CONGRESS CHIEFS FORM PROGRAM

Arms Treaties, Tariff, Bonus, Farm and Ship Legislation Reported Discussed.

MEET AT WHITE HOUSE

President is Assured by Senators That There Will Be Little or No Opposition to Ratification of Arms Pacts.

Washington—A legislative program, contemplating ratification of the treaties growing out of the arms conference and passage of the tariff, soldier bonus, farm credit and merchant marine bills, with adjournment of Congress about June 1, was said to have been agreed upon at a White House dinner conference, attended by members of the Senate and House steering committees.

It was the understanding that treaties which the President expects to submit to the Senate as soon as the American delegates return to the report, would give the right of way in the Senate until such time as the tariff bill is reported by the finance committee. The plan then was to consider the tariff measure and the treaties alternately.

No Opposition Expected.

It was said that the President had been assured by senators that there would be little, if any, opposition to the treaties. The President it was added, gave no indication as to whether he will present the treaties to the Senate in person.

The bonus bill was said to have been discussed at the conference but the problem of financing it was not touched upon. Some of the President's callers said they were satisfied to leave this to the majority members of the House ways and means committee and the Senate finance committee.

R'member

Robert Saunders

Word was received here last week of the death of Robert C. Saunders, who had left to accept the position of county attorney of Pine County, with the following time taken from the St. Louis "Globe Democrat":

Robert Chancellor Saunders, prominent attorney and former United States District Attorney at Seattle, Wash., and brother of Walter H. Saunders of the law firm of Leach and Saunders, died from leukemia when he was held for the night of his 57 years old, and is survived by his widow and eight children.

Mr. Saunders was a brother-in-law of Mrs. L. H. McKee of Pine City.

Boo-Hurley Wed

C. R. Bae and Miss Julia Hurley were married by Father Leo at the parish house, last Monday morning at 10:30. Mr. Bae, brother of the groom, and Miss Catherine Hurley, sister of the bride, attended the bridal couple. The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives being present at the ceremony. They will make their home in the new duplex house, just completed by the Bae's.

Out of town relatives here for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Lou Clark, Martin J. Hurley, Mrs. John O. Vaughn, Ed. and Miss Alice Vaughn, and Mrs. Katherine Cook, all of St. Paul. Miss Margaret Hurley and Miss Marie Vaughn of Brainerd, Mrs. Katherine Hurley of Clapnet, Wm. Hurley of Sandstone, and Mrs. Geo. Hurley of St. Cloud, Minn., were also present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hurley of Pine City. She is a graduate of the local high school, the Villa Scholastic of Duluth, and attended the state university. Following her studies, she taught school for a time, and has since been at home with her parents.

The groom is the son of Charles E. Hurley of Brainerd. He graduated from the local high school there, and is a member of the village council. He was a member, was sent to the Mexican border. He later enlisted in the service, getting his discharge in 1919. He came to Pine City last fall and has been associated with his brother in the Parish-Boo Lib. Co. since. He was commander of the local Legion Post last year, and is a member of the village council.

The newlyweds have a host of friends who wish them best of success and happiness.

Everything Was Serene

Everything was nice and peaceful at this meeting of the county board. In fact, one who had been in the habit of attending the meetings recently, would think he had stepped into a memorial service. It didn't seem like a Pine County board meeting, stall, all.

The board met Monday noon, and adjourned Tuesday morning. Nobody threw anything at anyone else, or called anyone any hard names. After doing their little du, the Arns, "They fold up their hands and quit their usual ways. No visiting, no electioneering, no card games, no nothing. They come to day, and go tomorrow."

"Did we say anything, Gordon?" they did not say anything. "I'm reporting what I see. There was a star chamber session in the Hotel Arns, lasting till the wee small hours, when the 'King' of news reporters, stated in his report, 'Camp Dist. No. 1', for the present representative. Give his moral and active support. As yet, even had great influence, sample papers, and a member of the village council, 'everybody'. Well, if you like to play the game that way, He has decided to make his paper the 'spectacular' official paper. He should be careful, he might discover perpetual motion."

Outside of the nurse question, little was done. Bids were opened for straightening the Elwell road, north of Askov, and this, as a secret, don't tell anyone, the low bid job. The job is an 'act' but, then the contractors didn't get a combine. Nobody's trying to buy anything. Nothing but bargain with the jobs. So the low bid job.

The low bidders were Hendrickson and Christensen of Askov at $1918.82. Other bids were: Remmick $1919.00, G. L. Pearson $1919.45, and Hasselmann and Jorner $1919.78.

Play Moose Lake Satisfy

The fast Moose Lake basketball team will play the local town team of this week. After the fast game between these two teams, last week, basketball fans are assured of a good game here.

Manager Frank Stuck has made arrangements for supper and for a dance in the Hotel Arns, following the game, to entertain the visitors. After the supper way our boys are entertaining at Moose Lake, last week, an effort will be spared to make their visit here an enjoyable one.

County Nurse Resigns

Miss Nield, county nurse for the past couple of years, has handed in her resignation. She has last night for St. Paul, where she will visit with her folks. She has a couple of good offers for other positions, but is undecided as to her future plans.

Miss Nield has been county nurse for nearly two years. Since coming from the county, she has made warm friends, who regret her leaving. Her ability in the line of work has been proven time and again, and she will play a big part in any community in which she works.

Vote on Nurse Question in March

Following the request of Rev. Wilson, chairman of the county Red Cross, the commissioners voted at their meeting last Monday, to get an unofficial vote from the taxpayers on the question of hiring a county nurse.

The court room was crowded with those present being in opposition to hiring a nurse, we were allowed, although there was very little discussion on the matter. Rev. Wilson requested the board to have a vote on the proposition, so to get an expression from the people. If the vote should be favorable, he asked if the board would appropriate for the nurse, but not an assurance from the proposition, so to get an expression from the people. If the vote should be favorable, he asked if the board would appropriate for the nurse, but not an assurance from the proposition, so to get an expression from the people.

County Attorney Roberts was called on for an opinion, and stated they could not have an official ballot, but could take an unofficial vote. He will have a separate ballot at the town and village elections January 14th.

We understand the board will also give the voters a chance to vote on the question of appropriating money for the Farm Bureau at the same time.

Rev. Wilson demonstrated the fairness of the association, being asked that they vote on the question. If the majority of the people vote to spend money for that purpose, the board should have the appropriation. Or if the vote goes the other way, it should settle the question, as far as tax money is concerned, for this year at least.

We believe that all large appropriations for special matters, should be voted on. Taxpayers have been steadily mounting, and something must be done to check them. The majority should rule however. If the majority of the taxpayers are favoring spending money for any special purpose, it takes the responsibility off the shoulders of the board. If this policy had been carried out in the past, Pine County would be better off today.

It's a good plan to get the vote, before they spend the money however. Not spend the money, and then ask the taxpayers to pay the bill.

Upper Tone to Grain

Dr. H. H. Hogs Advance.

U. S. Bureau of Markets, Washington, D. C., for week ending Feb. 4, 1922.

GRAIN—Market had strong undertone during week and prices trended upward on the 4th, wheat offering new high since September 26th. World wheat situation and higher foreign markets main factors. Up favorable reports of crop conditions in drought sections of southeast and fair export business also factors. More confidence now exists in grain trade. Visible supply wheat 42,260,000 bushels, a decrease of 1,581,000 bushels for week. Visible supply corn, 30,775,000 bushels, an increase of 4,049,000 bushels for week. Closing prices in Chicago cash market: No. 2 red winter wheat, $1.23; No. 2 hard winter wheat, $1.25; No. 2 mixed corn, $0.94; No. 2 yellow corn, $0.94; No. 3 yellow corn, $0.94; No. 2 mixed corn, $0.94; No. 2 dark northern wheat in central North Dakota, $1.23; No. 2 hard winter wheat in central Kansas, $1.08. For the week Chicago May wheat up $3/4, closing at $1.25; Chicago May corn up 1/4, at $1.13; Minneapolis May wheat up $3/4, at $1.15; Minneapolis May corn up $1/4, at $1.15.

HAY—Most markets firm on lighter receipts as result of heavy snows in east and many had loading season early in the west. Demand upward and the slight price advances were caused almost entirely by the scarcity of good quality hay. No. 1 timothy quoted Feb. 4th: Chicago, $11.00; Minneapolis, $11.00; St. Paul, $11.00; Minneapolis, $11.00; St. Paul, $11.00.

Want Weed Inspector

The board received a letter from the State weed inspector, notifying the county that under the new law, it would be necessary to put a weed inspector on the payroll for at least one month of the year. His duty would be to inspect the weeds, we don't know whether it is to pull them out or not.

Fortunately, E. B. Wells and other farmers were there when the matter came up, or we may have had a new man on the payroll last year. Those present, led by Mr. Wells, objected to this added expense so strenuously, that the board asked the letter, and decided to ignore the request.

It is understood there was a law compelling the town boards to employ weed inspectors. But this may be a new way of helping the unemployed.

CUT MANAGER'S SALARY

Expenses are coming down. The board has cut the salary of Supervisor Howell of the Poor Farm, from $1500 to $1200 per year. The manager of a $100,000 farm is only $1200 a year they say. But then, Mr. Howell has nice place to live. Hot and cold running water, shower bath, electric lights, all the modern conveniences. That's a lot. How many taxpayers have those conveniences?

School Notes

In their seventh consecutive week of the conference season Pine City took Hinkley into camp to the time of the Hinkley was heralded as a fast team, and they came close to defeating the strong Sandstone club.

The game started fast with Hinkley scoring the first points. Pine City tied the score and raised their lead. Both teams played fast ball in the half for both the defensive and offensive. Pine City employed their opponents, having the ball in their territory most of the time. Hinkley had to resort to long shots on account of the excellent guarding of the Pine City.

CARDINAL RATTI IS ELECTED POPE

Archbishop of Milan Chosen to Succeed Benedict—Receives 38 Votes.

TAKES NAME PIUS XI

New Pope Donns Papal Vestments Amid Ceremony—Receives Homage of Attaches Who Served During Conclave.

Rome—Cardinal Achille Ratti, archbishop of Milan, was proclaimed elected pope in succession to the late Benedict XV Monday morning. He has taken the name of Pius XI.

Thousands waiting in front of St. Peter's for the view of him which would tell of the election of a new pope or the failure of the sacred college to reach a decision gave a mighty shout at 11:52 o'clock when a thin wisp of smoke came from the chimney leading from the sistine chapel. It was then known that the Catholic church had once more a duly elected pontiff.

As soon as the two-thirds vote for Cardinal Ratti had been verified, Cardinal Vannutelli, as dean of the Sacred College, arose and proceeded to the throne of the chosen one, accompanied on either side by Cardinals Loggia and Bisleti, respectively, deans of the cardinal priests and the cardinal deacons.

He was asked in Latin by Cardinal Vannutelli, in accordance with custom, if he accepted the election to be supreme pontiff, and the new pope answered with the formal: "Since it is the will of God, I must obey."

Then the purple canopies over the thrones of the cardinals were let down, one by one, until only that over the new pontiff remained. This was done to show that the whole sacred college venerated obedience to the new head of the church.

Dean Vannutelli thereupon asked the new incumbent what name he chose to take after his pontificate, and upon his reply "Pius XI," Monsignor Simeoni, secretary of the conclave, verified his election to the papal chair.

Dons Papal Vestments.
The new pope then was escorted to the ante room within the Sistine chapel, where he received his cardinal's robes, assisted by the conclavists, and the papal vestments, by agents in Scott county for four since the opening of the conclave, were placed upon him. These included white stockings, red alippers, a red and gold mozetta, and finally the stole of the pontiff, fully vested with the papal garb and accompanied by his cardinals, thereupon returned to the throne he had occupied in the sistine chapel.

There the cardinals, according to their rank, and headed by Vannutelli, began their first act of adoration to his holiness, kissing first his feet and then his hands, after which the pope received them in embrace and bestowed upon them his first apostolic benediction.

Attaches Pay Homage.
The "fisherman's ring," was placed on his finger and he left the chapel, the whole assembly wending its way through the Sala Ducale and the Sala Regia, along the loggia to the Sala Clementina, the pope's official residence. All along the way he received the homage of the attaches who served during the conclave.

Are These Your Sentiments?
 Dear Mr. Editor:
 Having out the Old Sermon Barrel the other day in order to find out the old farmer I came across this poem which I'm sure if you print it will cause your many readers to claim, "These my Sentiments," here it is:

Backward, swing backward, Oh season of snow
 Mercury is to 30 below
 Turn on the heat of the tropical zone,
 Roast me until I am cooked to the bone.

I am so tired of freezing my nose,
 Weary of chilblains and frozen toes,
 Weary of trying to sleep with cold feet,
 Turn on the heat mister turn on the heat!

Backward, swing backward, oh time in your flight
 Give me duty again just for tonight
 Soften the ground where the Frost King has lain,
 Oh let me hear one mosquito again!
 I am so weary of snowdrifts and ice,
 Weary of paying the coal trust its price,
 Weary of frost bitten fingers and nose,
 Give me, oh give me a slice of July.

Respectfully submitted,
 Rev. T. J. Buckton.
So Bossy, So!
 O there are many breeds of kind,
 The Shorthorn, the Jersey, the King,
 The black and white of ancient line,
 As well as such or garden scows
 On our rugged hillside browes.
 On weeds and grass and leaves of tress
 They ruminate upon their knees,
 And thus attract the vitamins from Forty different kinds of greens. I oft have sung, I sing again the uses of fresh milk to men. To hymn its praise I never tire; my thumb is set on my lyre. I learned its use when very young, it suits my palate and my tongue, I drink a pint from time to time then straightway write a Rural Rhyme. We need some vitamins each day; they help us work; they help us play. Had we four tummies like the kine, we too on foliage might dine, on daisy dock and buttercup we too might breakfast, lunch and sup, and thus obtain the A's and B's and other vitamins like these. But since we have one stomach each and half foods are out of reach, let's keep good cows upon the land, the Gaerney or some other brand and get our dinner second hand.

Theatre Notes
 Friday and Saturday, Eva Novak in "Waves of the North." Imagine yourself in a cabin with eternal snows banked high around your windows and only the howl of wolves and the crackling of the Aurora Borealis to break the tense silence of the night.
 Picture yourself as the moral of humanity over which two wolf-men were fighting. What would you do? Also a two reel comedy on this bill, "The Country Ho."
 Sunday only Feb. 12th, Lincoln festival. Special music, songs, etc., by members of Leon Heath Post of the American Legion. Feature, Chas. Ray in "R. S. V. P." Ray again—no better than ever. You have seen him as a football star, a prize fighter and a country dick. Now you're going to see him as an artist in "R. S. V. P.," his latest. First National attraction which will be at his theatre next week. And it's just double-fold of Ray, and Chas. Ray fun. A big double feature show topped off with a two reel comedy "A Parrot Post Husband." Come and have a good time with us on Lincoln's birthday.
 Tuesday, Earl Williams in "If Can Be Done." The tale of a man who took a wager and then made things hot for the man who bet with him. Joe Ryan in "The Purple Riders."
 Thursday, Grace Darmond in "The Beautiful Gambler." The story of "The Beautiful Gambler" takes place in a wide-open western town and in a metropolis. As it opens Blue Darmond is seen as Molly Hamilton, daughter of a man whose life setting is in gambling. "Oh! Topsy" comedy and Fox News. 10 and 12c.

 There will be no services in the German Lutheran church on Sunday Feb. 12th.

Presbyterian Church Notes
 T. J. Buckton pastor
 There will be services in the church next Sunday morning and evening, the pastor will preside at both services. Many good christians are disturbed by the drifting of the crowds away from the church. We lament the loss of all this potential power to the church, we know that the "drift" is due in a large part to the restlessness and superficiality of an age that is taken up with interests predominantly material, if not materialistic. However those who remain true to the deeper loyalties care for more than they imagine or the world realizes. The strength of spiritual forces cannot be determined by counting noses. The presence, or absence, of the crowd is not necessarily indicative of the vitality of a cause. The crowds were in the temple while Jesus was training the twelve on the hills. The crowds were at the dedication of the Colosseum in the year 80 A. D. and the christians of Rome—where were they? Gathered a little company—in some obscure place. But that great blood stained structure has for centuries been a ruin while the Christian church has penetrated the life of the world. The real question is not how MANY go to church in Pine City? But to the steady going folk with a living fire of conviction, and devotion, is the Spirit of Christ among them? Then however few, there is a force to be reckoned with. Join our little company next Sunday and you will come under a strange new influence, for we pray that the spirit of Jesus will be there.

Do You Ever Weigh Your Money?
 Three years ago in some parts of Europe it was customary for farmers and merchants to carry pocket scales to guard against receiving lightweight or counterfeit coins.
 Today personal checks are so commonly used that the average person handles comparatively little cash, to say nothing of bothering to weigh it.

through his influence an appropriation of $1,000 was made for the purpose of procuring and distributing seeds of new plants, carrying the agricultural and horticultural statistics. This was the historic beginning of the much-talked-about free seed distribution.

By the act of congress in May, 1862, since generally called the organic act, the activities of the government under the patent funds were placed under a separate and distinct organization known as the Department of Agriculture, charge of a commissioner of agriculture.

It did not rank, however, with the other executive departments, and the commissioner of agriculture was appointed to seat in the President's cabinet. Isaac Newton, chief of the agricultural section in the patent office, was appointed to seat in the President's cabinet. This was in Grover Cleveland's administration. In honor of its new rank a few more functions were taken on.

But that's enough detail. It kept on growing. Beginning with an appropriation of $1,000 and ten or twelve employees to the number of 12,480, and an appropriation of $12,000,000. Five years later the appropriation had grown to $10,865,582 and the employees to 10,223. The employees in May, 1923, numbered 12,480.

The department has increased its appropriation of $1,000 to a month-to-month of $1,000,000 a year—$2,022,047.28 every month. It has grown so clearly and so sharply as it can be shown how the high cost of government living affects your own cost of living.

We, you and I, paid out of our savings and earnings every red cent of that increase of $1,000,000 a year—$2,022,047.28 every month. It may have been well spent. We probably got a run for our money, but nobody knows, except a general way. We have the right to know. It is simply fact-basedness on our part not to find out.

biological stations had an aggregate value of $2,000,000 with a value of $240,000. The improvements and equipment at these stations represented an investment of $1,000,000. Other property of the bureau at that time included four sea-going steam and sail vessels, steam launches and 350 motor launch motorboats, which with equipment had a value of $300,000. Its six fish-culture stations were valued at $450,000. Indeed, the total investment of the government in fisheries property prior to about $1,353,000. That was back in 1909.

Well, it hasn't stopped growing; bigger and busier than ever, as the appropriations for the fiscal year 1919 were $1,183,140 and for 1921, $1,207,210. Besides what comprises the bureau's present budget in 1918 and 1919, out of its private fund "for the national sequestration and defense" of $500,000, the bureau had taken on many new functions and activities.

Recently the bureau was administering to the best of its ability the laws relating to the terrestrial and marine fisheries. It was doing so in a way that was incongruous to its legitimate functions. Congress finally concluded that the bureau was not doing its job and that it was necessary to create a new department of fisheries. The cultivation of marine and aquatic animals cannot be successfully conducted in a fish hatchery.

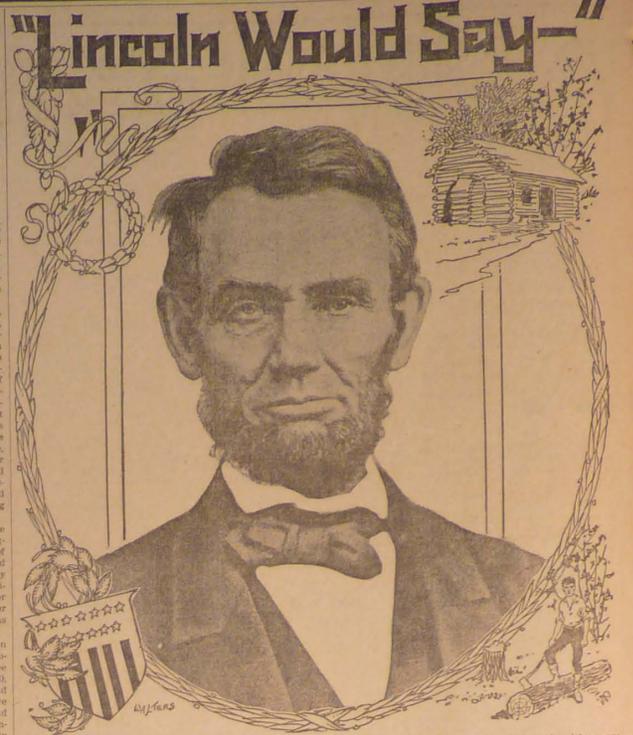

Apparently, as so many other establishments under the executive branch, the fisheries service had become all cluttered up with duties and jobs that it was not fitted or equipped to handle. All of which is a long way from an investigation of the possible distribution of food fish along the coast.

I don't pretend to say of the fisheries bureau that it has performed better, either in its proper work or the added activities that have been imposed upon it. For all that, it may be and is a great national blessing, and managed with maximum skill, intelligence and real economy. I hope it is.

I cite it here only as an example of a branch of government service that has grown up haphazard from a small beginning to be a great, costly, far-reaching enterprise. That by its own confusion is overlaid with duties, functions and activities unrelated to its legitimate and original purpose. The fish, propagation and study of all manner of food fish.

Newberry Seated by Senate

Truman H. Newberry has been seated as United States senator from Michigan, following proceedings of various kinds lasting since the 1918 election. The right to the seat was determined by the senate itself, by a vote of 41 to 40 on a resolution sponsored by Republican leaders. All who voted for him were Republicans, while nine Republicans and thirty-two Democrats voted against him. Three senators were paired for and three against the resolution, and three senators did not vote. The resolution seating Senator Newberry is as follows:

"Be it resolved, That Truman H. Newberry is a duly elected senator from the state of Michigan, and is entitled to hold his seat in the senate of the United States.

"That the amount that was expended in this primary was $110,000 and was fully reported, or openly acknowledged, or whether there were some few thousand dollars in excess, the committee on committee cases do large, much larger than ought to be expended.

"The expenditure of such excessive sums in behalf of a candidate, either with or without his knowledge or consent, being contrary to sound public policy, harmful to the honor and dignity of the senate, and dangerous to the perpetuity of a free government, is hereby severely condemned and disapproved."

McCumber: Where He Stands

Senator McCumber of North Dakota (portrait herewith) has been selected by the committee on committee cases as chairman of the senate finance committee to succeed the late Boies Penrose. Senator Pennington (then of New Jersey) was selected to fill the vacancy on the finance committee.

Senator McCumber furnishes just twenty-one words of autobiography to the Congressional Directory: "Porter James McCumber, Republican, of Walpole, N. H.; elected to the United States Senate 1890; reelected in 1905, in 1911, and in 1917."

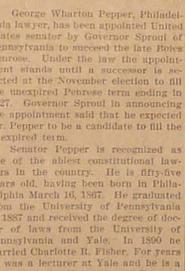

He says of his selection: "Speaking personally, while I am aware that I have often been considered as too ultra-conservative to satisfy the views of some elements of the West, it is a duty to be informed through some of our eastern journals that I am admirably radical." Standing between these two viewpoints, I derive some consolation from the fact that I know myself exactly where I stand. I am a professional, but not a spotted one. I am a conservative, and must remain so."

Pepper Gets Penrose's Seat

George Wharton Pepper, Philadelphia lawyer, has been appointed United States senator by Governor Sirovich of Pennsylvania to succeed the late Boies Penrose. Under the law the appointment stands until a successor is selected at the November election to fill the unexpired Penrose term ending in 1927. Governor Sirovich in announcing the appointment said that he expected Mr. Pepper to be a candidate to fill the unexpired term.

Senator Pepper is recognized as one of the ablest constitutional lawyers in the country. He is fifty-five years old, having been born in Philadelphia March 16, 1867. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1887 and received the degree of doctor of laws from the University of Pennsylvania and Yale. In 1890 he married Charlotte B. Fisher. For years he has been a member of the Pennsylvania and of the Carnegie Institute. During the World War Pepper was chairman of the Pennsylvania council for national defense and was vice president of the League for the Preservation of American Interests.

Griffith: Man of the Hour

Arthur Griffith is the man of the hour in Ireland. After electing him president and naming a cabinet to assist him, the Dail Eireann adjourned, to permit the new government to proceed with carrying out the provisions of the Anglo-Irish treaty.

Probably the most remarkable thing about Arthur Griffith is that he has few if any typical Irish characteristics. All of which may very likely be due to the fact, as Griffith says, that he is a Welshman.

Yet in spite of the lack of traits so marked in Irishmen the world over, Griffith stands forth today as the foremost of the Irish in that he is for the moment the leader of the majority in Ireland. And if his power and prestige were to increase at the rate which was retained in the past, he will fall to the rank of the Irish Free State.

WINTER COLDS IN POULTRY FLOCKS SHOULD BE WATCHED

Care should be taken to avoid common ailments when birds are affected—Ideas for Cure of Epidemics.

Exposure to drafts, dampness, unsanitary quarters may bring colds in the flock, according to N. S. Chapman, Poultry Specialist at University Park. Those most susceptible are immature pullets, late broilers and hens with low vitality, he declares.

For flock treatment correct conditions. Phytolite flock by using one tablespoon of Epsom salts to one quart of water for drink; disinfest by scattering alcohol lime over the house; put a small lump of camphor gum or alum in all drinking water, or a film of kerosene on top of water.

For individual treatment separate all affected birds from the flock and put in a dry, warm, sunny place. Dip the head of each bird in the following mixture for five to ten seconds: cotton-seed oil and kerosene in equal parts. Put in a small tin can, or tumbler, just large enough to admit the head, using a small oil can to inject the mixture in each nostril, and in a diet of mouth with head held down ward.

Give a teaspoonful of castor oil to each bird affected, and put twenty drops of tincture of acetone to one quart of water for drinking. Feed soft bread soaked in buttermilk.

If the cold is neglected it may develop into catarrh when the mucus beneath the eyes are filled with thick, mucous and eyes swell. Wrap absorbent cotton around the eyes, and clean out the nose and eyes, and inject the above mixture to keep eyes from becoming inflamed.

The next stage of neglected colds is croup in the mouth and throat, or diptheria. If there is a fetid odor, roup has developed for which no cure has yet been found. Roup is a specific disease, like foot cholera, and influenza, and cannot be cured unless the germs are present. Colds weaken the birds and thus render them susceptible to these germs.

When roup has developed, kill and burn to remove all sources of infection from the flock. Kill by pulling head from end of neck by a quick, strong pull so there may be no blood spilling.

Canker spots may be treated with stiek nitrate of silver (caustic) or peroxide of hydrogen.

A good remedy for the flock to preserve good health is made of the following ingredients: one pound of gentian, one-half pound of iron sulphate, a quarter of a pound each of ginger and castor oil, and one-half pound of mixed together. Feed one tablespoonful of one quart of ground feed. Charcoal should also be mixed with all dry or wet mash at an internal disinfectant.

When eyes are watery, wheezing or sneezing heard at night or birds are reluctant to leave the roosts, treat as advised at once; prevention is the cheapest and most satisfactory cure. Don't neglect the flock.

APPLES CAN BE SAVED BY USING AS COOKED FOOD

Spelling Fruit Easily Salvaged and Furnished An Ideal Part of the "Balanced Ration."

At this time of year when winter apples, stored in the cellar, begin to show signs of going the way of all flesh, the housewife can effect a considerable saving by salvaging such fruit, cutting up the specks, and serving it in various cooked desserts. Apples that may be used in this way, say food specialists at the Minnesota college of agriculture, there should follow a gain in the family's appetite and health.

"Fruit Every Day" is now an accepted part of "balanced ration" figured out by professors in the new science of human nutrition.

Apple sauce is a fine old standby. With this stained apple, try making it with the skin on the apple. This saves labor and the sauce is better in color and flavor.

And here's a way to give a new taste to baked apples. Core and prepare the fruit as usual, but fill the centers with the following mixture: Half a cup of sugar, 2 teaspoonfuls cinnamon, and 2 teaspoonfuls of flour. Mix to centers of apples with the rest of this mixture, and blend the remainder with 1 1/2 cups of water, pouring it over the apples. Bake until tender.

Brown Betty, Apple Tapioca Pudding and Apple Pudding are suggested as a further means of making stored apples to delight the taste of man.

Do not allow your ham and bacon to mold where it has been sliced. Rub hard over the exposed surface. The mold will then form on the hard. Part after run over the fresh surface and also prevent it from molding.

NEW DISTRIBUTION PLAN CREATES MUCH INTEREST

Red River Valley Experimental Plan for Promotion of Pure Blood Hogs is Winner.

Inaugurated last year by Fred C. Clark and others, the plan for the promotion of pure blood hogs in the Red River Valley has succeeded beyond expectations, according to C. G. Selvig, president of the Red River Valley Livestock Association.

Their plan is novel and entirely new for as Minnesota is concerned, and is creating a great deal of interest, he says. They agree to furnish a bred registered duroc sow to boys' and girls' club members and to farmers and agree to be paid for the purchase of the sow all the improved, spring farrowed, registered duroc Jersey sows raised during the year.

More than 100 registered brood sows were distributed under this plan during the year, and the plan is being continued in 1921, principally at the Otterbrook, Leonard, Guntwick, Trail and Gully communities. According to Selvig, additional hogs will be furnished in 1922 to farmers in these communities, and also to many more boys living in the vicinity of Otterbrook, Leonard and Guntwick.

Seven complete units consisting of a sow with piglets, a piglet and a registered herd boar for each, have already been furnished. This according to Mr. Selvig is a new and unique plan for interesting young people in raising better hogs. It has already succeeded in establishing farmers in the swine business.

Practically all of the purchasers secured outstanding results last year. Mandel Holstad of Guntwick made the best record. His sow farrowed eight pigs, four boars and four girls. To each one of the girls a neighbor for $10, and the other three raising 503, 318 and 322 piglets, respectively, at the age of six weeks, and 18 days were sold back to Clark and Franks at 17 cents a pound, netting him $214.15.

CLING TO OLD SUPERSTITIONS

Hard to Make Civilized Indians Give Up Their Beliefs in Magic—Soul Transmigration.

Civilized Indians are very reluctant to give up their belief in magic. The idea of worshipping objects is quite a settled one among the tribes, and some stories which connect corn and flowers with beneficent deities are very pleasing and attractive.

Animals, too, are spoken of in a very singular and superstitious manner, and the different sizes of the beasts which are hunted is accounted for in a story of the creation, which has many variations, but always agrees that at the time of the creation all of the beasts clamored for priority in size.

Each was vain and delusional, and one after another was humbled by being made smaller than a hated enemy. The idea being that everything human and otherwise that was born had a prior existence and came into the world with the benefit of the experience thus derived.

Indians in many tribes believe in the doctrine of transmigration of souls by which is meant that they believe souls, after the death of the bodies of animals that they have inhabited, pass into the bodies of others—Deerfoot News.

Why does a healthy person want to be kicked into wakefulness in the morning?

THE PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE TAILG

Hundreds of Men and Women All Over America Appear To Be Physical Wrecks Simply Because Their Systems Are Starving for Nourishment.

There are hundreds of thin, run-down, nervous men and women all over the United States who should be strong, sturdy and vigorous, with rich, red blood flowing through their veins and feeling brimful of life and energy, if they would only profit by the experience of others all over the United States and Canada, and assist nature to digest the food they eat, by simply taking Tailg.

Millions of people have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia and indigestion by Tailg after other remedies had failed, but large numbers of them have reported a remarkable and rapid increase in weight, a return to normal health and strength by its use.

In fact, so phenomenal has been the gain in weight by thin, frail people through the use of Tailg that this remarkable preparation is now Tailg's Greatest Tonic.

The food people eat does them absolutely no good unless they digest it properly. When you suffer from indigestion and other forms of stomach trouble, the food does you harm instead of good, because food which is not digested stays in the stomach and ferments, causing pain, swelling, gas on stomach, shortness of breath, bad taste in the mouth, dyspepsia and many other disagreeable symptoms.

If you are not permitted to run on for an indefinite period the entire system becomes saturated with poisons, the patient becomes thin and fails to start in any various other ways.

Tailg is a powerful reconstructive tonic and quickly overcomes this condition by its soothing nature to stimulate the impurities from the system in a natural way and enable the vital organs to properly perform their functions. That is why it is called Nature's Medicine.

In fact, there is not a single portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tailg, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the entire system. Next, it enables the weak, worn-out stomach to thoroughly digest its food and convert the nourishing elements into bone, blood and muscle. The result is you feel strong, sturdy and well with the proper amount of flesh, as Nature intended. Sold by all good druggists.

The man who sets out to learn how to make money does well to learn how not to lose it.
