WASTE AVOIDED BY CANNING
Great Convenience to Housewife When Usual Supplies of Fresh Meat Are Exhausted—More Varied Diet Made Possible.

It is very difficult to keep fresh meat on the farm without a refrigerator or ice supply. As such conveniences are often lacking in farm homes, the importance of canning becomes evident, especially as the curing of meat is also difficult in certain regions, as for example in the extreme South. The farmer who has no ice frequently loses meat when the weather suddenly turns warm or during a hot spell. Often, too, he uses more fresh meat than he needs in order to consume it before it spoils. This means a waste of one of the most important articles of the diet and one which is usually relatively expensive. It is possible not only to avoid such waste by canning, but also to utilize meat scraps, soup bones, and, in fact, every part of the animal useful for food purposes.

With a supply of canned meats the housewife can prepare and serve a palatable meal on short notice without saving of both fuel and time. It also makes possible a more varied diet, lessening the dependence upon cured, salted, and smoked meats, the constant and exclusive use of which means monotony and less wholesome diet for the family.

Steam-pressure canners for home use are generally made of either galvanized sheet-iron covers, that can be securely fastened to the pot, or they may be made of cast aluminum. They can be had from reliable makers at prices ranging upward from $15, according to capacity and material used in construction. Steel canners can be had either with or without a suitable heating device. They can be used over a wood, coal, or gas stove or over a brick furnace, just as they can be used over a wood, coal, or gas stove. They are made in several types of models (under pressure) burners. The aluminum pressure canners, attention in many cases where they are not only used for canning under steam pressure but also for everyday cooking, may be heated over a wood, coal, or gas stove, or over a brick furnace, just as they can be used over a wood, coal, or gas stove. Meats are ready for preparation for the canner as soon as the animal has been slaughtered. They may be prepared in a clean manner as possible. Boy Probably Told Truth.
Chances Are There Was Good, Hard Bottom to Slough if Traveler Had Reached It.
Occasionally there are times when a man or woman who is in a difficult situation that paradox:
In Oregon there are many sloughs of mud or quicksand which are difficult and dangerous to cross. A certain Methodist missionary in that state, in the course of his travels, came to a slough which looked so formidable that he called a boy, who was chopping wood on the other side, and said:
'Boy, is that a safe slough to cross?'
'Oh, yes.'
'Has it a good hard bottom?'
'Oh, yes,' said the boy.
The man started to cross; his horse balked, and he had to dismount and wade out. Naturally he was angry. 'Did you do it to me?' he demanded. 'Didn't you say the slough had a good hard bottom?'
'Oh, yes,' said the boy. 'The bottom is good and hard, but you didn't get down to it.'—Methodist Central Bulletin.

Loyal people everywhere were pleased with the election of Larry C. Hodgson as mayor of St. Paul over the man-who-kissed-the-flag-at-Dale-under-protest because it proves St. Paul's loyalty as nothing else could do.

When Chas. A. Lindberg, Non-party candidate for governor, and a party of his sympathizers went to Governor Burquist, last week, with a petition for protection against officials who are claimed to be "breaking up Nonpartisan meetings for political effect," the governor listened patiently to their petition and then asked each member of their party if he knew of a single instance where an official in this state had taken on a meeting for political effect—or any other except disloyalty.

"How many votes will the Non-partisans have this fall?" is a common question. The POKER does not answer it for them. But we do know this, that the Nonparty vote will not be measured by its membership. There are many members of the organization who are there feeling that "the farmer has a right to organize" but who do not believe that they are bound to vote for any set of candidates for office because they bear the Nonparty brand any more than as if they were Republicans or Democrats.

Senator Rystrom was up from North Branch on business, Monday. His duties as manager of the Farmers' Starch Co. and the flour mill at that place keep him so busy at this season that he is afraid he will not be able to make any campaign for renomination for the state senatorship, for which he is a candidate. However, he is so well known over the district that he will hardly be necessary for him to call on the voters, personally—especially under the circumstances. In Pine county he would get a great many votes that he might otherwise go to both Cunningham and Larsen, and he will carry Chicago by a big vote.

Pine City School News

The senior class play—"Claim Allowance"—was greeted by a well filled house at St. Mary's hall, last Saturday evening, and everyone present was enthusiastic in their praise of the work of the young actors which was repeatedly hailed with applause. On such an occasion it is a hard matter to pick out especially commendable and unskilled human judgement is mighty liable to err—but no one could let the entire performance go without the most hearty approval of the work of the cast or the efforts of Misses Goodwin and Johnson in preparing the play. The play was an intensely patriotic one but without a particle of sting for any of the peoples with whom our Country is at war, and aroused the patriotic fervor of everyone. Richard Duxbury as a true-blue American-German was a cracker Jack and amply showed what an actor a theater may do for his adopted country and how the light of his spirit may lead and strengthen others. The net cash result of the performance, amounting to about $120, will be turned over to the local branch of the Red Cross.

It is probable that there will be a large attendance of Pine City students at the Little Eight field meet and oratorical contest at Rush City, Saturday of this week. Our North branch will play Cambridge in the afternoon for the first base ball pennant. A study of the score book of each club indicates that they are pretty evenly matched—we beat Hinkley 25 to 0 and Cambridge defeated them 42 to 2, while we defeated Mora 12 to 1 and Cambridge was only able to beat them 9 to 5. Men who have seen both teams in action, however, predict a victory for our boys. In the oratorical Frances Crowley and Chester Barnum will represent our school and in the field and track events we will have strong contenders all down the line. North branch is expected to prove much our strongest contender for these latter penants.

Our ball team "brought home the bacon" from Mora, last Saturday afternoon, having defeated the team at that place by the decisive score of 12 to 1. Edin pitched for the Pine City team and had the Morales guessing through the nine innings—they hardly touched him, while he struck out 18 men. Mora worked two pitchers, both of whom were hit. Chet Hinkley was the only big stickers from home while Bob Worlie carried off fielding honors. Bob made a running catch in left field in about the sixth inning, when Mora had the bases full, then retired the side and set the Pine City fans wild. Only a few students accompanied the team on the trip though the day was an ideal one for the drive and was greatly enjoyed by those who went.

An exhibit has been placed in the window of the Pine City Hardware Co. pathology department of the State University.

We understand that Mr. Ayers and Miss Goodwin are to remain in the Pine City school next year and that Mr. Schumelle will teach manual training at Minneapoli, Miss Johnson to Mapleton as principal, Miss Ida Reed to Mapleton where she will teach 8th grade departmental. So far as we know, the others are not yet decided as to where they will go.

Clarence Hagen has been out of school this week, suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia since last Saturday. It is feared that he will be unable to get back this year although he is improving nicely at this writing.

The young man, who is 11 years old is in the 5th grade.

The physics class enjoyed a picnic at the dam, Monday. Starting at about 7:30, they arrived there in time for supper and a delightful hour before returning home. The games try class picniced at Rock Lake at the same time.

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Father Leo in the Catholic church on Sunday, May 25, at 8 o'clock p. m. The public is invited to attend.

Mr. Harte spoke before the high school in behalf of the Red Cross drive, Tuesday, and many students volunteered to assist in soliciting the town.

Farmerettes Answer Uncle Sam's Call

Girl Volunteers Raise Pigs, Care for Cattle, and Till Soil Better Than Many Men

In the opinion of Uncle Sam the raising of pigs is an important war task so important, in fact, that he has called upon 200,000 girls and boys to raise porkers for the market. The appeal has been headed by the farmerettes who are joyfully tackling the job of providing more than one share of the pork products which we must ship to our fighters and the allies in Europe.

BRIEF THRIFT ITEMS

By the U. S. Department of Agriculture

Scraps of leftover meat or fish can be combined with cereal or other mid-fattening food, both to give flavor and to add nourishment to the total dish.

State bread can be utilized in a variety of ways in combination with vegetables and meats, in preparing cakes, breads and puddings, and in other ways.

Good food is thrown away because so many people do not know how to utilize leftovers or will not take the trouble to keep and prepare them.

Leftover cereals can be reheated on combined with fruits, meats, or vegetables into appetizing side dishes.

State bread can be utilized in a variety of ways in combination with vegetables and meats, in preparing cakes, breads and puddings, and in other ways.

Many persons regard the saving of small amounts of leftover food as unimportant. If they kept accurate account, however, for any period, many families would be astonished by the amount of good food they are throwing out and by the sums that they are paying to the grocer, the butcher, and milkman merely to replace good food being absolutely wasted.

Every bit of fat trimmed from meat before cooking or fried out in boiling, roasting, or broiling can be made use of in cooking. In buying meat it is often the case that after the meat has been weighed and the price for the small valuable fat is trimmed off. This fat, which the housewife pays for, if taken home and used, would reduce expenditures for cooking fats.

Skim milk too widely looked down upon as a food although it contains practically all the nourishing elements of whole milk with the exception of the cream or fat, can be used as a beverage, in cooking cereals, or as a basis for milk soups or sauces.

Skim milk, also, so often thrown away, can be used in making hot breads or in the home manufacture of cottage cheese.

The efforts which American housekeepers are making to avoid kitchen and table wastes is of great importance. No one can tell just how much has been saved, but that the amount of waste is indicated by the words garbage and fertilizer plants showing that there has been a great falling off in the amount of fat and nitrogenous material received from markets.

Let the good work go on. Every pound of food saved is a pound added to our food supply.

Right Use of the Flag

It Should Never Be Permitted to Touch the Ground, Nor Draped as a Decoration

In these days when every household should have a flag and should be in every occasion offered, its correct use should be known to all. The following, from the American Civic Association, lists the proper usage of the flag.

"This there is an federal law in force pertaining to the manner of displaying the flag of the United States, and prescribing any ceremonies that should be observed. There are many regulations and usages of national honor bearing on the subject.

"In raising the flag it should be hoisted up and fastened to the top of the staff before unfurling. Instead, the flag should be taken in slowly and with dignity. It should not be allowed to touch the ground on shore nor should it be permitted to trail in the dust. It should not be hung where it can be contaminated or soiled easily, or draped over chairs or benches for seating purposes, and no object or emblem of any kind should be placed upon it or above it.

"It is common but regrettable practice at public meetings is to drape the flag in a tub over the speaker's table and then place on the flag a pitcher of ice water, flowers, books, etc.

"The flag should not be fastened over doorways or arches. Always let the flag hang straight. Do not tie it in a bow knot. Where colors are desired for decorative purposes, use blue, white, and blue buttons.

"The flag should not be hoisted together, other than as a signal of distress at sea.

"Ceremonial usages forbid the display of the flag of one nation above that of any other with which it is at peace. When the flags of two or more nations are displayed, they should be on separate staffs, or on separate horizontal poles, and should be of equal size and of the same level.

"The flag should never be raised or lowered by any mechanical appliance. When the national colors are passing on parade, or in review, the spectators should, if walking, halt, and if sitting raise and stand at attention and salute.

"When flags are used in unveiling a statue or monument they should be allowed to fall to the ground, but should be carried aloft to wave out, forming a distinctive feature during the ceremony.

"Where the national flag is displayed with state or other flags, it should be given the place of honor on the right. Its use should be confined as much as possible to its display on the staff, and should be hoisted in the morning and lowered in the evening. It should be raised to the top of the staff and before it is lowered from half-mast it must likewise be hoisted to the top.

"No longer fit for display, the flag should be destroyed privately, preferably by burning or other methods lacking the suggestion of irreverence or disrespect.

"A flag or an ensign at half-mast is the universal sign of mourning. Before being placed at half-mast the flag must always be raised to the top of the staff and before it is lowered from half-mast it must likewise be hoisted to the top.

Good Irish Name Hoisted

Nike Hogan Set a Trend With John McGraw's Team

The bird who said there is nothing in a name had the signal against him. There is quite a bit in the name and the name of Mike Hogan of the Boston Braves has been hoisted to all. It is the name of the team that has won the pennant and the name of the team that has won the pennant.

John McGraw gave him the name and Mike Hogan, scratched his ear and said: "I'll be a name."

Nothing in the world sticks with more authority than a name which has been hoisted. It is a name which has been hoisted.

When it comes to naming for democracy Uncle Sam appears to be the unshakable party who can get it done.

Thought, and utterly failed to remember of ever having heard of him. "Why, the name up in Cobos said you wanted to give me a trial and so here I am," explained Hogan. "I've been picking soups here and there and I guess you've heard about me. I'm a machinist by trade."

McGraw had never dreamed of Hogan, but he liked the youngster's look, and, most of all, he took a fancy to the name of Hogan. McGraw would like to surround himself with Doyle, McCarthy and Hogan, and he decided to give Mike a chance, and Mike went to Marlin.

So there is something in a name after all, for Hogan, who had never played professional ball, is getting his first tryout in the strongest minor league in the country, and all because his name is Hogan.

THE SOLDIER'S MOTHER

He was so beautiful—my baby boy! His sweet curls cling close around his head. His deep blue eyes looked trustfully in mine. I did my best to keep his beauty fair, but I never could keep his eyes from me. I never could be satisfied with less.

He was so strong and well, my little son! I gave my baby and night to his room. Called in fresh air and sunlight to his bed. Good food and play, all his beautiful things of life. I wanted physical perfection, for I never could be satisfied with less.

He was so bright and clever, my big son! I sent him to the very best of schools. He was so full of spirit and life, my boy! I never could be satisfied with less.

And yet—now—my well-beloved son! He is so pale and thin, my boy! He is so weak and feeble, my boy! He is so far from me, my boy! I never could be satisfied with less!

Eat More Potatoes. A cupful of mashed potatoes added to a rich mixture like Parker house rolls, improves the rolls, they keep moist longer and are more light and tender than those without the potato, besides, thus you may save on wheat.

Brain to Foresee Events, Requisite on Wall Street. A witness must have brains, "lucky strikes" occur now and then and the exception and not the rule, writes Jasper, in Leslie's. The rule is the man who can forecast events by training, experience, or instinct. Somehow, he senses things in advance of their occurrence, and prepares for them. A man may prepare a building whereby a man may discover it by the smell of smoke, or perhaps a hurricane, or perhaps a building that will be struck by lightning, or perhaps a man who can forecast events by training, experience, or instinct.

Amusing Ignorance Shown by Some American Firms. An amusing instance of the ignorance of some American firms regarding the language spoken in other parts of the world has been had at the New York Commercial Trust Co. This concern discovered to its surprise that it was circulating all the large business houses of Honolulu and other cities and towns in the Hawaiian Islands and wrote a letter in English to each of them, asking them to write an article for the company's magazine. The letter was written in English and the Hawaiian translation was written in Hawaiian. The Hawaiian translation was written in Hawaiian and the English translation was written in English.

Fifteen Cities in 1920 May Reach a Population in Excess of 500,000

There will certainly be ten American cities, with the 1920 census in mind, that will have a population in excess of 500,000, and there may be as many as fifteen cities that will pass the half-million population mark.

Only About Half the Steer is Beef

Live Weight 1200 pounds

100%

Dressed Weight 672 pounds of Beef

56%

When Swift & Company buys a steer weighing 1200 pounds, only about 672 pounds goes to market as beef; the other 528 pounds consists of hide, fats, other by-products, and waste.

When the packer pays 15 cents a pound for a steer, he sells the meat to the retailer for about 24 cents. But the packer gets only about 6 cents a pound for the other 528 pounds.

This means that the packer gets about 16 cents a pound for all the products from a steer for which he pays 15 cents.

The difference of 1 cent per pound covers the cost of dressing, preparation of by-products, freight on beef to all parts of the United States, operation of distributing houses, and leaves a net profit of only about 1/4 of a cent per pound on all dressed beef sold.

Large volume of business and utilization of parts that were formerly wasted, make this achievement possible.

ROCK CREEK NEWS DEPARTMENT

Wherein is Published the News of the Rock Creek Region It is intended to help Rock Creek

There was a radically small attendance at the patriotic lecture-recital by Miss Adelaide Thurston, the former famous stage star, assisted by Jane Everington Scully, the noted soprano given in Johnson's hall last Saturday evening. The entertainment was one of the highest class performances of the sort ever staged in Pine county and it was a shame that the total receipts only amounted to about $28. Many persons had paid $5 for a seat to see Miss Thurston act. It is no credit to the Rock Creek community that she was not generally appreciated. The admission was certainly small enough.

Next Sunday, May 26, being Memorial Sunday, there will be a patriotic service in fitting with the occasion in the Methodist church at 11 o'clock. At that time Prof. L. H. Pryor of Hinckley will deliver an address. All old soldiers who live in our community of vicinity are invited to the service. Let every one who wishes to honor the noble memory of the boys of '61 be sure and be present at this service.

Pine County sheep men will meet in Hinckley Saturday, June 1st at 1:30 p.m. to discuss wool marketing and sheep raising. Mr. Cole from the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be present, and Mr. Sayers of the Minnesota Wool Growers Association will also be present.

George L. Stevens is Rock Creek town's first candidate for a county office this year, having filed for Judge of Probate, Monday. His old friends in this region will stay with him and hope that others all over the county will do likewise.

The heavy wind, Saturday night, ripped trees to pieces in all directions. The cupola on the Geo. L. Stevens barn, southeast of town, was torn off and thrown into the silo which it damaged some.

Pine City Red Cross Notes

A large shipment of knitted and sewed articles was made yesterday.

The following donations were received during the past week: Loula Benson $3, Dr. A. A. Tofto $1 and Portia Huber $5.

The following new members were received during the past week: Mrs. Clinton Stacks, James Huml, C. Boman and Gilbert Olson.

The drive to raise money to care for the share of this section in the big fund for the coming year was opened in Pine City yesterday afternoon and is being carried to the country today by teams of men in automobiles. It is hoped to close the motor by tonight but may be necessary to continue it tomorrow, or even later. About $5.00 has been received in the village which will probably be increased to $100.

The Pine City branch has pledged itself to furnish, besides socks, sweaters and all miscellaneous articles of 50 operating gowns and 25 hospital shirts per month until the supply of cut-out material for the operating gowns now on hand is used up, after which they are going to furnish 50 hospital shirts a month. Taken in addition to the task of supplying the usual run of knitted and sewed articles, this means a tremendous task for the ladies and will require the most active interest and assistance of everyone. The pledge has been made in response to the urgent request of the national body.

Among those here from Dell Grove town, testifying were Rudolph and Axel Johnson, J. P. Jensen, Wm. McNetz, Peter Weirup and wife, Emil Ness, Louis Mottaz, Chris Sawatka, Fabian Erickson, Chas. Schwartz, F. Johnson, Silas Palmer, John York, Elmer Johnson, P. J. Hanson and Gust Malin of Sandstone.

Sugar for Canning

This year as never before every item of food supply must be conserved and saved. Berries and other fruits will soon be abundant. Canning and preserving of same should receive preferred attention. The sugar outlook, however, is not promising. Normal supplies of sugar cannot be secured for the reason that necessary vessels are more urgently needed to transport our troops and their supplies, as well as food for our Allies.

Miss Anderson of the Ausmus school will have charge of the presentation of "The Four Married Men" by the young folks of that locality in the school house on the evening of Saturday, June 1. Admit will be charged 25 cents and children from 8 to 16 years 15 cents. The program will be followed by a dance. Ice cream and cake will probably be served. The proceeds will go to the Red Cross.

J. S. Fritzen came up from Minneapolis, last Saturday, to look after business matters at the sanatorium and in town. They expect to move up about June 1st. Mr. Fritzen dropped in at the Paker office and, in the course of conversation, expressed his hopes that he would see navigation opened between Pokegama and town again. The Paker feels that everyone would like to see that happy event if it could long fore anyone. There is no question but that it would help the town and lake country, and it seems to us that it would be a convenience and advantage to everyone.
