Accident is Fatal To Mrs. White

This community was shocked last Friday morning, to learn of the death of Mrs. Theresa White, wife of George H. White, traveling agent of the N. P. railway, which resulted from an accident the night before.

Mrs. White had been down town in Duluth last Thursday afternoon attending a meeting of the Women's Relief Corps, of which she was color bearer. She took the Fond du Lac train to her home at 9 Marine Court, Riverside, in West Duluth, which arrives there at 8:40. After alighting from the train, she started to cross the Mesaba track, which parallels N. P. She evidently didn't see an approaching train until too late, and was unable to escape. The train crew saw her crossing, but were unable to stop the train before it struck her.

Mrs. White was unconscious when picked up, and was rushed to the Morgan Park hospital, where everything possible was done to save her life, but without avail. Death occurred about 10 o'clock. She didn't regain consciousness following the accident, unless it was for a minute or two, when attendants thought she tried to tell them where she lived.

Mr. White was working at the company office in Minneapolis, when the accident happened, and was unable to get home before she passed away. It was impossible for her parents at Pine City to get there in time.

Theresa Antoinette White was born in Sweden in 1879, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Erickson and came to America with her parents when a child. They resided in Joliet, Ill., and came to Pine City, Minn., where she was educated in the Pine City schools and taught school after graduating June 10, 1901.

General services were conducted from the Pine City Presbyterian church by Rev. John Lowe, last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the remains laid to rest in the local cemetery. The pall bearers were R. P. Allen, M. B. Herles, C. Heimbach, D. Boyle, Frank Hurley and Nick Perkins.

Members of the local Eastern Star attended the funeral in a body. Every seat in the church was occupied by friends who had come to perform the last sad rites. The casket and altar was banked with beautiful flowers a mute testimony of the esteem and love in which the deceased was held by the many friends here and at Duluth. An extra service was necessary to carry the floral offerings to the cemetery.

Mrs. White had a host of friends in the loving care and attention she gave her aged parents in Pine City, and extended their sincere sympathy to the husband and parents in the loss of a loving wife and daughter. Out of town relatives and friends here for the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Nels Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Swennes, Washburn, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ford, Onamia, Mr. Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brinze, Evelyth, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fox, Duluth, Mr. J. M. Andrew and daughter, St. Paul, Mrs. A. R. McDaniel and Miss Eva Shuline, Minneapolis, James Hinkley and Fred Kappeler, Forest Lake, Arden, Minn., Wyoming, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. O'Brien, Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wallace of Rock Creek.

Card of Thanks
We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends and Sisters of the Eastern Star for the beautiful floral offerings and their kindness in our deepest hour of sorrow through the loss of our beloved one, Theresa.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Erickson, George H. White

DORR FOR COMMISSIONER

Although those who are opposing the election of George Dorr as commissioner of the first district, have tried hard to find something that would tend to disqualify him in the eyes of the voters, they have been unable to do so.

Mr. Dorr has been a resident of Royal town for nearly 20 years, coming here with practically nothing, he bought a farm on the installment plan, and today has a 200 acre farm there. Not only has he made a success of his farm, which he did by attending strictly to business and watching his expenses, but he has helped to make a success of everything that he has been connected with.

He became a stockholder in an Greeley creamery 19 years ago, and has been a director of that concern for the past 15 years and has had considerable to do with making it the prosperous institution that it is today. He is president of the Nessel Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and has been connected with that concern the past 6 years. He is at present clerk of the board, which office he has held the past six years without any opposition.

Mr. Dorr is a square shooter, absolutely honest and has the ability to make a real county commissioner for Pine county. Being a large taxpayer himself, he fully appreciates the absolute necessity of reducing taxes, and if elected, will do every effort to bring that about.

He has come out flatfooted as to his position regarding the bridge, stating that he has no opinion concerning the first district. He has absolutely denied the report that he had figured on moving from the first district. People who know George Dorr know that he means what he says and will stand back of any statement he makes. Those who don't know him should ask any of the men that were his business deals with him and they will be told that Mr. Dorr is a square shooter, and a man of his word.

A vote for George Dorr is a vote for a man who has good common sense and the ability to do that common sense so that it will do his district some good.

Vote for Therrien

For the first time since Pine county has been entitled to a representative of this county alone in the state legislature, the first case to be tried was that of Simon R. Spates vs. Mont Clark, which was a damage case for timber trespass. A jury was drawn yesterday afternoon, and at the time of going to recess today, testimony was still being heard.

The next case booked for hearing is that of The Gordon Manufacturing Co. vs. W. F. Richards. It was expected a jury would be drawn for this case late this afternoon.

OAKLAND HAS GOOD RECORD

Nels Oakland of Friesland county, commissioner of District No. 3, comes up for re-election next Tuesday and will undoubtedly be re-elected to office, as he has been a conscientious representative for his district.

Nels has been fighting an uphill game on the board since last January. With Hancock only to stand with him, as the other three members have seemed determined to spend most of the road money in the north end of the county, it has been hard work for Oakland and Hancock to accomplish a great deal in their districts.

Mr. Oakland is always glad to get the views of the taxpayers on matters pertaining to the county welfare. He makes up his mind regarding a matter after he has listened to a delegation and not before a meeting, as is the case with some. He aroused the antagonism of three of the members when he made the fight for a square deal in the printing award last January. They have never forgotten the fact, but neither have the voters of his district who appreciate having a commissioner who is trying to save the county money and believes in fair play, and the taxpayers will not doubt show their appreciation of his ability and record as a county commissioner by returning him to office for another four years.

Minstrel Show Makes Big Hit

The Family theatre was crowded last Saturday evening, for the Minstrel show given by the Osmen Temple of St. Paul. Visitors were here from all the nearby towns.

The show came up to the advertising and was a real treat to the theatre-goers. The chorus was composed of real singers, and the quartets in an equal as ever sang on the professional stage. Wilbur Malloy, the tenor, took the audience by storm and was encored time and again. The end men kept the crowd in an uproar, and their jokes about local and visiting Shriners made a big hit. From the opening number of Southern Melodies until the closing chorus, there wasn't a dull minute. The troupe was full of pep and well deserved the big applause given by the audience.

The troupe arrived on the limited in a private car and were met at the depot by local Shriners. They were escorted to the Agnes Hotel, where the dinner was served. At six o'clock the local members at a vartridge dinner at the hotel. A big lunch had been prepared under the direction of A. M. Challen in the hall adjoining the lodge room over Challen's store, to which all visiting Masons were invited, following the show. The ladies were entertained at the hotel.

The dinner in the armory drew a capacity crowd that reminded one of old times. The Shrine orchestra furnished the music, following the show. All members of the troupe were guests of the dance management.

Howard Kington, potentate of Osmen Temple, stated Pine City's reception was as fine as any received in the twelve towns visited by the troupe this year, and said the boys would look forward to another visit here next year.

FAD FOR EARRINGS

Becoming Quality of Decoration Is of Importance.

Beading Dangles Add Touch Needed to Complete Dress of Woman of Present Day.

Who would ever have supposed that earrings could be as fashionable in a modern day as they have come to be? They no longer can be considered as an article of jewelry; they are the article of jewelry, asserts a correspondent in the New York Times. Without earrings one is as nothing in the way of personality, for these beading trinkets mean everything. A gown is nothing without its accompaniment of earrings. The diamond stunner of old was inconsequential compared to this new fad.

The becoming quality of the earrings cannot be overestimated. A woman who has never before thought of wearing anything of the sort purchases, in fear and trembling, perhaps, a pair of beading dangles for her ears. She does them in some doubt. She eyes herself questioningly in the mirror. She doesn't know whether she can stand this new fashion. But when she steps out upon the street she finds that many admiring looks before her.

Earings of Cut Steel and Jet Worth With Cloth-of-Silver Comb.

Deared her are now turned in her direction. She begins to draw her chin a trifle higher in the air, to give more swing and pose to those ornaments which, at first, she regarded so hesitatingly. She has realized that her whole costume, her whole bearing, her whole position in the world of well-dressed women, has centered—that, in other words, she has added the one touch needed.

Nowadays when a woman appears without earrings one wonders what makes her look so undressed. There is something subtle about the modern fashions which demands this extra decoration.

If one observes the design of the modern costume, whether it be day frock, wrap or evening gown, one can plainly see how, by its very simplicity, it demands just the sort of added decorative touch that earrings alone supply. A costume itself is complete in its own simplicity. Any added touch would only serve to spoil its general effect. That would not do at all. But, earrings—they are another matter. Add them to your draped crepe frock and see what they will do for it. They may bring it out of the commonplace into the ranks of individuality. Earrings do much to emphasize the type which is your own, the thing which, after all, is of more value to you than any dress in the wardrobe. It emphasizes the characteristics which it has taken you years to build up and of which, after all, you should be justly proud.

THE SMART TUB SILK FROCK

Shirtings Make Charming Warm Weather Dresses; Cost Little More Than Gingham.

Tub silk is used to fashion many of the smartest frocks of the season. These tub silks, in reality silk shirtings, make charming warm weather dresses, and they are so reasonably priced this year that a house dress-maker may have a silk frock at a cost very little greater than that of a gingham one.

If a good quality is selected, the material launders well and easily, requiring, of course, no starch or other finish. It is always wise to choose a simple style design in planning one of these frocks.

Tough of Color

Whether for suit wear or to be worn with separate skirts, white blouses hold the center of the stage. A touch of color may appear in the trimming, but the main portion of the blouse will be white.

Forest Fires Again Flare Up. Brainerd—Shouldering peat logs in the vicinity of Brainerd again became dangerous, according to a notice received by W. T. Cox, state forester. Three fires are burning 13 miles east of Brainerd and one 12 miles west.

Wilson Votes as New Jersey. Trenton, N. J.—The Mercer county board of elections has decided that former President Wilson could vote in the state of New Jersey and that his ballot should be forwarded to him in Washington.

ROCK CREEK NEWS DE'T

West Rock News

Mrs. J. Anderson and Martin Ahl, representative of Bridgman-Russell Creamery Co. in Duluth, were here on business last week.

Mrs. Sam Martin returned from the Rush City hospital last Friday and is much improved at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilding Mattson have moved their household goods from their home north of West Rock and are now living on the John Anderson place.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Blom were entertained at the Andrew Anderson home last Sunday.

The farmers seek repose again. Their guns are put away. They sit no longer by the door no longer are they fearful.

A large crowd attended the social given in the hall on Tuesday evening of this week.

Art Anderson came up from the Twin cities and spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderson.

Miss Amelia Berglund spent the week end at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Berglund, living northwest of town. She is employed in Minneapolis.

Howard Pepin and wife, Clifford Pepin and their grandmother, Mrs. Livingston, all of St. Paul spent Sunday visiting at the J. D. Pepin and Victor Pepin homes.

A large crowd from here attended the shrine minstrel show in Pine City last Saturday evening. All report it the best they have seen in a minstrel show.

Gilbert Hyland has resigned his position as assistant at the local creamery. His place will be taken by Edwin Peterson, who started in at his duties on Monday of this week.

A miscellaneous shower was held in honor of Mrs. Hulmer Westman, nee Mrs. Julia Henderson, at the Westman home east of town on Wednesday of this week. The bride received many beautiful presents.

Word was received here last week of the marriage of Morris Strandberg and Miss Irene Swatkins which took place in Chicago last July.

Both young people are well known here and all their friends wish them a long and happy married life.

A large crowd attended the political meeting held at the hall last Thursday evening. Jos. Therrien, candidate for representative and George Dorr, candidate for county commissioner from the first commissioner district spoke at the meeting.

O. C. Barringer was given a big surprise last Friday morning when he found the east side of the J. R. Pagan potato warehouse busted out when he went to work. It isn't very often that a buyer will show the boss that he is on the job by buying so many spuds that the warehouse is unable to hold them all.

After much work and fixing he finally got the mangled tubers back in their respective places.

A young fellow from out near Rush Lake evidently had just a wee bit to much when he tried to make the turn leading up into town last Sunday afternoon.

Instead of making the turn he landed headlong into the railing on the bridge. He received no serious injury nor did the Ford but he furnished plenty of fun for the crowd that gathered when he mistook the time of year and took a swim in the creek after making a headlong flop into it.

Everett Berglund, George Dahlstrom and Archie Doran have hounded their packs and are now ironed and entrenched on the flats near the St. Croix where they will put in the next couple of weeks in the gentle art of skunk hunting.

They are all grizzled veterans at the job and should make a big haul. No doubt their friends here will be able to know when they break camp before they come in sight. Boys! don't mistake them for a nice pretty little kitten when you go out at night.

Mrs. Sundberg left Sunday for her home in St. Paul. Mrs. Sundberg has been staying with her sister Mrs. J. G. Rydland.

A crew has been working on the road near the Dahl farm this week although the weather has prevented them from accomplishing much so far.

Monday evening while Harry Christianson was driving the cow, the dog ran at a calf which became frightened and collided with Harry, injuring him above the eye with its horns. The injury is not serious however.

A number of young people from East Rock Creek had a Halloween party at the Anzel Glader home on Tuesday night. Ghosts abounded and even a Devil was seen in the crowd. As everyone seemed to be interested in the bones of their dead ancestors, the "Chamber of Horrors" was extremely popular, although it is still a mystery where they obtained the bones of every one's ancestors. After ducking for apples an other contests the guests were served with delicious luncheon.

BILL SAM'S DICTIONARY

By J. L. MARTIN. While it was raining so hard the other day, Bill Dooley suddenly ran out of chewing tobacco; but Bill, not to be outdone, ran nearly a mile over to Lem Gardner's and borrowed Lem's umbrella so he could go to the store for his tobacco without getting wet.

UMBRELLA: A well-known household article, which, whenever you need it, causes you to study for an hour before you can remember just how borrowed it last at at which one of your friend's home you left it. Bill Sam's Dictionary, page 759.

HOUSEWORK IS A BURDEN

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with patience and other distracting kidney ailments life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Pine City women. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. G. L. Johnson, Pine City says: "Heavy, strenuous housework I believe, weakened my kidneys. I had terrible sharp pains in the small of my back and when I stooped, these pains dug in deeper making it a task to straighten again. To make matters worse, my kidneys acted too often and I began looking around for a good kidney remedy. Someone told me that Doan's Kidney Pills and the first box I used gave good results. The backache ceased and two more boxes of Doan's relieved me entirely. My kidneys became strong and healthy and as they should. I am pleased to recommend Doan's as they did all they are claimed to do in my case."

Last Fall, there was a big ARCOLA shortage, and thousands of people were disappointed. This Fall the same thing will happen. But today we've got ARCOLA on hand and we have more time to install them. So take our advice. Don't put it off. Save money on ARCOLA now. (These figures, though rough, will show how reasonably ARCOLA can be completely installed—despite the fact it pays for itself in the fuel it saves.)

Frank B. Kellogg

Senator Frank B. Kellogg is meeting with enthusiastic crowds in his campaign for reelection to the United States Senate.
 The Senator is meeting with popular favor. The people realize the fact that Frank B. Kellogg has served them well and faithfully. There is no reason why he should not be returned for a second term.
 If ever a senator of the United States has fought for the interest of the farmers of America, that Senator is Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota.
 Senator Kellogg realizes the fact that the farmers are not getting a square deal. He is a leading member of the Agricultural Bloc, and is exerting every effort to bring about a change for the better.
 Raised on a farm in Olmstead county, Minnesota, Mr. Kellogg has first hand knowledge of the problems of the farmer. The rural voters of the state will conserve their own best interests by voting for his next Tuesday. He is their one best bet, and their best friend. A less able man, he has been a credit to Minnesota in the Senate.

J. A. O. Preus

Governor Preus goes to the polls next Tuesday at the head of the Republican state ticket, for reelection on the record of his administration during the past two years. That that record is satisfactory to the bulk of Minnesota voters, is evidenced by the lack of interest being taken in the fight of opposition, and Governor Preus and the entire Republican ticket for state offices will undoubtedly be returned to office by nice comfortable majorities.

Thomas D. Schall

Thomas D. Schall, Minnesota's blind congressman and the poor man's friend, candidate for reelection to congress from the tenth district is opposed by Henry T. Rutledge. There has been little heard, and little said about this contest, as the opposition to Mr. Schall this year has been unable to develop any strength whatsoever. To predict our blind congressman's reelection is like stating a fact. His many friends in the tenth district will get just as much pleasure in voting for him, as though there was a stiff fight, however.
 States has fought for the interest

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NEWS

T. J. Buckton, pastor.
 At the morning service next Sunday the pastor will preach on the subject of RELIGION, with all our preaching about religion, it would seem that religion itself might be the theme of a sermon. Did you know that Jesus never once used the word "religion," perhaps because in His day the word was so empty, formal, and external—but He used the word "Life" instead. He came that men might have life, and have it more abundantly—life rich, free, sparkling, overflowing, eternal. We shall have also an evening service at 8 o'clock, when the pastor will begin a series of Biblical expositions of the Cross. Bring your Bible along with you.

Pine City has many champion tennis players, but there are two who claim to be the champions—that is, they claim they are. These two experts have been issuing challenges right and left recently, and seemed to have the balance of the racket experts scared to death, but recently they suddenly challenged each other with the result that a wager was made, and a world series played Tuesday afternoon of last week. These two rivals of Bill Tilden are Phil Silesky and J. A. Peterson. The wager was the feed of the Northern Pacific diner, serve, to the winner out of ping games. Both claimed the championship, but our sporting editor finally got both the contestants together when Mr. Peterson admitted that Silesky had won five out of six. Pete was a little peeved though, as he said Phil ate the biggest and most expensive dinner of any man he had ever treated. Come on the rest of you tennis hounds and take Phil on for a few sets. He says he will play all comers.

Industrial Harmony Promotes Better Service

LABOR controversies are productive of needless loss to employer, employee, and to the public. The basic fact has long been recognized by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and is one reason why the Company has stressed the necessity of industrial harmony within the organization. It knows that through such harmony it can render the public a better service, and that by rendering such service the Company, its employees, and the public will profit.

In the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) every man earns his job; none inherits it. Every man has confidence in the knowledge and experience of his fellow workers. Every employee knows that when he has earned promotion he will be advanced, for this is the time-honored policy of the Company, and, naturally, creates a spirit highly favorable to excellence of service.

Every member of the Board of Directors of this Company holds his position because of his experience and because he possesses specialized knowledge of the oil industry. From the Chairman of the Board to the man who fills your tank at a Standard Oil Service Station, every employee is inspired by a real desire to make the Company of the utmost service to the community.

Industrial harmony within the organization is the goal toward which the entire organization is striving. Every man and woman knows that such harmony works for happiness and contentment, promotes efficiency, and increases their power for service.

Industrial harmony means industrial progress. Industrial progress is made through co-operation, not through antagonism. Through peace, not through controversy; through conservation, not through dissipation of energy.

Industrial harmony inevitably results in profit to the public by reducing the prices at which commodities may be sold. This is well exemplified in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The conditions obtaining in this organization are not accidental; they are largely the result of a sane, constructive program "which avoids the foolish waste of radical experiment; the costly breaches of economic law, the unhappy consequences of social injustice".
