WARSHIPS ATTACK OSTEND

British Bombard the Germans.

MONITORS THROW SHELLS FOUR MILES

German Submarines Are Driven Off by Destroyers.

London, Oct. 22.—Ostend is being bombarded by the British fleet, according to a report in Berlin, reaching here by wireless.

The admiralty announced that three monitors have been engaged in the operations on the Belgian coast, firing on the right flank of the German army.

The three are the Severn, Commander E. Fullerton; Humber, Commander Arthur Snagge; and Mersey, Lieutenant Commander Robert Wilson. They recently were purchased from Brazil.

Owing to their light draught they have been able to contribute materially to the success of the operations in this district, and have already abundantly justified their acquisition on the outbreak of the war.

In addition, detachments with machine guns have been landed from these vessels to assist in the defense of Neuport, where they performed meritorious service.

According to the French communication the Germans made attacks on the allied line at Neuport, Dixmude and La Bassée.

The German general staff declares fighting continues on the Yser canal, and that the Germans, taking the offensive west of Lille, have repulsed the French at several points.

The reports seem to contravert optimistic accounts appearing in English newspapers from correspondents who claimed they were in West Flanders, and who stated that the Germans had been driven back.

Disadvantage for Germans.

The Germans, however, are believed here to be fighting under a great disadvantage, especially along the coast, as the British ships which have been assisting the allies' land forces have long range guns capable of seriously menacing German troops and men in the trenches as well as the ammunition trains and supply convoys which must remain in the immediate rear of the troops.

The monitors being used draw less than nine feet of water and can take up positions not far from shore, from which their sixteen guns and 4.7-inch howitzers, of which each vessel carries two, are able to throw shells nearly four miles across country, the range being given them by almirants.

The vessels assisting the allies have not been allowed to carry out their operations in peace, for German submarines have followed them down the coast and attacked them while they were shelling German positions.

These attacks, however, were made futile by the presence of British destroyers.

Thus far the allies have been able to hold Ypres. The Germans are striking hard at the French line in the vicinity of La Bassée, and have made counter attacks against the force which for many days has been endeavoring to relieve Lille.

Of the fighting in Russia, the German official report says no decision has been reached, while the Russians claim an important victory. An official report received from Petrograd says German troops which were advancing toward Warsaw in the region north of the Pilnitz river have been repulsed and now are in full retreat.

Canada More Rigid.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 22.—More rigid police supervision of the German and Austrian residents of Canada has been ordered as a result of the destruction by bombs of a tenement in Montreal occupied by Russian families.

The Dominion government has ordered a strict inquiry into the attitude of German and Austrian residents throughout the country.

Japanese Seize German Gold.

Tokyo, Oct. 22.—A special dispatch received here from Sasebo says the Japanese, in their recent raids on the German islands in the South seas, destroyed the German military equipment. They seized $250,000 in gold and also ammunition and rifles. Ten officials on each of the captured islands surrendered to the Japanese.

German Fleet in Baltic.

London, Oct. 22.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Telegraph reports a German fleet off Falsterbo, Sweden, in the Baltic sea.

Attorney General Rules Two Members Can Fix Scale.

Two members of the state minimum wage commission have authority to recommend a standard minimum wage for women.

This is the opinion of J. C. Neuhay, assistant attorney general, who has so advised W. F. Hook, state labor commissioner.

Mr. Hook and Miss Eliza Evans now comprise the commission, since A. H. Lindbeck's resignation, tendered last week. They will go on with the wage inquiry, adding to the data already secured, according to Mr. Hook, and will fix a minimum wage for women. The law creating the commission provides that its findings become operative within thirty days after employers are notified of the wage decided upon.

GIRLS OVERCOME BY GAS

One Dead and Another in Precarious Condition.

Viola Johnson, twenty-three years of age, a student at Bethel academy, St. Anthony Park, is dead, and Hilda Lund, also a student at the academy, is in a serious condition at the St. Paul city hospital as the result of having been overcome by gas at the home of E. M. Freeman.

Mrs. Freeman found the girls in the gas filled room when she went to call them and summoned the police ambulance.

The gas jet in the room was partly open, and it is believed one of the girls accidentally turned it on while turning on the electric light, which is attached to the gas fixture. The electric light was burning.

NO MEAT SHORTAGE HERE

War in Europe Will Not Affect the Northwest.

While a shortage of meat faces the world as a result of the European war, South St. Paul packing concerns say the Northwest will not be affected materially and add that the shortage will be a "silk stocking" or "spike lather" coat affair—that it is for anyone and that full dress, if worn at all, will be the exception rather than the rule.

The order of the opening exercises will be as follows: entertainment and speaking from 8 to 9:30 p. m., followed by the ball to midnight. Then there will be a supper.

Governor Eberhart and staff, Adjt. Gen. Wood and Capt. Guy A. Eaton will be among the from-out-of-town visitors.

Express Driver Missing

Packages Containing $3,000 in Cash Also Gone.

Peter La Roux, driver for the Adams Express company at St. Paul, and two packages of currency, one containing $3,000 and the other $100, are missing.

La Roux was sent to the Union depot to receive the money. He received and receipted for both packages, but was the last seen of him. La Roux had been in the company's employ only a month and had given no local address when engaged. He is about twenty-three years old.

YOUTH GIVES HIMSELF UP

Alleged to Have Shot His Father During Quarrel.

John McKay, prominent retired business man of Kelsey, was shot and instantly killed, allegedly by his son, George, following an argument about putting on storm windows on the father's farm home, four miles from Kelsey, while the mother, in poor health, slept inside.

Two shots were fired, both taking effect. The young man gave himself up and is in the custody of the sheriff.

FOLLOWS HUSBAND IN DEATH

Fire in St. Vincent Home Costs the Lives of Two.

Mrs. John Lynch of St. Vincent has succumbed to the horror and shock that she sustained in the recent fire wherein her husband was fatally burned and their home destroyed. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch had resided in St. Vincent twenty-seven years.

Burglars Fill Wagon With Loot.

Burglars in search of a housekeeping outfit broke into Harry Stehn's general store at Minneapolis and hauled away enough cash, draperies and other house furnishings to load an express wagon.

Could anything better show the horrors of war? With their husbands killed these aged sisters and the daughter of one of them took what belongings they had saved and started on a search for another home.

Armory Opening, Nov. 5th

The date of the Armory ball has been changed one day—to Thursday, Nov. 5.

At a meeting held in the Corn and Clover Land Co's offices, last Thursday evening, a committee of business men was appointed to act with the militia committee in arranging for and conducting the event.

The citizens committee is as follows: J. Y. Breckenridge, R. J. Hawley, R. P. Allen, J. M. Collins and Robt. Wilcox. They say that the Armory opening festivities will not be a "silk stocking" nor "spike lather" coat affair—that it is for anyone and that full dress, if worn at all, will be the exception rather than the rule.

The order of the opening exercises will be as follows: entertainment and speaking from 8 to 9:30 p. m., followed by the ball to midnight. Then there will be a supper.

Governor Eberhart and staff, Adjt. Gen. Wood and Capt. Guy A. Eaton will be among the from-out-of-town visitors.

Anyone Bid More for Poor Farm?

At the special meeting of the board of county commissioners, Monday, held to consider the offer of $42 per acre for the poor farm, a resolution was introduced and adopted, Commissioners Dorr, Bullis and Hammers voting for and Commissioners Degerstrom and Johnson against, fixing Dec. 7th as the date when the bid will be considered by the board. If there should be any better offers in the meantime they will be also considered on that date.

Gets High Score on Butter

Mrs. Z. L. Wheeler has received notice that she was second in the scoring on dairy butter at the State Fair last month, securing 32 points while the top-notch was only 93.

All of which shows three things—that Pine county is always in the lead, that city folks know considerable about country ways [the Wheelers recently moved to the Pokesama lake farm from Minneapolis] and that Mrs. Wheeler deserves a place in Pine county's hall of fame, for first class dairy butter is as hard to make as it is to get.

Kendall-Shonka

Miss Maud Kendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kendall of this place, and Adolph Shonka of Jordan Minn., were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents at 10 a. m., Tuesday, by Rev. E. Clark.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and the happy couple left on the noon train south for their home near Jordan, where Mr. Shonka is a prosperous farmer, carrying with them the best wishes of all for their happiness and success.

The bride has lived most of her life in this community and has a large circle of friends.

O'Brien-Davis

Mrs. Margaret Payne O'Brien and Charles Henry Davis were quietly wedded last Saturday evening by Rev. Clark at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Payne.

Only relatives and a very few friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hurley supported them at the altar.

The wedding was a great surprise to the many friends of Mrs. Davis who has lived here since childhood.

Mr. Davis comes from New Castle, Ind., and is in the employ of the Hasey heating company of Minneapolis as steamfitter. He has been employed here on jobs at the school house and at Mr. Radley's home. Later they will leave to make their home elsewhere and they will carry with them the best wishes of all our people.

Hokenson-Erickson

Miss Hilda Hokenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hokenson of West Rock, and Elmer E. Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Erickson, also of that place were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday, Oct. 14.

Only relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties were present at the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Claus Johnson under a bower of flowers and autumn leaves.

The bride was attired in a gown of white satin richly trimmed with lace and wore a veil arranged in cap form. She also carried a shower of bride's roses and carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Hannah Hokenson, sister of the bride, wore pink silk poplin and carried pink roses and carnations.

Herman Miller acted as best man and both groom and best man wore black and buttonholes of roses.

The wedding march was played by Miss Augusta Johnson.

Following the ceremony an elaborate course dinner was served, the table being artistically decorated with flowers and green.

The bridal couple left the same afternoon for a short wedding trip, after which they will settle down on the Andrew Erickson farm near Rush Lake, Mr. Erickson Sr. retiring from farm work and moving to town.

The young couple are highly regarded by their associates and the heartiest congratulations and good wishes are theirs.

A Rare Orchid

The late Joseph Chamberlain was passionately fond of orchids and at one time cultivated them assiduously at his Birmingham estate. One morning when an officer of the British embassy at Paris and Mr. Chamberlain were walking together on the Quai aux Fleurs, the great statesman suddenly caught a glimpse of a rare specimen of his favorite flower.

"What is the price?" he asked, making his way to the person carrying the blossom.

"Five hundred francs, monsieur. It is the only one of its kind in France."

Mr. Chamberlain paid the price, crumpled the flower in his hand and scuffed it underfoot.

"I have it in my collection," he explained to his astonished companion, "and I don't wish a foreigner to possess one like it."

WOMAN KILLED MRS. BAILEY

Frank Farrell, Witness, States on Stand.

MAID SUBSTANTIATES STORY

Engineer Heard Crash of Glass and Shot, Then Ran—Further Testimony Tending to Accuse Mrs. Carman Produced.

Minneapolis, N. Y., Oct. 22.—A woman wearing dark clothes fired the shot that killed Mrs. Louise Bailey, Frank Farrell, an unemployed stationary engineer, told the jury that is trying Mrs. Florence Cookkin Carman on a murder charge.

Farrell said that on the night of June 30, when the murder was committed, he was on his way to the rear of the Carman home to beg for food when he heard a crash of glass and a shot.

Looking up he saw a woman dressed in a dark garment that extended from her shoulders to the ground standing by the window of Dr. Carman's office, with one hand holding a wire screen above her head and the other hand thrust through the window.

He was frightened and ran away, he said. He looked back once and saw a flash of white, as if "the woman had raised her petticoat to move faster." Other witnesses had testified that on the evening of the murder Mrs. Carman was attired in a flowing dark silk kimono.

Farrell's testimony tending directly to connect Mrs. Carman with the murder followed that of Celia Coleman, a negro, who was a maid in the Carman household at the time of the murder.

Showed Blue Steel Revolver.

Celia said her mistress, dressed in a flowing dark silk kimono, passed out through the kitchen just before she had heard the crash of the breaking glass and the report of a revolver.

She swore that Mrs. Carman entered the kitchen through the back door just after that. Mrs. Carman showed her a long, blue steel revolver, the negro said, and remarked, "I have shot him."

Celia Coleman made a remarkable witness. Every effort was made to shake her testimony, but throughout she was unshakable. She was on the stand four hours.

HEAVY DEATH TOLL IN CHINESE STORM

Entire Villages Are Swept Away in Floods.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Great loss of life followed a series of rain and wind storms the last week in August in the vicinity of Chefoo, China. Thousands are homeless and face famine.

The report of the ravages of the storm came in mail advices to the state department from the American consul at Chefoo, who also said the storm interfered with the early operations of the Japanese against the German fortifications at Kiaschow. The report said:

"Considerable damage was done to property in the city of Chefoo, and it is probable that a score or more Chinese lost their lives by drowning and the collapsing of their mud-walled houses."

"A large loss of life also occurred in the entire villages, where, in places, the country districts, where, in places, the most serious aspect of the matter, however, is the enormous loss of crops all through the peninsula."

ZION CITY IS QUANTINATED

Refusal of Dawis Followers to Be Vaccinated.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Religious beliefs which forbid vaccination resulted in a strict quarantine being placed about Zion City, Ill., the city founded by Alexander Dawis and still inhabited almost solely by his followers.

N. J. La Ross, health commissioner of Zion City, is a member of the Zion church and opposed to vaccination. Dr. C. E. Crawford, state medical inspector, who went for a personal inspection of the city, found a dozen cases of smallpox which had not been reported.

CAUGHT THE MOOD.

Pathetic Incident That Helped Verdi With His "Miserere."
Men of genius are confessedly creatures of mood. Grief and adversity have often been a real help to them rather than a hindrance. Poe, it is said, produced "The Raven" while sitting at the bedside of his sleeping but dying wife. Many similar instances might be cited, but an anecdote of Verdi, told by Carlo Caccarelli, will suffice.

On one occasion when Verdi was engaged on his well known opera, "Il Trovatore," he stopped short at the passage of the "Miserere," being at a loss to combine notes of sufficient sadness and pathos to express the grief of the prisoner, Manrico.

Sitting at his piano in the deep stillness of the winter night, his imagination wandered back to the stormy days of his youth, endeavoring to extract from the past a plaint, a groan, like those which escaped from his breast when he saw himself forsaken by the world. All in vain!

One day at Milan he was unexpectedly called to the bedside of a dying friend, one of the few who had remained faithful to him in adversity and prosperity. Verdi at the sight of his dying friend felt a lump rise in his throat. He wanted to weep, but so intense was his grief that not a tear flowed to the relief of his anguish.

In an adjoining room stood a piano. Verdi, under one of those sudden impulses to which men of genius are sometimes subject, sat down at the instrument and there and then improvised the sublime "Miserere" of the "Trovatore." The musician had given utterance to his grief.

Spartan Self Denial.
When Mr. D., known to be miserly, but not believed to be a miser, was approached delicately for a contribution to the organ fund, he shook his head courteously, but with an air of finality.

"Charity," he said, "is a pleasure one must do without."

RESORT TO UNTRUTHS

Commenting on the state senatorial situation, last week, the Hinkley Enterprise stated that Mr.
 Christianson "boldly announces"
 his stand for County Option and goes on to add, "Mr. Rystrom is also understood to be in favor of County Option. Many of those who are opposed to County Option are favorable to him [Rystrom] because they think he is 'no temperance crank.' Is he keeping silent to catch both sides? His silence leads to the suspicion that he has made some 'deal' with those whom he has heretofore fought." And at the same time this insinuating article was published on one page of the Enterprise, on another page of the same paper was published Mr.
 Rystrom's announcement in favor of County Option. And at the time that this insinuating article was published everyone knew, who cared to know, that Mr. Rystrom had been one of the County Option-ist leaders in this region for years
 —never being "afraid of the cars"
 and standing his ground in the face of all kinds of opposition. And at the time that this insinuating article was published, everyone knew, who made the least attempt to find out the facts, that practically every liquor adherent in the district is fighting against Mr. Rystrom. And at the time this insinuating article was published, the editor of the Enterprise knew that it was untrue
 and, if he had an ounce of sense, must have known that it was an unfair vilification.

At the same time he said, "For many years it has been customary to elect the state senator alternately from each county." All of which is again untrue. Chisago county has had the senatorship for eight years. Prior to that, Dr. Cowan, of Sandstone, was senator for four years, Hon. L. H. McKusick of Pine City for four years and Hon.
 Fred A. Hodge of Pine City for four years—scoring three men and twelve years in a row for Pine County. The truth is that it has been "customary to elect" the man
 the people wanted—and the whole district has always gotten fair treatment, regardless of whether the senator came from Pine or Chisago county.

And again, the Enterprise says:
 "there is more than a possibility,
 that Chisago county will elect both the representatives" the district is entitled to." Everyone who knows the facts knows that this is also untrue. Three fourths of Chisago county is going to vote for
 Hon. Adolph S. Larson, Pine county candidate. And if he is defeated it will be Pine county that will defeat him. More than that, if he is defeated it will be the liquor crowd and the liquor influence that defeats him. But his possible defeat and Warren's fear that "Chisago will elect both representatives" are as far fetched as Alladin's lamp. For he is going to be reelected by a big majority—and Pine county is going to do her share in assisting to reelect her own candidate.

The Enterprise man has not lived in this district long enough to know the facts.

The district wants a representative in congress who is qualified in every way to look after its varied interests. Hon. Lowell E.
 Jepsen has the qualifications and the experience. His record as a member of the Minnesota legislature, as a business man, and a citizen is convincing proof that he is the man who can render the district the best service at Washington.

Hon. Frank A. Day of Fairmont, erstwhile Democratic leader in this state, is not supporting Congressman Hammond, the Democratic candidate for governor, on the ground that he does not repress at the moral element in the state.

 Mr. Day is openly supporting the cause of Hon. Wm. E. Lee for governor.

In Hon. Lowell E. Jepsen the 10th district will have an efficient representative in congress. Mr.
 Jepsen's record in the Minnesota
 senate, his experience on the farm, and his proven ability as a business man of large caliber combine to make him the man best fitted for the place.

Hon. Frank M. Eddy, everywhere recognized, as one of the shrewdest political observers in the state, predicts Lee's election by a liberal majority.

What Nordgren's Assoc'tes Think of His Work

To the voters of the 56th legislative district of Pine and Chisago counties—

Having served on the board of county commissioners of Chisago county with Mr. Elias Nordgren of Sunrise, who is a candidate for Representative from this district, and knowing him as we do we cannot too strongly recommend him to the voters at the general election to be held November 3. He has at all times proven not only his willingness but his ability to perform the duties entrusted to him. He is straightforward, open, plain, and outspoken. As to the performance of his duties, he has always been fair and square to all concerned.
 At no time during his long service on the county board, have we found him unfair, selfish or prejudiced.
 If elected he will be a credit to our district and he will serve all the people and that without fear or favor, regardless of friend or foe. He stands for all that is best in personality and clean politics. He has the experience and his public service on the town board, school board and county board has well fitted him to know conditions in the rural districts in which he has been a resident the greater part of his life, and at all times he has taken a great interest in public improvement and the general development of our county. His services on the county board, of which the last eight years he has been chairman, could not be more painstaking and faithfully performed by any man.
 He has at all times been fair and square, aiming to give everybody
 a square deal. While progressive, his first thought is economy of public funds. Second, we know him well and we would like to see him elected. We also know he is a man that will not be dominated and that he will and can represent our district well. Boost for him, vote for him, at the election November 3, 1914. His endorsement at the primary election was an assurance that the voters believe in a man who never shirks his duty nor plays politics in performing his official duties. He is the kind of public servant we believe in.

The above endorsement of him,
 is made without solicitation, and we hereby authorize him to make such use of it as he may see fit.

Yours most respectfully,

Old King Coal

was a jolly old soul, so the story goes. Scotland was not the rage in his day and he cared not a bit for the stiff-necked breeches that were blown through Medicine Hat. He filled up his bunkers with the kind of coal he handled and then called for his pipe and his bowl and he laughed at Jack Frost—even made faces at him. Of course, with these kinds of coal in his cellar, he could be careless and free if you want to follow his example, just.

Chas. Hecht of Alpha, Minn., was a week end visitor at the F. C. Wichelman home on the St. Croix road.

Spencer Daniels left Tuesday for Cayona, where he will be employed in the bank of which Robt. Harte is a shareholder.

A dinner party of ten was entertained at the Asplund home, Monday evening, followed by a musical evening.

Mrs. Jas. H. Wandel is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever and her many friends are hoping for her recovery soon.

Levi Ardner has just purchased a new stamp puller. It is a machine that can be operated by one or two men.

Albe T. Kopacek and wife are back from their three weeks visit with friends and relatives in the western part of the state.

Miss Deborah Roberts visited with Mary, at Minneapolis, last Sunday, going down with the Rybak family in their car.

Fred Gunsolus, who recently sold his farm west of town, has purchased near Northfield and will move to that locality next week.

The W. C. T. U. will hold their regular monthly meeting next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Asplund. All members are urged to be present.

New walnuts are in, 25c per lb. Ben Davis apples 85c bu. basket. New apricots 15c lb. 6 lb boxes of Kingsford glass starch 50c. All at Asplund's Grocery.

Misses Huber, Liskey, Carlson and Small, with Wm. Bantleon in charge of the car, autoed to Taylors Falls last Sunday and report a delightful trip.

The ladies of the Beroun Methodist church will give a Halloween basket social at the home of Mr. Munson, half a mile southeast of that place, Friday evening, Oct. 30.

This is coffee week in the United States and we make special prices in quantity. Regular 25c bulk, 5¢ lbs for $1.00. 30c bulk 4 lbs for $1.00, this week only, at Asplund's.

Local Democrats are wondering which way to turn next Tuesday with gubernatorial candidate Hammond speaking at Hinckley, Secretary of State Wm. Jennings Bryan at St. Paul and a special election to vote sewer bonds at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gottry moved in from camp last Thursday, occupying part of the Korbel house, just south the restaurant. They had begun to think they would have to build or stay in camp all winter.

Alvin Anderson of Moose Lake was here Monday to secure the Armory for a dance to be given by the Moose Lake orchestra, of which he is a member, about Nov. 14. Watch this paper for further announcement.

If you want a harness or any kind of harness goods, remember the Harness Shop opposite Asplund's grocery store. We keep the best there is in the market and the old saying is, "the best is the cheapest, every time." 7-11

W. G. Hopps of Rush City was a visitor here Monday afternoon. He laughed when told of the highly colored yarn that has been more or less spread around here about the Laurentia Creamery closing down. "Nothing" to it," was the way he described it. "We are cutting out superfluous expense, just as any business must do. We have not received a single complaint on our canned milk or cream."

A brother-in-law of Mr. Wheeler who recently purchased and moved into the old Ryan place at the head of Pokegama, has bought the Tony Dlouhy farm there. His home is in Iowa but he will live part of the year at least on the farm.

Miss Bessie Kilgore, chief typist in The Poker office, left last Saturday for a couple of weeks' visit with relatives at St. Paul and vicinity. At the same time Miss Anna Wickstrom departed for a visit with relatives at White Bear.

Remember the Firemen's dance at the Armory, Saturday evening. The Graeton orchestra will play. A big crowd will attend. Usually one doesn't want too big a crowd on the floor at a dance—but at the Armory the crowd can't be too large.

Everyone with an auto used it last Sunday—and everyone else would have. The Paul Perkins and the Rybaks motored to the Twin cities, the Sobotkas and Staackes to Sandstone and a few of the teachers and Miss Portia Huber to Taylors Falls in the Bantleon car.

C. W. Colby of Sandstone has been in the south end of the county this week in the interest of his candidacy for County Supt. of schools. With his motorcycle, he has made every part of the county the last two weeks—and was able to cover the whole south end in a few days.

G. W. Glaze was up from Rock county the first of the week, buying 80 acres of raw land about six miles out on the Brunswick road from Dort Bros. He expects to be up, bag and baggage, about the middle of next month and will get up his buildings on the place this fall if possible.

Miss Winnifred Daley entertained a score of friends at her home south of town, Monday evening, in honor of her birthday. Games and a delicious lunch passed the evening only too quickly. William Maloney and William Webb drove down from Sandstone in the latter's car to be present.

D. L. Rankin of Sandstone was a visitor here one day last week. He is Pine county's member of the Democratic state central committee—and is a mighty good man for the place. Dave swears that Hammond will be the next governor of the state—and that he will carry Pine county by a substantial majority.

Those old Daguerreotypes of grandfather and grandmother and Aunt Mary and then the quaint pictures of father and mother taken just after the war—money couldn't buy them from you. Are you forgetful of the fact that future generations would cherish just such pictures of you?—Daniels Studio, Pine City.

Little Margaret, the 2½ year old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heinger, died suddenly last Sunday night. The little one awakened at 2 p. m. from a nap and complained of not feeling well. She died at 11 that evening. The case was diagnosed as stomach trouble. The funeral was held yesterday from the Catholic church.

The elder Fritzens left their sanatorium at the head of Pokegama lake, the first of the week, to return to Minneapolis for the winter. The young folks will run the farm during their absence. The Sanatorium has had a fine run this year, with patients from every part of the United States. At one time there were 150 patients there.

It's ten days ago now, but it's just lunked out that when Messrs. McCleary, Smith, Knapp and Perkins were out on a 230 mile run in the latter's car, a week ago last Sunday—making the Twin cities via St. Cloud—they ran completely out of gasoline in the yard of the State Reformatory at St. Cloud. For just one moment their superstition got the better of them.

OPIUM RING IS SMASHED

Three Chinamen Are Sentenced by Federal Judge in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—The government's task of breaking up the so-called "million dollar opium ring" in Chicago was completed when Judge Carpenter in the United States court sentenced three of the offenders.

Chin Kee was ordered to jail until he pays a fine of $10,000 and court costs; Leung Chin, who pleaded guilty, was given five years in prison; and Don Fook, accused of importing the drug, was sentenced to five months in the county jail.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN EUROPE.

Incessant fighting has been in progress from the North sea coast line as far south as La Basse, a distance of about fifty miles.

Three British monitors are shelling the Germans in the vicinity of Ostend, where, it is said, terrible execution has been done. Machine gun detachments also have been landed from these vessels and are assisting in the defense of Newport.

There has been particularly hard fighting in the region of Lille, where the British are in action. The important French town of Lille still is held by the Germans.

An American commission, as the result of an agreement reached between Belgium, Great Britain and Germany, will take under its charge the care of hundreds of thousands of Belgians who are threatened with starvation in their own country.

Petrograd officially announces that the German troops have been driven from roads leading to Warsaw and are in full retreat, having left their wounded on the field of battle. Similarly the Russians report that the advances of the Austrians in Galicia have been stayed.

By order of the Russian emperor and the students of the universities and high schools have been called to the colors. These youths ordinarily are exempt from war service.

STREET CAR NOISE CURE FOR "SNAKES." W Noel, arrested at St. Paul charged with drunkenness, was given his liberty in police court, after spending three days in the care of the city physician. He told the court he rode in street cars all night for a week to get relief from delirium tremens. The street car's rumbling saved him from visions of reptiles and canary birds, which he would see if he went to his hotel, he said.

BALLOTS TO BE REPRINTED Court Decides "Seven Senator Amendment" Should Be On.

The state supreme has ordered Julius A. Schmal, secretary of state, to reprint 750,000 ballots for the election Nov. 3, so the words, "seven senator amendment," will be on the constitutional amendment ballot. The work will cost the state about $750. Complaint was made by G. H. Goodspeed of Waasena when Secretary Schmal sent out the sample ballot without these words, merely citing that the seventh proposed amendment to the constitution related to the number of members of the senate and house of representatives.

I will sell these cows on time, 1-2 1 year and 1-2 2 years, with interest at 8 per cent and the cows will pay for themselves. I want reasonable security. Any buyer that lives outside of my territory, if they will bring a letter of reference from their banker or merchant, they can buy cows. Will be pleased to sell them 5 or 10 in a bunch. These cows will be at my Sale Barn in Pine City, the morning of Oct. 26th, and the sale will commence at 12:30 p. m., so if you come in the morning you will have time to select the ones you want. If you want fresh winter cows come to this sale.

MANY NEW STATE BANKS

Prosperous Conditions in Minnesota Shown.

Prosperous conditions in Minnesota in spite of the European war are shown by the starting of new state banks, as demonstrated in statistics made public by A. H. Turrittin, superintendent of banks. Bankers of the state believe good financial conditions will continue to exist, as evidenced by their willingness to start new institutions in all parts of Minnesota.

Since Aug. 1 eighteen banks have been chartered. Since the first of the year sixty-four banks were authorized to do business. The number of banks chartered each month has been from seven to ten. The average has been well maintained during the year.

During August nine state banks obtained charters. Seven of them started business in September, despite the war, which many people thought would tend to depress financial conditions in this country.

The Game of Bowls

Although bowls is an ancient British game, it is still popular, says an English writer. It is played on a smooth, level piece of greensward, generally about forty yards long, surrounded by a trench about six inches deep. Edinburgh is believed to have the largest bowling greens. In that city there are numerous clubs, each with its own separate bowling green. There is a fine bowling green at Magally, near Sheffield. This green has existed since 1681. The game is the same as that played by Sir Francis Drake in 1572. Bowls can be traced as far back as the twelfth century. Formerly the game was unlawful, but the restriction has been removed.

Training a Dog

There are three things necessary for the successful bringing up of any dog—a quiet, pleasant voice, patience and perseverance. It is wrong to strike a dog to make him obey except in extreme cases. The animal's intelligence is limited, and if when training him to do a certain thing the voice grows louder and louder the dog will become confused, will cover down and refuse to obey. If, however, you firmly and without show of impatience repeat over and over again what you wish him to do he will gain confidence and understand.—Farm and Fireside.

Their Two Beds

At Nice two travelers arrived at a hotel and, having ordered a double bedded chamber, go out to take a stroll. When they return to the hotel the fair chambermaid lights them to their door and, with a bewitching courtesy, says: "Here is your double bedded room, gentlemen. One of the beds is occupied by two other guests, so you will have to sleep together. Good night."

Bright Colors

Ruskin once said, "Wherever men are noble they love bright colors." The words of such a master carry weight, but there seems a spice of the reckless in this assertion. Every one knows that savages are famous for their love of crude and vivid coloring. A negro adores scarlet, and glaring tints are the joy of the south sea islanders.—Strand Magazine.

Suitable, Indeed.

Sir Hubert von Herkomer, the well known artist, used to tell an amusing story of a London art dealer. This man had two beautiful reproductions of the painting, "The Approaching Storm."

One of the pictures he placed in the show window, but it did not sell. At length in order to draw attention to the picture he put a card on it, on which he printed the words, "The Approaching Storm," specially suitable for a wedding present."

A Changeable Name.

The French island of Reunion has changed its name four times in a little over half a century and with little or no reason for doing so. In 1793 it was Bourbonnais, as it had been for a century and a half, but the convention then changed it to Reunion. Under the empire it became Isle Bonaparte, but the restoration it reverted to Bourbonnais. Finally in 1848 it became Reunion once more.

Not Real Food.

Tommy went out to dine at a friend's house one evening. When the soup was brought Tommy did not touch his, and the hostess, looking over, said, "Why, Tommy, dear, what's the matter? Aren't you hungry tonight?" "Yes," replied Tommy, "I'm quite hungry, but I'm not thirsty"—London Standard.

Origin of the "Dun."

A dun took its name from a celebrated bailiff of London during the reign of Henry VII named Joe Dunn. He was extremely clever in devising ways and means to compel unwilling creditors to settle their accounts, and hence the saying, "Send Dunn after him" or "Dun him."
