He Guarantees to 'Make Widows, Orphans and Paupers' Because Public Wants it.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 27.—When "Jimmie" Durkin, advocate of personal liberty and democratic candidate for governor of Washington in 1908, permitted Rev. Charles D. Braden, an evangelist, to decorate the windows of his saloon, in the heart of the business district of Spokane with "horrible examples" of the liquor traffic, it was believed the climax had been reached; but now comes R. P. Love, owner of the Eagle bar at Sumas, Wash., with an announcement that he would bring Diogenes' search to a quick close, were he abroad today. He says in a published statement:

"Friends and neighbors: I am grateful for past favors, and, having supplied my store with a fine line of choice wines and liquors, allow me to inform you that I shall continue to make denials, papers and bugars for the sober, industrious and respectable part of the community to support. My whiskies will excite riot, robbery and bloodshed. They will diminish your comfort, increase your expenses and shorten life. I shall confidently recommend them as sure to multiply fatal accidents and incurable diseases.

They will deprive some of life, others of reason, many of character and all of peace. They will make fathers fiends, wives widows, children orphans and all poor. I will train your sons in infidelity, dissipation, ignorance and every other vice. I will corrupt the ministers of the gospel, defile the church and cause as much temporal and eternal death as I can. I can do this at the loss of my never-dying soul. But I have a family to support, the business pays and the public encourages it.

I have paid my license and the traffic is lawful; and if I don't sell it, someone else will. I know the Bible says, 'Thou shalt not kill.' 'No drunkard shall enter the kingdom of heaven,' and I do not expect the drunkard maker to fare any better, but I want an easy living and have resolved to gather the wages of iniquity and fasten on the ruin of my species.

I shall, therefore, carry on my business with energy and do my best to diminish the wealth of the nation, and endanger the safety of the state. As my business flourishes in proportion to your sensuality and ignorance, I will do my best to prevent moral parity and intellectual growth.

Should you doubt my ability, I refer you to the pawn shop, the poor house, the police court, the hospital, the penitentiary and the gallows, where you will find many of my best customers have gone. A sight of them will convince you I do what I say. Allow me to inform you, also, that you see fools and I am an honest saloonkeeper.—
 Farmers' weekly Dispatch.

—The W. C. T. U. will be held this (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Harmon.

AWARDED HONOR TOKENS.

Basketball Team Given Big 'C,' and Debators Awarded Diplomas At Banquet.

The Cloquet high school basketball team, Messrs. Stevens, Rogentine, McKenna, Skemp and Olson; the high school debating team, Misses. Rill Morgan, Florence Blair and Alice Horaly, and the high school faculty were entertained last Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Olesen and Wm. Todd, the coach of the basket ball team, at a banquet at the Olesen home. The rooms were decorated in the school colors, purple and white. At the table the purple cards carried out the same color scheme. The cards for the boys represented a youthful basketball player in all his tugs and poised to make a throw, while on each young ladies card was a debator in the act of delivering a convincing argument—supposedly on the Initiative and Referendum. The cards were the work of Miss Draper, the supervisor of drawing and music in the schools.

During the banquet Edwin Erickson of the high school presided very skillfully at the piano. Mr. Olesen acted as toastmaster, and the following toasts were responded to: "The Team," Captain McKenna; "From the Side Line," Oliver Olson (substitute); "Stories," Miss Julia Merrill, principal of the high school; "The Seniors," Clarence Patterson; "Next Year's Team," Bennett Skemp.

The menu consisted of:
 Consomme
 Olives    Wafers    Radishes
 Roast Chicken
 Gravy    Jelly
 Mashed Potatoes
 Cream Peas
 Veal Loaf
 Fruit Salad    Rolls    Sweet Wafers
 Ice Cream    Cake
 Coffee

Superintendent Olesen, and the entire faculty have been well pleased at the manner in which these two groups of students have acquitted themselves in their contests with outside teams. The boys' basketball team is the best the school ever had and one of the fastest in the state. When their coach, Wm. Todd, who is also the teacher of manual training, came here last fall, he had a splendid record in the field of athletics, and what he has accomplished in training the basketball boys, is ample proof that he deserved all the encomiums bestowed upon him. The athletic association of the school has furnished all the outfit of the team, and this is probably the only small high school in the state that has done so. The association presented the five boys, McKenna, Patterson, Rogentine, Skemp and Stevens with V neck white sweaters with an eight-inch purple stripe around the bodies, on which is the big white "C" and the smaller letters "B. B." indicating the sport. Only boys who have played these games are entitled to the "C" and this is the first time in the history of the school that letters have been awarded.

The girls were each presented with a handsome diploma. Attached by a golden seal were the purple and white ribbons, colors of the school, and the diplomas bore the signatures of Superintendent Olesen and Miss Julia Merrill.

The above was taken from the Cloquet Pine Knot of March 12th, and will be of interest to our readers, as Mr. and Mrs. Olesen are well known to our citizens, Mr. Olesen having been superintendent of our schools for a number of years.

SEEKING NEW PENCIL WOODS

Recent conference of representatives of the Department of Agriculture with several lead pencil manufacturers have resulted in plans for testing new woods to find out whether they can be used in the pencil industry. According to some of the manufacturers, the supply of red cedar, which furnishes practically all the wood for the annual output of some 325,000,000 pencils, will be exhausted within five years. A substitute must be found which will whittle easily, which shall contain a large amount of material free from knots, which shall not be porous, nor spongy, nor unduly hard, and that will occur in sufficient quantities to meet the manufacturers' demand.

In view of this and at the suggestion of the pencil makers, the Forest Service is to co-operate in a test of a number of National Forest woods. Among those to be tried are Rocky Mountain red cedar, alligator juniper, western juniper, redwood, incense cedar, western cedar, Port Orford cedar, and Alaska cypress. Wood specimens collected from the National Forests will be sent to four leading manufacturers, who have agreed to make pencils of them. The manufacturers will keep a record of the tests and report to the Forest Service the results, as well as their judgment as to the fitness of the individual woods.

The Forest Service is assisting in this experiment because there are on the National Forests large quantities of junipers and cedars which may be suitable for pencil manufacture.

CHOKING IN CATTLE.

This means the lodgement of a foreign obstacle in the esophagus, or gullet. It is known by coughing, distressed breathing and accumulating gas, which may be noticed on the left side or paunch.

The proper method of handling an animal thus afflicted, is to stand the cow with her head down left, pressing the head downward as much as possible, then allow her to raise her head and give her one half pint of raw linseed oil, giving but one swallow at a time.

If she is not relieved within from ten to thirty minutes, a half inch rubber hose six feet long may be passed gently down the gullet. This will force the obstacle into "the stomach," at the same time allowing the gas to escape.

If the animal has been greatly exhausted by gas before relieved, it may be necessary to give her a laxative and a tonic to overcome partial paralysis of the bowels, which sometimes follows.

ROOSEVELT AT KHARTUM

EX-PRESIDENT IS AGAIN IN TOUCH WITH CIVILIZATION, HOMEWARD BOUND

Greeted in Historic Egyptian City by His Wife, Daughter and Hundreds of Correspondents and Friends---Chronological Review of a Remarkable Expedition

Khartum, Egyptian Sudan.—Ex-President Roosevelt again in touch with civilization and at this place as the guest of the Egyptian and English governments, being entertained at the governor general's palace by Gen. Sir Reginald Wingate. He was met here by Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Ethel and by a host of American and European correspondents and numerous delegations of political and other friends from the United States. In fact this historic town is literally filled with visitors brought here to greet the returning traveler.

With his arrival at this place, Col. Roosevelt completed one of the most notable journeys through the wilderness of Africa that has been undertaken since the days of Livingstone and Stanley. It was a remarkable journey both in number of animals slain and preserved as specimens, and because of its lack of accidents and of the Blue Nile. The river passes directly through the city, and along its banks, fronted by the barracks of the British soldiers, lies a magnificent driveway three miles in length.

British Policy is Seen. Northwest of Khartum is Omdurman, the city occupied by the Mahdi after the death of Gordon and the scene of the licentious revelries that occupied the native soldiery up to the time that they were confronted, and overwhelmed by Kitchener. The British, true to their policy of colonization, have not attempted seriously to interfere with Moslem customs here. The ruins of the Khalifa's body guard headquarters, the military prison, the remnants at the Arab fortifications have all been allowed to stand.

Still further north is the field of Kererr, the shambles in which Kitchener with mathematical exactitude slashed to pieces the Arab forces. The sickness of every kind. Ordinarily a traveler, through the regions through which Col. Roosevelt has passed, comes out of the jungles loaded with malaria and fever germs. Up to the present time, neither Col. Roosevelt nor any of his party have shown any symptoms of having contracted any of the numerous contagious diseases.

Gen. Sir Reginald Wingate provided countless ways for the entertainment of his distinguished guest. Representatives of the many tribes of the desert have been gathered here into one great encampment, and for Col. Roosevelt's entertainment, have indulged in every possible form of native amusement, giving dances, races, etc.

The town of Khartum is a mass of color. Flags of Egypt, England and America are everywhere, and the ex-president has probably appreciated nothing more than the opportunity of visiting this historical spot.

Khartum is virtually built around the grave of "Chinese" Gordon. The city itself is a gigantic monument to that soldier's deeds and his heroic death. In the center of it stands his empty in bronze, mounted on a camel, gazing with fixed eyes out toward the desert which mocked him during the terrible year that he lay there waiting for relief. Behind the statue stands the British governor's palace, an imposing structure in the Gothic style, typical of British power and British permanence.

Name Gordon Everywhere. Not far away is the Gordon Memorial college, a school built with funds raised by Gen. Kitchener by subscription throughout Great Britain, in which the Sudanese sewer generation is trained for service in the government which conquered his fathers. Everywhere throughout the city the name Gordon appears. There is the Gordon hotel, the Gordon drive and the White Nile the Gordon tree. Gordon's memory will live so long as Khartum exists. The British have transformed the city of his death into a memorial to his glory that can last for time.

Khartum stands at the confluence of the White and Blue Niles, and some day with the development of the wilderness south of it will become a metropolis as important to the commerce of Africa as Chicago is to the commerce of North America. Property speaking, however, the city itself does not extend beyond the banks of the Blue Nile. The river passes directly through the city, and along its banks, fronted by the barracks of the British soldiers, lies a magnificent driveway three miles in length.

On April 17 he will go to Vienna, where he will be the guest of the international sporting exhibition, and at which place he will meet sportsmen from all over the world.

On May 10 he is scheduled to be in Berlin as the guest of the emperor and the faculty of the University of Berlin.

May 12 he is to arrive at Christiania as the guest of King Gustaf of Sweden and the nation.

On May 15 he will arrive in London as the guest of the English people and King Edward, and has already been voted the freedom of the city.

June 15 he arrives at New York, where he will be greeted by delegations from all over the nation and received by President Taft.

COOPER FOLLOWERS GIVE REASON FOR THEIR BELIEF

With a theory that human health is dependent on the stomach and with a medicine which he says proves this theory, L. F. Cooper, a comparatively young man, has built up an immense following during the past year. Cooper has visited most of the leading cities of the country, and in each city has aroused a storm of discussion about his beliefs and his medicines. Wherever he has gone, people have called upon him by tens of thousands, and his preparation has sold in immense quantities.

The sale of this medicine has now spread over the entire country, and is growing enormously each day. In view of this, the following statements from two of the great number of followers which he now has, are of general interest.

N. V. Marsh, residing at 217 South Dalgair street, Los Angeles, Cal., has the following to say upon the subject of the Cooper preparation:

For more than a year I experienced the most intense suffering, due to a form of stomach trouble which the doctors called catarrhal gastritis. After eating I would fill up with gas, which caused frequent belching. The abdominal area would expand until I could scarcely breathe, causing great distress. At such times I could not sleep still, but paced the streets for hours until the pain subsided.

Frequently I went without eating rather than endure the torture that was sure to follow. Liquids were the only kind of food I could partake of with safety. I was afflicted with indigestion, and became badly run down through suffering and lack of proper nourishment. I tried various remedies in search of relief, but they failed to help me.

"Some time ago a brother member in a lodge to which I belong urged me to try the Cooper remedies, which were then being demonstrated in Los Angeles. He stated that to his personal knowledge they had been of great benefit to others in a like condition, and on the strength of his recommendation I procured a treatment of Cooper's New Discovery.

"It proved helpful from the first dose, and in less than a week I was eating regularly and heartily, without experiencing any bad effects afterward. Since taking the full treatment I am perfectly well and enjoy living for the first time in many months. Now I can eat a hearty supper, then go to bed and sleep like a healthy boy. I feel so well that I can hardly realize I am the same man Cooper's New Discovery has worked a marvelous change in me—I have done all that was claimed for it."

Another statement by Mr. W. B. Stewart, 199 W. Madison street, Chicago, is as follows: "I have had stomach trouble for years, and anyone who is afflicted this way knows what an awful distressed feeling it causes. Many a time I have felt that I would give up just any price to be cured. It was by accident that I heard of this man Cooper's remedies. I immediately made up my mind to buy a treatment of him. I used it for about two weeks, and it is impossible to tell how much good it has done me. I feel altogether different. I have more life and energy than I have had for years. The medicine certainly does stimulate and strengthen the whole system. Fired feeling and weight of the stomach has entirely passed away. I feel well again."

Cooper's New Discovery is sold by all druggists. If your druggist cannot supply you, write me and I will forward you a copy of my list. Don't accept "something just as good"—The Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio.

VOTES ON LICENSE

QUESTION OF "WET" OR "DRY" ENGAGES MANY TOWNS THROUGHOUT STATE.

HONORS BREAK ABOUT EVEN

Sentiment Hard to Gauge From Results of the Elections—"Wets" and "Drys" Each Make Gains.

Minneapolis, March 10.—Towns and villages held elections throughout Minnesota. In most of the towns the issue was that of "wet" or "dry." The question at issue in the towns was whether high license liquor legislation should prevail, or whether absolute prohibition should be the rule.

The returns furnished upon the subject of the elections, based as to the general trend of sentiment throughout the state. For the most part, the results show little change in sentiment in the towns.

The western and northwestern portions of the state, for the most part, showed a prevalence of "dry" sentiment, while in the central and northeastern parts of the state, the tendency was to vote license.

Interest in the election, in Hennepin county, greatest interest attached to the contest in Excelsior, where the fight was spirited. There was the largest vote here in the history of the town, the "drys" carrying by a margin of six.

By a singular coincidence the candidates supported by the "wet" faction, with one exception, were all elected, indicating there is a tendency upon the part of the voters to vote against the law.

The towns of some of the candidates for office in the Republican state ticket showed peculiar results. Growth Valley, the home of S. Y. Gordon, the county option candidate for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor, went "dry."

Long Prairie, the home of W. E. Lee, who has been boosted as a possible county option candidate for governor, went "wet."

HELD FOR BIGAMY.

Duluth Man Had Superfluity of help-mates.

Duluth.—J. E. Worthington, a fur buyer, who until recently, was employed by G. G. Shawaker of this city, was arrested charged with bigamy.

It is charged that he married Mary Jane Day, Odessa, Wis., in 1892, under the name of William D. Angus, which is said to be his right name. He is charged with having wedded Ethel Holiday in Duluth last May. It is stated that his stepfather's name is Angus and that his right to call himself Worthington is legitimate.

Worthington several months ago was charged with embezzlement by his employer, Shawaker, and the case was tried in Wisconsin. Worthington was acquitted and he has brought suit against Shawaker for damages for false accusation and imprisonment, demanding $3,200. This case was on trial here and is almost ready to go to the jury.

Worthington had just left the courtroom when he was arrested.

SHOOTS DAUGHTER AND SELF.

Parent Enraged When Girl's Objective Sutor Calls.

Judson.—Robert Pfifer, shot his daughter Maud, aged 19, and then turned the gun upon himself. The shooting was the sequel of a quarrel over a young man with whom the young woman has been keeping company.

The girl was shot in the hip and is not thought to be seriously injured. Pfifer fired three bullets into his left side and is in a critical condition. Both were hurried to a hospital in Mankato.

After the young man in the case had called upon Miss Pfifer the father took the girl to task for ignoring his instructions not to receive the guest, and a violent quarrel ensued. Pfifer had a revolver and, according to his wife, aimed it at and fired upon the girl. Pfifer says his intent was to wound her only, and that the wounding of the girl was purely accidental.

REITER WINS ELECTION.

Former Mayor of Rochester, Minn., Secures Anti-Franchise Victory.

Rochester.—One man swung Rochester's city election, turned out three members of the present city council, and checked a proposal that would have created a local corporation. Rochester's entire city administration was given a severe rebuke by the voters at the municipal election of Tuesday. Mayor Julius J. Reiter, who one year ago was defeated for reelection, again became the man of the hour.

Reiter's trouble started over the proposition to extend the franchise of the Rochester Telephone company twenty years. It was known that the election of any one of Reiter's three candidates for the council would have a tendency to defeat the proposed franchise but, as it turned out, Reiter's three men were elected by overwhelming majorities.

ADOLPHUS MAN WINS.

He Gets $50 in Intercollegiate Prohibition Association Contest.

Minneapolis.—C. E. Bredeson, of Gustavus Adolphus, college, at St. Peter, won the first prize of $50 in the first oration of "An Unfinished Task" at the tenth annual oratorical contest of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association of Minnesota.

The second prize of $25 was awarded to H. E. Mielke, student of Minnesota, on "The Greatest Good." The third prize of $10 was awarded Oscar Yrland, of Augsburg seminary, St. Anthony park, on "A Battle for Right."

ARBOR DAY IS PROCLAIMED.

Governor Eberhart Urges People to Beautify State.

St. Paul, March 12.—Beautifying of public grounds and highways of Minnesota will be undertaken by the people of the state Friday, April 29, set apart by proclamation of the governor as "Arbor and Bird Day." All schools and state institutions will be closed and general observation of the day urged.

Wine Room Charge Made.

Winona.—The return movement which has been sweeping over Winona the last few months since the inauguration of the present municipal administration, assumed a new phase when the chief of police H. A. Schmidt, and other officers of the department, raided the saloon of Ludwig Grisel, in the central part of the city, and arrested a woman occupant of the place and the proprietor. The specific charge against Grisel on the police book is the operation of a wine room in violation of the city ordinance. The woman, who is said to be a prominent resident of the city will appear as the state's witness.

REGENTS ARE RE-APPOINTED.

Minneapolis.—Governor Eberhart has re-appointed the members of the board of regents of the state university.

The appointments are the present incumbents—Pierre Butler, D. S. Smith and F. Nelson and C. A. Smith.

Efforts made by Twin City people to have James J. Hill named to the board have been unavailing. Mr. Hill has been too busy a man to take up the work.

LAND CONSERVATION

SECRETARY R. A. BALLINGER ON PROGRAM FOR CONSERVATION SPEECH.

PINCHOT WILL NOT ATTEND

Gov. Eberhart Talks on Conservation and Agricultural Development in the State—Address of Welcome by Archbishop Ireland.

St. Paul, Minn.—Great interest attaches to the Minnesota Conservation and Agricultural Development Congress, the first session of which was called to order in Wednesday morning by Archbishop John Ireland, because Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior and Clifford Pinchot, chief of creation of the United States, were both on the program.

Delegates were expecting that the joint between Ballinger and Pinchot, which has resulted in a congressional investigation for the former and the passing of the latter from office by the president, will have an airing and other prominent speakers are expected to take part in the controversy.

But Mr. Pinchot wired at the last moment that he could not leave Washington to attend the convention between the two is averted.

Secretary Ballinger was first on the program to speak on "National Conservation and the Opportunities and Obligations of the States."

Address by Gov. Eberhart.

Archbishop Ireland in calling the congress to order delivered an address of welcome in which he spoke of the resources of Minnesota. He said the necessary instruction in practical domestic science should be provided for the girls in the state."

The address of Secretary Ballinger was on the program to follow that of Gov. Eberhart and then Prof. Albert Woods, of Minnesota State Agricultural College, was heard on "Minnesota, a State on the Eve of a Wonderful Future."

Night session is held.

At the night session the speakers and their subjects were: Mrs. Margaret J. Blair, State Agricultural College, Home and Family; Max Holt, an Inexhaustible Fuel Supply; Geo. Otis Smith, United States Geological Survey, an Illustrated Lecture on the Program for Friday.

Subjects for discussion Friday include: "Agricultural and Industrial Education," "Pure Food," "The Health of the People," "Good Roads of Minnesota." Among the speakers are George F. Howard, State Agricultural College; Dick J. Conroy, expert on Agriculture; Prof. Frank Webster, Principal East Side High School, Minneapolis; Prof. L. H. # TAFT'S BROTHER-IN-LAW TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Was First Reported Dead From Appoplexy—President Attends Funeral at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Mar. 14.—With President Taft among the mourners at the graveside, the body of Thomas K. Taft, brother-in-law of the president, was interred in the Allegheny cemetery.

The funeral services of the millionaire who found life so burdensome that he brought it to its close with a pistol shot in the bedroom of his handsome home some time on Thursday night, were private and without ostentation. The casket was almost buried beneath a mass of floral tributes, including a large wreath from Mrs. Taft and white roses from Mr. and Mrs. Longworth.

President Taft, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. More, sisters of Mrs. Taft, rode in the second carriage, the first being occupied by the widow, brother and sister of the deceased.

The president, Mrs. More and Capt. Butt left here last evening for Washington.

Mr. Laughlin's death was at first reported to have been due to apoplexy but the fact that he shot himself through the head leaked out notwithstanding efforts by the family to keep the matter secret.

His friends believe that his long continued illness was the cause for the tragedy.

Mr. Laughlin's widow is a sister of Mrs. Taft.

A. M. Challen.

It is a shame and a disgrace that religious services in this town must be interrupted by a gang of hoodlams. It is about time for the marshal to get a hunch and see whether or not he can get some of the miscreants. On last Wednesday evening while Bishop Morrison was holding services in the G. A. R. hall, some of our smart ones (or those who think they are) went down to the hall and rattled the door, and that not satisfying them, turned out the electric lights. It's about time something was done, Mr. policeman.

Henry J. Rath on Tuesday showed us a new article for which he has applied for a patent. It is a clasp for a document file, that does away with the rubber bands that were always either breaking or stretching out of shape. The new contrivance is so constructed that it will hold securely one sheet of paper or all the file can hold, and can be operated with one hand. The clasp is durable, handy and serviceable, and there is no reason why Henry should not make a good thing out of his invention.

There were 15,677,112 pieces coined at the Mints of the United States in February, according to a statement issued by the Bureau of the Mint, Treasury Department. The total value was $4, 384,312.62. Just 774,000 peso pieces and 700,000 one-centavo pieces were coined for the Philippine government.

The Pine City orchestra is making arrangements to give an Easter dance in Stekl's hall on Monday evening March 25th. The orchestra has purchased a new piano which will be placed in the hall, and we have been informed that they intend to give two dances a month all summer. Supper will be served for the Easter Monday dance by Mrs. Jos. Petschel in the dining room under the hall. All those who want to have a good time tripping the light fantastic, and partaking of a good midnight supper should not fail to attend the Easter Monday dance.

Interesting Program.

The program given last Saturday evening by the men of the Presbyterian church, was well attended. The first number was a selection by the Pine City orchestra, after which A. H. W. Olson rendered a vocal solo in his usual pleasing manner. Miss Emma Gunn next gave one of her splendid readings, which was appreciated by the audience. The Hineckley male quartette then sang several selections which were well rendered. It was their first appearance before a Pine City audience, but we hope it will not be their last.

C. H. Johnson, of Rush City, then delivered an address on "Ambition." C. M. is a fluent speaker and makes his talk interesting by combining some humor with the main subject. The male quartette sang another selection after which ice cream and cake were served and a pleasant hour spent. The program was without a doubt one of the best ever given in our village.

DEPOSIT HERE CHECK ON US

A bank account is both a necessity and a convenience to the farmer. With a check book in his pocket and his money in this bank, he can pay out in any amount he has occasion to use, make exact change and know that the proper party will receive the money.

During the busy season he may send his checks by mail, often saving a long trip to town. Likewise, such checks as he may receive can be mailed to us and his account credited. These sums are then subject to his order.

The one fact that his checks, when cancelled and returned to him, are receipts for each payment made, makes a check account with this bank an important factor in the proper management of the farmer's business.

We will be glad to have your account at this bank.
