TWO DAKOTAS UNITE AT SHOW

Governors Nestos, McMasters and Blaine Participate in Speaking.

Mississippi—Three governors of Northwest states left messages with 45,000 visitors at the National Dairy Exposition at the Minnesota State Fair grounds on the fourth day of the show.

Organized county delegations poured into the Twin Cities by train and an amicable meeting of the delegates at the 1922 show to unprecedented figures.

I am only too glad to cooperate with the people of North Dakota in holding emphasis to encouragement of the dairy industry by giving part in this national demonstration of the exposition, Governor R. A. Nestos of North Dakota, said in his address at the Hibodeum.

I believe in diversified farming, and think that North Dakota can become one of the greatest producers of diversified agriculture in the union."

Gov. W. H. McMasters of South Dakota said progress and industry in the north have made more progress in South Dakota in the last six months than in any previous two year period.

He urged the South Dakotans present to take home a message of vision and cheerfulness from the dairy show with its lessons in the possibilities of high producing cows.

Gov. J. J. Blaine of Wisconsin, dwelt on the economy of diversified farming and raising of only high test milk and best producing cattle, giving these factors credit for a great part of the wealth produced in Wisconsin.

PEACE IS NOW HELD CERTAIN

Harington Declares Convention is Entirely a Lost Word—Peace or War.

Madison—The Allied generals have drawn up their final armistice convention here and submitted it to its most famous, the Turkish Nationalist representative.

James thanked General Harington, the British commander-in-chief, and his colleagues for the sincerity of their intentions and he reiterated the desire of his government for a peace of equal advantage to all.

He said he hoped the Ankara assembly would approve the text of the convention.

The announcement that the armistice convention had been signed at Madinet between the Allies and the Turks has reached London and brought relief to the government.

The condition embodying the main features of the convention is that the withdrawal of inter-Allied divisions and contingents will occur in 30 days after the completion of the evacuation of the Greek forces.

This evacuation may occur earlier, provided the Allied governments agreed that adequate provisions had been made for the maintenance of law and order and the protection of the non-Turkish population.

The inter-Allied divisions and contingents may be withdrawn before the expiration of 30 days.

SEPARATES SPRING WHEATS

Durum and Spring Wheat Two Varieties for First Time.

Mississippi—For the first time, the United States department of agriculture has separated its estimates of production of durum wheat and spring wheat.

Detailed figures from its October 1922 report, furnished by the department showed the estimated spring wheat production in Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Montana was 218,415, 999 bushels. Of this amount, the estimated production of durum is set at 52,000,000. This is the first time that government crop reports have distinguished between durum and spring wheat.

The change in the policy of the department followed requests by Minnesota grain men, in which it was pointed out that government estimates of spring wheat production have included durum wheat along with spring wheat, in spite of differences in quality and uses of durum wheat.

It was pointed out in the spring wheat estimates that the inclusion of durum wheat has caused the country to expect a much larger supply of spring wheat than actually was available.

Minneapolis, N. D.—The coming season in North Dakota was narrowed down to a contest between the Nonpartisan League and Independents, when the nature of his work filed by the Nonpartisan.

St. Paul has $300,000 of lumber was destroyed at an estimated loss of $300,000 in a fire at the yards of the Twin City Hardware, 127 North Commercial, 515-537 North Cleveland avenue, St. Paul.

Why are the hoodlums have many friends in this region, who join in congratulations.

Mrs. Maynard Anderson was the guest of honor at a dinner at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. J. Riveness, the first of the week. She received many beautiful presents.

Therrien Challenge Pedersen to Debate

Mr. L. C. Pedersen, Askov, Minnesota.

Dear Sir: Owing to the unfair, unjust and unbridled report of my speech before the Danish Brotherhood Society at Askov, on the evening of September 10th, by the Askov American, and the publication of the said report by the Hinkley News. In order that the voters of Pine County may have an opportunity to learn what I did say at said meeting, and hear the argument I used why you should not be returned to the Legislature.

I hereby challenge you to a public debate, to take place at Hinkley, the date of said debate to be left to you, which however, must be at least two weeks before election, in order that a report of the facts may be given to the public before election.

I agree to pay one-half the cost of all expenses for such meeting, and will meet you on any terms you may suggest, in order to get you before an impartial audience.

I will agree to make the same speech I made at Askov, which I can do because of all my arguments, contained within the House Journals, Law Book of one and written and printed documents in my possession. Your "orator" the Askov American, states that my speech was such a laughable affair, you should have no difficulty in defending yourself, and incidentally furnishing some amusement for those present.

I take the liberty of handing a copy of this letter to the press of my county, and await your early reply.

Very truly yours,
J. E. Therrien,
Pine City, Minn.

Draw up Schedule

On Saturday, October 30th, the superintendents and athletic coaches of District number five met at Madinet between the Allies and the Turks has reached London and brought relief to the government.

The condition embodying the main features of the convention is that the withdrawal of inter-Allied divisions and contingents will occur in 30 days after the completion of the evacuation of the Greek forces.

This evacuation may occur earlier, provided the Allied governments agreed that adequate provisions had been made for the maintenance of law and order and the protection of the non-Turkish population.

Mrs. Maynard Anderson was the guest of honor at a dinner at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. J. Riveness, the first of the week. She received many beautiful presents.

Mr. Anderson always ready to spend county money for high priced machinery.

Do you want to vote for a county commissioner who spends county money like a "drunken sailor"?

Do you want to vote for a man who is going to use his best efforts to reduce your taxes?

We are informed that Commissioner Anderson is making his campaign for re-election on the grounds that he is in favor of building a bridge across the St. Croix river, and if re-elected, will push that project.

As the law is precedent, there is no chance to get an appropriation from the state for the construction of a bridge there, without a special act of the legislature. Therefore, if a bridge is built here, such an act is passed, Pine County will have to pay half of the cost.

The estimated cost of the bridge where Mr. Anderson wants it built is $100,000. Half of that cost must be paid by Pine county.

Are the people of Pine county in favor of adding another $50,000 to our taxes next year? We don't think they are, and The Pine Poker is absolutely opposed to any increase in our taxes.

Look over the files of The Pine Poker for the past few months and see the number of Mortgage Foreclosure Notices that have been published. Is adding another $50,000 to our taxes going to help decrease these notices or will it place enough additional burden on some of our farmers, that will cause a few more farms to go under the hammer at a sheriff's sale.

Pine county levied $50,000 for roads and bridges last year, for the year the levy was increased to $70,000. Now, do we want to add $50,000 more to that levy for building a bridge?

Pine county finished paying $50,000 for the Poor Farm building last year. Still our tax levy is higher this year.

The superintendents of the Little Eight also met on Saturday at Jerome. Forest Lake accepted the place left vacant by the resignation of Milata.

GOWN FOR AFTERNOON WEAR

For informal afternoon functions this black moon-glo satin crepe makes a strong appeal. It has been made distinctive by the chinchilla collar and long sleeve panels.

ORGANDIE FOR EVENING WEAR

Summery Fabric. Considered Too Fluffy for Daytime. Crowded Out by Dark Silk.

Summer isn't over and organdie has always had a place in the heart of the American girl who is often at her best in this sheer, summery fabric. Of late years it has been considered too fluffy for daytime wear and has been crowded out by dark silk gowns which women prefer to wear in spite of the heat. Now, however, it is offered as one of the latest materials for the summer evening gown and one is entirely surprised at what is being done with it in this line.

The organdie gown of today is not ruffled, ruffled or lace-trimmed, but is used with one color over another and trimmed with self-toned flowers and pleating. These over lavender gives a two-toned effect that is lovely. Yellow over orange is also very attractive.

One of the prettiest combinations is shown in a frock of pale green made over a foundation of old blue. The usage of these two colors gives the bronze effect. Twisted ribbons of the waist is a such composed of folds of deep lavender, dark green and bronze organdie.

These organdie gowns are at their best when made simply with the snug-fitting bodice that is sleeveless and with quite a full skirt which may be pleated in scallops. The neck and armholes finish in pleating. Stockings should match the color of the under-ship.

STRAPS OF PEARL AND METAL

Dainty Shoulder Pieces Are Used on Some of the Summer Lingerie Instead of Ribbons.

Thin shoulder straps of pearl and metal are used on some of the summer lingerie instead of ribbons that so easily wrinkle and soil. Some time ago there came into existence the thin silver or gold cord, replacing the ribbon shoulder strap. The idea of the silver or gold cord or chain was that it would be invisible. Not so with the pearl and metal straps. The more these are seen the better from the Parisienne's standpoint. And in truth these trimmings form an extremely dainty adjunct to the summer costume.

HINT ON IRONING WITH GAS

Single Burner Can Be Made to Heat Several Flatirons; Much Can Be Saved.

Get a strip of metal large enough to hold four or five flatirons and heat the iron on this. A single gas burner will heat the metal iron and to end, and thus do the work of three or four. The same strip of metal can be used for making gridlockers.

Turn over the iron a metal pan so as to save the top heat, and turn the gas down low. With care four or five flats can be kept hot at a cost of about 30 cents for an ordinary ironing. Do not put flatirons directly over a gas flame, as the waxy vapor from the flame will rise and consequently roughen them.

Dreammaking Hints. There are a number of lovely ways to finish the servicable and smart crumpled gowns. Organdie, in the predominant color, may make an effective binding at sleeve, pocket and button neck. Through this, ribbon in a harmonizing tone is run and tied in peppy bows. Either ribbon or a slender string belt is used and tied at the left front. Another good-looking finish which is new is a number of imported crumpled frocks in button-down style in colored wools. And still another binds the edges with linen.

INJUNCTION MADE DRAMATIC

Temporary Injunction Against Shop Employees Applied without Modification.
 Chicago—The drastic temporary injunction order asked by Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty against shop crats strike leaders has been put in force by Judge James H. Wilkerson, without any of its effectiveness being nullified.
 Several slight changes in the wording of the order were made by Judge Wilkerson to clarify its meaning.
 Qualifying his statement with the assertion that a course of action had been definitely determined, Donald R. Richberg, counsel for the railway shop crats, indicated that the next step in the shopmen's fight against the Daugherty injunction would be a petition to the United States circuit court of appeals for a review of Judge Wilkerson's order.

The Service Rendered by Efficiency in Gasoline Production

THE man who fills his tank at a Service Station, or feeds his tractor from a tank wagon, may not realize it but sheer efficiency on the part of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is to a large degree the reason why the gasoline is there when he wants it.

Oil News says: "During the winter 1921-1922 the majority of the refineries in the Mid-Continent field were idle. This was due largely to the fact that they could not refine and sell at a profit. They were in a way inefficient. Many could not operate. Others that might have operated could not get the grade. The large plants could and did finance themselves and sold some of their output as they made it at a profit."

Keen efficiency—in small, as well as in big things, has enabled the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to refine and sell petroleum products at a fair profit, under the most competitive of business conditions.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) efficiency runs through every operation. It governs the appointment of executives. It selects all men of long training and experience who know when and what type of grade to buy. It directs the style of machinery, the kind of stills to be used. It determines the various products to be refined from the crude so that there may be no waste of oil, effort, time or overhead.

This efficiency, and the confidence which the public places in it, enables the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to maintain its position as the leader in the future with confidence, and to keep its refineries going during periods of low consumption that it may be in position to meet adequately the unusual demands during periods of greater consumption.

It is this efficiency which has spotted the country with bulk and service stations and caused more than 6000 motor tank wagons to traverse the streets and highways supplying the people everywhere with first quality petroleum products at prices which are fair.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) submits that such efficient management is the essential basis of the valuable service it renders.
