyal communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and has been granted possession of the famous "Presidential pew" in historic old St. John's church, on Lafayette Square. That pew has been occupied by six of the nine Presidents who were members of that religious denomination. Washington, Madison and Monroe served their terms before St. John's obtained the title of "The President's Church," but Wm. Henry Harrison, his successor, John Tyler, Taylor, Fillmore, Pierce and Arthur, worshipped in the edifice, and so gave it the distinction which, in part, Mrs. Roosevelt will renew to it.

A strong movement is being inaugurated in this city and is to be extended throughout the country to the end of having the projected bridge across the Potomac, converted into a magnificent McKinley Memorial bridge. It is deemed a most appropriate form of honoring the martyred President, as it will constitute a great connecting link between the national district and the northern section of the country and the great south. The remarkable manifestations of personal affection and regret made throughout the South, upon the occasion of President McKinley's assassination and death, have emphasized in the public appreciation, his patriotic efforts to stamp out sectionalism and to make the southern people feel themselves real and equal co-partners in the nation's government and glory. A meeting in furtherance of this opportune project will be held on October 9th, and through it, the movement, it is hoped, will gain an impetus that will carry the idea to splendid and speedy realization. It is not doubted that Congress will be favorable to the noble scheme.

Secretary Gage is quoted in dispatches from Colorado, where he is visiting as predicted, the retirement from the Cabinet at an early date, an event would not be surprising. The Secretary is in hourly accord with the proclaimed policy of President Roosevelt, unambiguously, but both his health and his personal inclinations, impel him to forego further official career. He does not feel that his services are indispensable to the new administration and he is tired of the official misrepresentation which he has been a constant victim to the partisan yellow journals. As he has ample fortune and quiet tastes, public office is a burden rather than a prize to him. However, he is desirous to remain in his present office until the Senate disposes of the several treaties which he has negotiated and to the expiation and defense of which he has been conscientiously employed. On the retirement, it is generally assumed there he will be succeeded by Secretary Root, now at the head of the War Department.

That part of the social contingent which has returned from the summer resorts has had two topics of interesting gossip, one the marriage of Miss Helen Morton, daughter of former Vice President, Levi P. Morton, to the Comte de Perigord et Sagan, of France. Miss Morton was well known and greatly admired here and is deemed well worthy of a noble husband and an ideal wedded life. Many congratulations were cabled from official and social leaders of the city. The other and more sensational item is that Chauncey—"Our Chauncey", as the nation calls him and "De Peach", as the Bowers elite club dub him, is to be married again—soon, and sure and safe enough! The statesman, orator, wit and wealth maker has surrendered to the charms of Miss May Palmer, a Knickerbocker Southern belle, whose beauty, wit, diplomacy, and American womanliness are celebrated on the two continents of Europe and America. Of course, the coming season will bring the Senator's bride to grace his capital home and to adorn the highest official and social circles. The elect are all agog to see her and refuse to believe that the alleged portraits of her in the newspapers do her any sort of justice. When the Senator does come upon the scene, he will meet his readiest partisans to ward off the merry jibes of his host of admirers.

The Schley Case of Inquiry is experiencing a longer search of the facts in the Santiago Naval campaign than the campaign required in the finding, blocking and smashing of Cervera's fleet. The testimony against Admiral Schley's conduct in the case, is not concluded, and the end therefore not even in sight. So far public opinion seems to have been scarcely altered by the testimony, and everybody outside the case are waiting to hear the Schley side of it. Only one sentiment is common and that is regret that the great victory ever degenerated into so unsavory a conflict between high naval officials. The Court itself, presided over by Admiral Dewey, is unstintingly praised for its evident impartiality and purpose to reach a true finding.

In the House of Representatives that will convene in December, less than one-fourth of the membership will be of new material. Only eighty-four new men were elected last fall. Many of these, however, are already coming to Washington to acquaint themselves with the new President, with department officials and routine and to secure living quarters for the session. Nearly all the new members are from the northern and eastern states. The south and west both have a custom of holding on to efficient congressmen and last year a majority of the states in those sections re-elected their solid delegations.

A DEADLY FEUD.

It is Fought at a Tennessee Church—Four Men Killed—Several Wounded.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 8.—In a bloody fight at the Union Baptist church at Big Springs, ten miles from Knoxville, Tenn., Sunday four men were killed, two mortally wounded and three wounded less seriously. The killed are Tip and John W. Chadwell, Rank and Henry Morgan. Mortally wounded: John Morgan and Asa Chadwell.

There was preaching at the church, and about 600 people gathered here. Just before the 11 o'clock service began Tip Chadwell went to the spring 50 yards from the church. Rank Morgan was at the spring and began firing at Chadwell. Both factions immediately gathered and the fight lasted half an hour. Sheriff James Brook attempted to arrest Asa Chadwell, who resisted. Both Brook and Asa Chadwell are wounded.

The feud between the Morgans and Chadwells has existed a long time. Last Christmas they met at Walnut Hills, Va., when a pitched battle occurred, in which several were killed. Eighteen months ago they met near the Hancock line. Fighting followed and one was killed. Both the Chadwells and Morgans are prosperous industrial and have large families, and all their members are farmers.

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 8.—The situation at Big Springs, Tenn., where at the United Baptist church Sunday four members of the Chadwells and Morgans were killed and five wounded, is indeed gloomy, and it is the general opinion that more bloodshed is certain to follow. A report reached here by way of Tazewell, Tenn., that a second clash between the factions had occurred late Monday afternoon, October 7, at Big Springs.

At noon, when a horseman arrived here from Ewing, Va., five miles from Big Springs, no more trouble was reported. It is reported that the feud has been renewed and that the factions were barricaded in their homes, and were armed to the teeth. Many believe that the feud is still in progress and renew the trouble. Two members of each faction came to Cumberland, Ga., and secured a large supply of ammunition.

THE EPISCOPALIANS. Proceedings of the Triennial Conference at San Francisco Told Briefly.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Monday was a day of oratory in the house of deputies of the triennial episcopal convention. A DEADLY FEUD.

It is Fought at a Tennessee Church—Four Men Killed—Several Wounded.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 8.—In a bloody fight at the Union Baptist church at Big Springs, ten miles from Knoxville, Tenn., Sunday four men were killed, two mortally wounded and three wounded less seriously. The killed are Tip and John W. Chadwell, Rank and Henry Morgan. Mortally wounded: John Morgan and Asa Chadwell.

There was preaching at the church, and about 600 people gathered here. Just before the 11 o'clock service began Tip Chadwell went to the spring 50 yards from the church. Rank Morgan was at the spring and began firing at Chadwell. Both factions immediately gathered and the fight lasted half an hour. Sheriff James Brook attempted to arrest Asa Chadwell, who resisted. Both Brook and Asa Chadwell are wounded.

The feud between the Morgans and Chadwells has existed a long time. Last Christmas they met at Walnut Hills, Va., when a pitched battle occurred, in which several were killed. Eighteen months ago they met near the Hancock line. Fighting followed and one was killed. Both the Chadwells and Morgans are prosperous industrial and have large families, and all their members are farmers.

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 8.—The situation at Big Springs, Tenn., where at the United Baptist church Sunday four members of the Chadwells and Morgans were killed and five wounded, is indeed gloomy, and it is the general opinion that more bloodshed is certain to follow. A report reached here by way of Tazewell, Tenn., that a second clash between the factions had occurred late Monday afternoon, October 7, at Big Springs.

At noon, when a horseman arrived here from Ewing, Va., five miles from Big Springs, no more trouble was reported. It is reported that the feud has been renewed and that the factions were barricaded in their homes, and were armed to the teeth. Many believe that the feud is still in progress and renew the trouble. Two members of each faction came to Cumberland, Ga., and secured a large supply of ammunition.

THE EPISCOPALIANS. Proceedings of the Triennial Conference at San Francisco Told Briefly.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Monday was a day of oratory in the house of deputies of the triennial episcopal convention. The debate which began last Saturday on the proposed addition to Article X of the constitution, prescribing the form of worship, was continued all day, and finally resulted in its adoption. As adopted it reads as follows:

"But provision may be made by canon for the temporary use of old forms and directories of worship by congregations in which the clergy are willing to accept the spiritual oversight of the bishop of the diocese or missionary district."

In the house of bishops it was voted, in view of the growing importance of missionary work in China, to divide the district of Shanghai into two departments, to be known as those of Shanghai and Hankow. The bishops considered a number of reports and transacted much routine business.

The Daughters of the King elected a council and decided to hold their convention in the convention city.

The American Sunday school institute, Mrs. Bishop Abbott, of central Pennsylvania, president, and retained Rev. H. L. Dahlgren, of Philadelphia, as secretary-treasurer. His sessions were presided over by several Sunday school workers.

Glass Facerists Start Up. Anderson, Ind., Oct. 8.—Pires were started Monday in the furnace of the trust window glass works in this town. The glass is to be used in the manufacture of window glass blowers in Indiana.

The deficiency will be made up in part within another two weeks by over 200 Belgians who are coming from their native land to work in the gas belt factories.

Storms in Germany. Berlin, Oct. 8.—Storms from various parts of Germany led to violent storms Sunday and Monday. Frankfurt had a terrific hurricane, hundreds of trees were blown by over 200 miles an hour, and many houses and persons were more or less injured.

Fire at Marinette. Marinette, Wis., Oct. 8.—The Gram building, the largest in the city, was destroyed by fire. The estimated loss is $250,000, partly covered by insurance.

PINE COUNTY PIONEER.

ED. C. GOTTREY, Editor and Prop.

Entered in the Post Office at Pine City as Second Class Matter.

PINE CITY, MINN., OCT. 11, 1901.

The Sandstone Courier has again changed hands. Elbert Gede has purchased it for the term of one year...

The St. Paul Globe of Sept. 28th paid a higher tribute to States Auditor Dunn and other Republican members of the board of equalization...

"Auditor Dunn has been taking a very prominent part in the proceedings of the state board of equalization, and on three or four occasions has succeeded in having assessments raised above the figures agreed upon by the board..."

So long as the Republican party puts, and keeps, such men as this in office the Democratic press is disgraced. In a campaign the Globe would probably never make such an admission as that, but having been made, the admission is on record...

The Republican party knew what they were about when they put in a man for Vice-President like Roosevelt, and our lamented President, Wm. McKinley, showed his forethought and sagacity in wanting as a running mate a man like our present President. McKinley seemed to have a presentiment in wanting a man with his ideas, and a man that would stand up for his convictions...

Many of the most sincerely afflicted mourners for the dead president were Democrats, and particularly Southern Democrats, who loved McKinley for his work in wedding the North and South, and making one people of us all. And it is especially worthy of note that such representative Democratic papers as the Brooklyn Eagle, the Washington Post and all the truly respectable Democratic journals, join the Republican press in protest of the yellow Democratic organs such as the New York World and Hearst's string of indecent publications stretching from New York to San Francisco...

Hygienic Railway Reform. M. Baudin, inventor of public works of France, has entered actively into railway reform, from a hygienic standpoint. He has begun with an order excluding from compartments regularly used by the public all persons visibly affected with contagious maladies. Moreover he strongly recommends that all carpets be replaced by linoleum, the prevention of dirt sweeping of cars and waiting rooms, and the adoption of washable covers for chairs and cushions...

Lord Salisbury's Soldier Son. Lord Cecil, Lord Salisbury's soldier son, having obtained his brevet majority in May 1900, for his services in the Boer expedition, and the D. O. for the expedition to Khartoum, has been promoted to a brevet lieutenant colonel, while still a captain in the Grenadier guards as reward for his good work at Mafeking, where he was Maj. Gen. Buller's right hand man throughout the investment. Lord Cecil is not yet 34.

fair to say, too, that if Bryan had been elected they would, from the same base motives that prompt the business office to murder character and sell papers, have been as vilely abusive of him as they have been of McKinley, and as they already show a disposition to be of Roosevelt.

OUTDOOR GAME FOR LADIES.

New London Pastime Which is a Cross Between Lawn Tennis and Cricket.

Ladies of London have admittedly never shown at cricket. Now they have an opportunity to distinguish themselves at a game which is a compromise between lawn tennis and the sterner play.

The chief feature of the game is that a racket is used instead of a bat, and that a small net three feet nine inches in height, with side wings, takes the place of wickets. A Catcher as well as a bowler are not by hand, but with the racket. The positions of the fielders are necessarily somewhat indefinite.

KISSES AT A NICKEL EACH.

Men Looking for the "Real Thing" Get Only the Candy Article—Genuine Article Comes High.

A row of maidens, dressed savely and prettily as an artist's ideal, stood before a tent at the "boulevard carnival" given by the Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church at Findlay, O., the other night.

Not a man was willing to put up this Pan-American price for the osculatory exercise and the treasury was not exhausted. Now the conservative element of the church is mad.

The Women's Reading club has an object in view which it is hoped will meet with encouragement from all our citizens. They have decided to put forth every effort to establish a reading room, a place for the young people to spend their evening. The proceeds from the lecture course will be used for that purpose and when the young ladies call upon the business men and the residents with tickets, please remember what it is for, and be as liberal as possible.

The Club has been fortunate in securing some of the best talent in the state to speak for them. Among the speakers they expect are, Dr. Reese, W. J. Dowling, Dr. Forbes, General Andrew, O. H. Hall and others, who will be announced later.

Mrs. N. A. Crittenden and daughter Gertrude, of Minneapolis, arrived in town on Tuesday afternoon to spend a few days visiting with friends. Mr. Crittenden, it will be remembered, ran a clothing store in this place for about a year, selling out to C. N. Carson, who continued the business until he was closed by the sheriff. After selling out, Mr. Crittenden and family moved down to the southern part of the state where he engaged in the lumber business, but not doing as well as he thought he should, he moved to Minneapolis about a year ago. Mrs. Crittenden's many friends will be glad to see her.

The Lecture Courses.

The Woman's Reading Club have secured their lecturers for the coming winter. The first lecture will be given by General C. C. Andrews, State Fire Warden, who will deliver a lecture on Oct. 22nd, on Forestry. The General is a fine speaker, and the ladies are especially desirous that a good sized audience will greet him. Further announcements will be given next week.

Wedding Bells.

Monday, October 7th, 1901 at 10:30 a. m., at St. Mary's church, by the Rev. Father Buechler, Miss Marion Wiener, of the town of Royalton, was joined in the holy bonds of wedlock to Mr. Charles Sandoz, of Duluth. The bridesmaids were Miss Louise Wiener, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Pranghover. The groomsmen were, Alex Pranghover and Albert Petschel, all of the town of Royalton.

After the wedding ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's mother in the town of Royalton, where a wedding dinner and supper was served to the invited guests.

In the evening quite a number from this place went out and spent the evening in dancing and having a jolly good time.

The bride is the second eldest daughter of Mrs. Wiener and is well acquainted in and around Pine City, she having spent the greater part of her life here, but for the past couple of years she has worked in Duluth, where she met the groom. The groom is also quite well known here, having worked for J. J. Warner for a couple of years, when he was a Pine county farmer.

The happy couple took Wednesday's limited for Duluth, where they will be at home to their friends after Oct. 14, at No. 819 West Superior street. The Pioneer extends congratulations.

School Notes.

The pupils of the high school and eighth grade have organized a literary society, for the purpose of making school more interesting to the pupils and to bring the spirit of the public nearer to that of the school. The following committees were elected: On constitution—Marie Kibler, Martin Hurley and Ellen Swedenburg. On program—Frank Smith, Daisy Berkeley, James McLaughlin and Frank Hurley. Miss Hennegan was appointed as chairman of this committee. On music—Hattie Pennington, Ellen Swedenburg, and Elizabeth Brackett. The society is to give debates, declamations and essays during the year and each pupil is supposed to take part in the entertainments, which will be held every two weeks in the high school room.

Anna Dossy has been absent from school for about a week on account of illness.

Bertha Neubauer left school last week to attend the German school.
