The publishers of the Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($2.00) is paid for 1913, a beautiful souvenir. This year it takes the unique form of a Window Transparency, to be hung in the window or in front of a lighted lamp. Through it the light shines as through the stained glass of a cathedral window, softly illuminating the design—a figure of Autumn laden with fruits and all around, wreathed in purple clusters of grapes and green foliage, is the circle of months. It is the most attractive gift ever sent to Companion readers.

Best Concert Course Ever Seen In Pine City Is Booked For This Season.

Large numbers of our people enjoyed the entertainment course which was given in the town hall last season and those people as well as many others will be pleased with the announcement that we are to have even a better one this year. The course last year was so well patronized that the committee felt safe in securing a more expensive list of attractions this year, and consequently they look for even better patronage for the course than was given last year.

There have been four attractions purchased from the National Lyceum Bureau of Chicago and the fifth number will be given by home talent.

We could say many good things about each number of the course including the home talent number, but space will not permit, and each purchaser of a season ticket will be given a folder containing descriptive matter in regard to each number of the course.

Notice the following important announcements, pertaining to this season's course. Season tickets, including reserved seats for each number will sell for $1.50. When you get your seat reserved for the first number of the course that seat will be yours through the entire course. You will have to get a season ticket to be insured of getting a good seat. Single admission seats will sell at 50 cents for each number except the first number (McCormick and Bronte) which will sell for 25 cents. Each number will be given at the evening of December 6th.

Kindly get your tickets at the earliest convenience and thus save the committee needless work and worry.

Everyone who can should help to make this course a success.

A CHALLENGE

To the Editor of the Hinckley Herald:

Sir:—The questions which you asked in your issue of Oct. 30th, 1912, are malicious and misleading, and were placed there for the purpose of influencing the voters of this county to vote against my son at the general election. Hence I decline to answer them.

But it seems to me to be proper and fitting that the people of this county should have conclusive proof as to the truthfulness or untruthfulness of the statements which you have printed about me.

Therefore, I offer you or any of your satellites five hundred dollars if any of you can prove one instance wherein my transactions were unlawful, or wherein the state or county was unlawfully defrauded by my attending any of these sales.

Any or all of the accusations which you have made shall be judged by five business men of this county, two of whom I shall choose, and the fifth member to be chosen by the other four.

This hearing must be held at the courthouse not later than Nov. 30th, 1912.

The loser of this hearing shall pledge himself to pay the cost of the hearing.

Signed,
JAMES HURLEY.

FIRST REAL STORY OF TURKISH DEFEAT

London War Correspondent, Working in Disguise, Gives the News to the World.

SULTAN'S ARMIES WIPE OUT

Forty Thousand Have Been Slain in Fierce Battles, Almost All the Artillery Captured, and Thousands Made Prisoners—Complete Turkish Disaster.

London, Nov. 6.—The world has had but meager details of the terrific fighting between the Turks and the allied Balkan states. A strict military censorship, and the fact that correspondents have not been permitted to accompany any of the armies in the field, have been responsible for keeping the world in ignorance of these details.

Marth H. Donahue, war correspondent of the London Chronicle, in the guise of a medical assistant of the Red Cross workers, witnessed the terrible battle in Thrace, resulting in one of the most disastrous defeats known to modern warfare. To escape the Turkish censors Mr. Donahue sent his story by automobile from Thraci to Constantinople, and from there by boat to Constantza, Romania, from where it was carried to London.

His story of the battle is as follows: "Irreversible disaster has broken the Turkish army. It has suffered an appalling defeat. This has been followed by confusion and a rout for which there is scarcely a parallel in history—a rout which in its later stages degenerated into a wild, uncontrolled stampede, which communicated itself to the whole fighting force.

"As I am writing this dispatch the army corps forming Abdullah Pasha's splendid army lie battered and decimated, and the defensive lines have been pulled toward the advancing Bulgarians.

"Defeat Is Like Sedan. "It has been the most complete military disaster since Mukden, the great debacle since Sedan. Forty thousand men, the flower of the Turkish troops, have fallen, while Abdullah Pasha himself narrowly escaped their fate.

"Seventy-five per cent of his artillery was captured. His camp seemed to melt away like snow before the summer sun.

"After the disintegration began it dissolved into regiments, regiments into companies, and the companies became small groups until all cohesion disappeared and the army had become a complete rout.

"For a like disaster one is compelled to refer to Napoleon's memorable retreat from Moscow.

"The Bulgarians, advancing in large numbers, strongly supported by their artillery, steadily drove back the Turks, who retired in the direction of Lule Burgas. Throughout the terrible fighting the superiority of the Turkish artillery was unquestioned. The Turks were unable to stand the murderous fire and withdrew slowly.

"The gunners being dead and a majority of the horses being killed, the artillery was forced to abandon guns to the enemy. The Bulgarians, who displayed extraordinary energy, pressed forward determined to make the most of their advantage.

"Shelled From Lule Burgas. "By the afternoon the Bulgarians had shelled the Turks out of Lule Burgas.

"Fortunately the inhabitants had fled and the loss of life among non-combatants was small. Having effected a retreat to the west, the Bulgarians launched an infant attack, which stormed the town at the point of the bayonet.

"The greater part of the Turkish garrison had already withdrawn, but the men of the rear guard were caught like rats in a trap. The soldiers of the fourth corps, although they had been without food for two days, offered a stubborn but unavailing resistance. They died to a man.

"The Turkish commander in chief had watched the fight from the heights near the village of Salkioz, east of Lule Burgas. He observed the Turkish artillery and infantry being moved down his face from grave to grave.

"The Turkish artillery had from the beginning been poorly supplied with ammunition. What it had was practically expended in the morning fight, and now many gunners stood around the empty barrels with folded arms.

"Unable to reply to the Bulgarian fire they awaited death, which came swiftly, with true Ottoman courage.

"Along the whole Turkish front the troops were harassed by a terrible fire. As time went on it became simply a carnage, men falling in hundreds. The remains of the troops were completely destroyed by the appalling shell fire. When night closed in on the decimated Turks it brought only a short respite to the Bulgarian army from shot and shell. The men hadly needed sleep and food, but the Turkish commissariat was nonexistent.

"Chase Starving Turks. "No food was there and sleep was impossible as the pursuing Bulgarians were endowed with relentless force and energy. Turkish dead and wounded lay everywhere and encumbered the ground in all directions.

"Surgons were few and ambulances absolutely none. The dead lay where they had fallen. Some attempt was made to remove and succor the wounded, but the greater portion perished miserably in the bitter cold of the night.

"For an hour the retreat was in good order, subsequently, pressed by the mass behind, the vanguard speedily lost all semblance to an organized army. The men abandoned heavy arms and rifles, all equipment in the field, have been responsible for keeping the world in ignorance of these details.

"Two hours after sunrise the Bulgarians obtained information of what was happening in the ranks of Abdullah Pasha's army, and started in pursuit. Thereafter the retreat was a disorderly rout. Salkioz was speedily occupied by the Bulgarians, practice the Turkish army and the Turkish baggage, guns, equipment and all their military stores fell into the hands of the Bulgarians.

"The only ray of hope throughout the long and bitter day of disaster and death was obtained by the partial success of a night wing, under Mukhtar Pasha. While the left wing and the center were being fiercely assailed Mukhtar Pasha, under the orders of Abdullah Pasha, essayed a counter-attack. The Turkish right sought to turn the Bulgarian left and there was desperate fighting between Mukhtar's troops and the Bulgarians. The Lutrada Heights until night closed in.

"On Wednesday the full strength of the Bulgarian army was hurled against the Turkish left, it being the weakest point of the entire defensive line. Abdullah Pasha's losses had been enormous and the Bulgarians were determined to force the Turkish left center at any cost. In this effort a feeble ruse was made by the Turkish artillery and efforts were made to sustain the Turkish left and the threatened flank. The transportation was inefficient and no food forthcoming.

"The Turkish army was routed and the Bulgarian left center at any cost. In this effort a feeble ruse was made by the Turkish artillery and efforts were made to sustain the Turkish left and the threatened flank. The transportation was inefficient and no food forthcoming.

Men Need Help—Not Charity. There is a higher duty than to build almshouses for the poor, and that is to save men from being degraded by the blighting influence of an almshouse. Man has a right to something more than bread to keep him from starving. He has a right to the aids and encouragements and culture, by which he may fulfil the destiny of a man. If I know a man who is usually kept from starving, I will recognize and reverence that man, and continue to grant under its present miseries.—Channing.

AUTO KILLS CHILD

TRIED TO CROSS DRIVE

In Struck by Car—Several Witnesses Assert the Driver, Howard Smart, Is Blameless.

Minneapolis.—Eight-year-old Ethel Brown, daughter of Mrs. Emily C. Brown, 2383 Eighth street south, was the sixth victim within the last two months of a fatal automobile accident. She was struck, knocked down and mortally injured on the West River drive, near Twenty-second street east, by a machine driven by Howard E. Smart, 1945 Portland avenue, St. Paul, and died shortly after reaching the St. Mary hospital.

The little girl's father, Joseph B. Brown, met death in a similar manner on October 5, 1911, when the automobile in which he was riding was upset near Jordan, and he was thrown out, suffering a fracture of the skull.

Ethel had been out walking with her mother, her brother Ralph, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halverson. They had visited the government dam and were on their way home when the accident occurred.

Automobiles and carriages were going in both directions and the child suddenly attempted to cross the drive by doubling behind one machine, thereby running directly into Mr. Smart's machine, which was on the way toward Minnehaha Falls. The machine struck her a glancing blow on the side of the head and she was hurled to the pavement with great force, but fell clear of the car.

Mr. Smart stopped his car within its own length, and his companion, Miss Frances B. Palmer, a nurse in St. Luke's hospital, jumped out and tried to read what aid she could. The little victim was lifted into the automobile of G. S. Cromwell. A fast run was made to the hospital, but the child expired shortly afterward.

Mr. Smart was arrested by Park Policemen Bloomgren. He was locked up, but was later released on a $10,000 bond. The county attorney and by order of Judge Montgomery of the municipal court, who permitted the prisoner his freedom on his personal recognizance.

Former Governor Van Sant and his chauffeur were witnesses to the accident and told the judge it was apparently unavoidable, and that the driver was not to blame. The victim's uncle also said he could not hold Mr. Smart responsible and was grateful that he had not been killed. He said he would render assistance. The mother was frantic with grief when she was told her little girl had died. It was feared she would lose her reason and a physician had to be called to attend her. She was first removed to her sister's home, but later went to her own home where she is under the care of relatives.

Mr. Smart said he had driven his own car for the last six years and that this is the first accident he ever had. He estimated his speed at the time at about eight miles an hour. He will appear in municipal court this morning. No formal charges have been made against him. He is the manager of the Canadian Real Estate company, St. Paul.

FIVE ARE HURT.

Duluth Party Injured When Machine Rolls Down Steep Embankment.

Duluth.—Murdock McDonald and his 13-year-old son, Byron, both of Virginia, were quite seriously injured when a large touring car, in which they were riding, ran off the boulevard drive at Ninth avenue east and rolled down the steep embankment, turning over twice. Two women, Miss Clementine Smith and Mrs. Alice Pryor of Eveleville, sisters of Mr. McDonald, who occupied the rear seats, escaped with but a few scratches.

The injured man and his son were rushed to St. Luke's hospital. The father's hip is injured and the son is suffering from a strained back. Martin Brady, a boy who was sitting on a rock near the road when the big car left the drive, was struck by it and knocked down the hill. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, but was allowed to leave, his injuries not being considered serious.

According to the McDonald boy, his father was driving slowly along the boulevard, when near Ninth avenue east, they met a team approaching. "My father turned to the right and the driver of the team turned toward the same way," said the boy. "Then he turned to the left and the driver did the same. Then, as we ran into the team, father pulled to the outer side of the road. As the team came left the driveway and tipped down the hill."

Gardeners to Attend Show.

St. Paul.—The Men's Garden Club of Ramsey county attended the Flower Show at the Auditorium on Monday. About 100 members were present, and efforts were made to interest visitors in the show in the advantages of having not only a scientific floral exhibit, but in maintaining gardens in all parts of the city. The club officers are: Dr. J. E. Nelson, president; Warren L. Soley, vice president; E. W. Parker, treasurer, and F. H. Thomas, secretary.

UNIVERSITY WEEKS.

Second Series of Tours in View—Practical Government Educational Bureau.

Minneapolis.—Plans for a second annual series of "University weeks" in the form of tours by University of Minnesota professors are being made by various departments to be represented in the project. Eighteen towns were visited last June and the tour became widely known as "President Vincent's Educational Circuit," the scheme of organizing the most active activities of the university to sections of the state having been originated by President George E. Vincent. All the eighteen towns visited the visit next year and it is probable that the tour next June will include more than 100 towns of the state.

Desiring that other state universities should take up the plan and carry the most practical features to the west, the national bureau of education at Washington has issued the following bulletin on the work of the Minnesota institution last year:

"The little girl's father, Joseph B. Brown, met death in a similar manner on October 5, 1911, when the automobile in which he was riding was upset near Jordan, and he was thrown out, suffering a fracture of the skull. Ethel had been out walking with her mother, her brother Ralph, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Halverson. The machine struck her a glancing blow on the side of the head and she was hurled to the pavement with great force, but fell clear of the car. The little victim was lifted into the automobile of G. S. Cromwell. A fast run was made to the hospital, but the child expired shortly afterward. Mr. Smart was arrested by Park Policemen Bloomgren. He will appear in municipal court this morning. No formal charges have been made against him. He is the manager of the Canadian Real Estate company, St. Paul.

"The plan is something more than merely university extension. To all intents and purposes a representative portion of the university is temporarily detached and transferred to other parts of the state, thus actually extending the benefits of the university to a wider field than ever before. The plan is considered by the United States bureau of education an excellent device for bringing together for mutual profit a state university and the people who support it.

"What 'university week' really is, may be seen from a typical program. Each day of the six is devoted to some special topic, with lectures and demonstrations during the day time and high-class entertainment at night. Thus, Monday is business men's day. There are lectures on all kinds of topics interesting to business men, such as marketing problems, fighting forest fires, as well as a few talks of more general nature. In the evening there is a concert by the University Glee club. Tuesday is an art and literature day, with lectures on libraries, children's books, women's clubs, civic betterment, the drama, and similar subjects. There is a reading of the Declaration of Independence in charge of a trained elocutionist, and an industrial art exhibit, in the evening an illustrated lecture, 'Art in Common Things,' by the artist, William Merritt Chase. In the day sessions such problems as 'The Human Beings of High School Age,' 'Why Babies Die,' rationalization in industry, and industrial education are considered, while at night a prominent educator gives an illustrated lecture on 'How Minnesota is Changing.' Thursday is public health day, with appropriate lectures and exhibits. In the evening there is a dramatic recital of a modern play.

"Friday is farmers' day, and live questions of farm policy are discussed by experts in agriculture. There is an address on 'The Social Possibilities of Rural Communities' by an educator who has made special studies in this field. In the evening professors from the university give a scientific demonstration of the eye, nose and liquid air. Saturday is town and country day, with 'Social Life in Town and Country' as the leading topic. In the evening the University Dramatic club appears in Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice.

"Genuine interest is aroused in the towns visited. In most instances the people take the visit of the university as the business of the week, and devote all their attention to it. Not only the town people, but farmers from outlying districts as well attend the session. Boys' farming camps are organized in connection with the university week and always prove a popular feature. The university authorities and those who co-operate with them—state health boards and other agencies—are particularly careful to provide speakers who not only know their subject well, but are able to talk interestingly to a non-university audience. The expense of obtaining such men would be prohibitive but for an ingenious arrangement of circuits, whereby the traveling university week is able to 'play' six communities in the same neighborhood by interchanging days.

"It is estimated that there are several ways in which this novel project is extending the influence of the university will have a direct effect. In the first place, it will make the work of the university well and favorably known, and more important still, it will break down the already weakening barrier of educational exclusiveness, and more important still, it is one more link in the chain of betterment. It emphasizes an essential point in the present-day condition of rural life—that town and country are one community.

Wisconsin.—Three very small children of Max A. Conrad were engaged in playing soccer when Governor Eberhart's father appeared with a ball containing powder. One of the children tasted the powder and complained that it was bitter. The three other players also tasted it. It is believed that way one of the toes suggested that some of the powder be spread on one apple on the 'store' counter. This was given to a lame rabbit which died in convulsions.

GIVEN UP FOR DEAD; REVIVED

IN FOUR HOURS WOMAN SITS UP IN BED AND CHATS.

Physicians Pronounce Recovery of Mrs. Wolfer Remarkable in Science.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Just four hours after she had been given up for dead by her physicians, Mrs. Christ Wolfer, of Linton, N. D., sat up in her bed in the Swedish hospital and chatted with her attendants. Her complete recovery is now expected. The woman's physicians, Drs. F. A. Dunsmore and N. H. Scheldrup, attribute the saving of her life to the use of a pulmonary which was applied about half an hour after hopes for saving her life had been despaired of. It was kept in operation for four hours.

The case is said to be one of the most marvelous in the annals of medical science. Dr. Scheldrup said it was one of the most wonderful he had encountered in all his career as a physician and that even after the pulmonary was applied he did not expect that the woman would be revived.

Mrs. Wolfer, who is 55 years old, recently was taken to the Swedish hospital from her home in North Dakota and was operated upon by Drs. Dunsmore and Scheldrup. "Mrs. Wolfer's pulse was beating between 70 and 80 and respiration had ceased entirely," said Dr. Scheldrup. "Her body turned blue from lack of oxygen and we had given up hopes of saving her life. She was practically dead. Nevertheless, we applied oxygen until the arrival of the pulmonary, which came about 20 minutes after her collapse.

"The pulmonary was kept in operation continuously for four hours. At the end of that time Mrs. Wolfer regained consciousness and was able to talk. She has fully recovered from the effects of her collapse and unless unforeseen complications set in, she will recover."

MINE MUCH ORE

Inspector Ramquist Declares in Favor of Workmen's Compensation Law.

Grand Rapids.—"It is time for the great state of Minnesota to follow the lead of such countries as England and Germany, or such states as Illinois and Wisconsin, and enact into law a workmen's compensation act," said P. Ramquist, inspector of the Itasca county mines, who has just submitted his annual report to the county commissioners. Mr. Ramquist believes that under a compensation law a more satisfactory condition would exist both for working men in the mines and other employees.

The report submitted by Mr. Ramquist shows that during the past year the shipments of ore from the Itasca county mines were a million tons greater than during the year previous. The number of employees, however, had decreased about 27 per cent. The increase of production with a smaller number of men is due to the fact that the mines operated during the past year, Hill and Holman mines, completed their stripping in the winters of 1911 and 1912 and, with the overhead removed, a relatively small number of men can operate a large ore body.

The inspector's report shows that the number of gross tons of ore mined the past year totaled 4,624,161 tons. Ten mines are shipping, and three not shipping this year. The number of men employed is given at 2,230; number working on the surface 1,730 and those working underground 500. The number of fatal accidents last year were four and minor accidents 174.

The mines operating in Itasca county now are the Canisteo, Hill, Holman, Mississippi, Crosby, Hawkins, Macgregor, Linton, Bray, Forest, Alexandria, St. Paul and Platt.

VERY LITTLE CHANGE.

Roosevelt Has Minnesota by 18,000 and Eberhart by Not Less Than 20,000.

St. Paul.—Additional corrected returns made but little change in the claimed priorities of the earliest winners in the battle of ballots which took place last Tuesday. Theodore Roosevelt has Minnesota by at least 18,000 and Governor Eberhart is a winner by not less than 20,000.

Returns from 2,341 precincts were returned last night. Roosevelt has 138,400, and Eberhart has 113,384. There are 418,000 more than 600 precincts to be heard from and they may increase the Oyster Bay man's lead. Returns from 452 precincts give Governor Eberhart 116,930 and P. M. Ringold, the Democratic candidate, 90,823.

TURK DEFEAT SURE

MEDIATION ATTEMPTED.

Now Possible Bulgarians May Not Enter Ottoman Capital—Movements of Armies.

London, Nov. 11.—Judging by all reports in the present war, the news from Constantinople last night was the herald of another Turkish defeat at the Tchatalja lines, where a battle has been proceeding for the last two or three days.

The Turkish admission that so many wounded are arriving at the capital as to show that the Turks are offering fierce resistance, has a great significance, in view of previous admissions of a similar nature, and may be regarded as preparing the public mind for another appointment. It may be quite possible that this will prove the last great battle of the campaign.

There are indications that Bulgaria may, after all, forego a triumphal entry into Constantinople. According to some reports, Bulgaria will be content with fighting suitable winter quarters for her army while the peace negotiations are going on and subsequent settlements are being arranged.

Step Toward Mediation.

The question of mediation has made another step forward in the announcement from Paris that the American government has agreed to join with the other powers in transmitting Turkey's request for mediation to the Balkan powers, on what terms the allies are disposed to accept mediation.

The revelation of the danger to European peace lying in the antagonistic interests of Austria and Serbia appears to have quickened the sense of the powers, and probably of the Balkan states, also, that the imperative need of working in amicable cooperation to procure a settlement of the Balkan problems acceptable to all the parties concerned is imperative. Another factor making for the speedy cessation of the war is the approach of severe winter conditions, which would give to the campaign an extremely arduous character.

German Influence Seen.

There still is talk in Vienna of sending an ultimatum to Serbia, and other warlike reports, but it is believed Germany is exercising ameliorating influence on the Austrians, and that Austria and Serbia is consent to a postponement of the settlement until the whole matter can be dealt with by the European conference. The same attitude is seen in all the European capitals. It is understood that after his important mission at Buda Pest is concluded, Dr. Banfi, president of the Hungarian chamber of deputies, will go to the other European courts to explain the views of the allies.

Chances for Armistice.

Constantinople.—The Bulgarians began an attack on the Turkish advanced positions along the Tschatalja line Monday afternoon. The fighting continued throughout the day.

Judging from the number of wounded, the fighting was very hot. The Turkish troops are offering fierce resistance.

U. S. EXPENDITURES LOWER

Washington, Nov. 9.—Detailed statements of expenditures authorized during the second session of the Sixty-second congress were filed at the capital by the clerks of the appropriations committee of both houses.

During the session of this congress a grand total of $1,019,417,710.91 was authorized for the running of the government, including the agriculture, army, navy, diplomatic and consular, District of Columbia, fortification, judicial, legislative, executive and judicial, military academy, pension, post-office, rivers and harbors, sundry civil, deficiency, miscellaneous and permanent appropriation bills.

A comparison of statistics show that the contract liabilities are more than $9,000,000 less than those for the first session of the Sixty-second congress.

ROSENTHAL CASE IS STARTED

Two Hundred Talmemen Are Called for Trial of New York Men Accused of Murder.

New York, Nov. 9.—Two hundred talmemen reported at the Criminal Court building for the trial of "Whitey" Lewis and fifty others, charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal at Charles Becker's bidding. Until this morning the forty men had insisted on a separate trial for each, but an eleven-hour decision resulted in an agreement to try them together. It is expected that all four will take the stand in their own behalf. The state's chief witnesses will be "Red Jack" Brown, "Redlight" Wheeler and the other informers who figured so prominently in the Becker trial.

Conductor to Legislature.

New York, Nov. 9.—A street car conductor, who did all his campaigning from the rear platform of the car, was elected to the legislature, in one of the successful Brooklyn candidates for the state legislature. He is Joseph Monahan, Democrat.

JAMES M. COX

TROUBLES PILE UPON NEGRO PRISON FIGHTER

Flooded With Civil Suits by Creditors—Put Darker Section After Protest From Prisoners.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Locked in cell No. 200 in the negro quarters of the county jail, his cell mate a negro accused of murder, "Jack" Johnson is facing more trouble than has ever before come to him in his thorns and roses pugilistic career. His arrest as a "white slaver" has brought forth an avalanche of civil suits from creditors and another warrant for his arrest on a charge of assaulting a newspaper photographer. Not being held as a surety for his release. Not only this, but the federal grand jury today will investigate further his relations with white girls.

Johnson had been taken to the negro section of the jail after a remarkable demonstration by the white prisoners. "Hang him," they shouted as the druggist became the strong all over the jail. "Get him out of here!" they cried for the yell.

The pugilist who had been suffering about his little cell on the fifth tier, banding the guards, grew angry at the yell.

"I'd give just $50 to slug that one," he yelled to a guard, pointing at the prisoner who was particularly abusive. When he complained of illness he was taken to the jail hospital, where Dr. Thomas Hopton, the jail physician, examined him. He said he was in perfect condition.

It was thought best not to take him back to the white prisoners' quarters because of the demonstration against him, so he was taken to the second tier, where negroes are confined. He asked for a cell mate, and John Brown, a federal prisoner held on a charge of murder, was allowed to share the cell with him. Brown was a cook on a lake steamer and is accused of stabbing a fellow employe to death.

WE UNDERSTOOD that it was unlawful for anyone to lecture within 100 feet of any polling place at the recent election, and yet we have been informed upon good authority, that in the Township of Pokegama a paper was circulated and lecturing done just outside the door of the polling place by T. E. Ryan, who was the officer in charge of the precinct, and Henry Hempel. It is also safe to presume that the same tactics were resorted to in other precincts as well. It shows that the Hinkley Herald and its supporters employed any manner of means, whether lawful or not, to secure their ends.

HONEST SALOONKEEPER

Tells His Patrons Exactly What They May Expect.

Tombstone, Ariz., claims to have the frankest saloonkeeper in the United States.

He keeps the Temple Bar saloon and advertises his business in the following remarkable manner.

"Friends and neighbors—I am grateful for past favors, and, having supplied my store with a fine line of choice liquors, allow me to inform you that I shall continue to make drunks, paupers and beggars for the sober, industrious, respectable part of the community to support. My liquors will excite riot robbery and bloodshed.

"They will diminish your comforts, increase your expenses and shorten life. I shall confidently recommend them as sure to multiply fatal accidents and incurable diseases.

"They will deprive some of life, others of reason, many of character, and all of peace. They will make fathers fiends, wives, widows, children orphans and all poor.

"I will train your sons in infidelity, dissipation, ignorance, lawlessness and every other vice. I will corrupt the ministers of religion, obstruct the Gospel, defile the church and cause as much temporal and eternal death as I can.

"I will thus accommodate the public—it may be at the loss of my never-dying soul. But I have a family to support, the business pays, and the public encourages it.

"I have paid my license and the traffic is lawful, and if I don't sell it somebody will. I know the Bible says: 'Thou shalt not kill'; so drunks shall enter the kingdom of heaven; and I do not expect the drunkard maker to fare any better, but I want no easy living and I have resolved to gather the wages of iniquity and fatten on the ruin of my species.

"I shall, therefore, carry on my business with energy and do my best to

Library and State Aid—Common School Certificates—Teachers' Association.

To Teachers and School Clerks:—

The following is respectfully submitted for your kind consideration:

Library Aid.

You are advised that the appropriation of $22,500 for public school libraries for the current school year has been expended. No further funds are available. I can, therefore, not certify any more orders on the State Auditor for library aid for the remainder of this school year.

Semigraded schools that desire to secure special State Aid for the current school year will nevertheless be required to expend $7.50, and rural schools of Classes A, B and C will be required to expend $5.00 in making additions to their library. The application of each of these schools for state aid next summer must be accompanied by a receipt for the purchase of library books, unless the books were bought from the State Library Contractor, The St. Paul Book and Stationery Company.

State Aid.

Your attention is directed to one additional requirement for the receiving of state aid in Semi-graded and in Rural Schools of Classes A, B and C.

"(h) Primary Material. Ample material for seat work in primary grades must be provided. At least $10.00 for each school."

It is desirable that this rule should effect the provisions of this material in the schools during the present school year.

Common School Certificates.

A revised edition of the Rules Relating to Examinations and Certificates will be ready for distribution before January first. One new statement in the Rules will be that a credit in PLANE GEOMETRY will be required for a First Grade certificate; no substitute credit or optional examination will be accepted for that subject after August, 1913.

The State Department plans to postpone the Teachers' Examination, which has been held in February, until May. This was done in 1911. It may be thought desirable later, if found to be practicable, to offer no written examination for certificates until August, 1913.

Teachers' Association.

I wish every teacher who is interested in having a meeting of the Pine County Teachers' Association some Saturday between now and Dec. 14th, would kindly write to me to that effect.

If it is the wish of teachers to have such a meeting this fall, I shall prefer to call one at some convenient time. I will also be pleased to receive suggestions from you, as to date, which will best accommodate you.

Suggestions as to the topics which you would desire to have discussed at the meeting.

Do you prefer the Round Table Sessions to the General Sessions?

Are you in favor of a question box in the rural section?

What is your idea of the Model Class demonstration?

I wish to know the desire of all teachers in the county in this connection and will highly appreciate any suggestions which you may offer.

Yours very truly,

H. G. OTIS,

County Superintendent.

"A sight of them will convince you that I do what I say.

THERE is a difference between fresh canned goods and old stock. Only the newest is best--- having that delicate natural flavor of the fruit or vegetables. Knowing this we buy only from factories which can their goods immediately after they are picked or grown---factories which are known to work under conditions of perfect cleanliness.

You may rely absolutely on our goods. We keep a large variety rather than an extensive stock--constant renewal being our policy. Next time you use our canned goods note the fresh, natural taste--the character of them all
