NEW ARMYORY DEDICATED

Gov. Eberhart, Staff and Other Officials Present

CROWD A RECORD BREAKER

Everyone Labeled Event One of Most Notable of History of County

The Armyory opening and entertainment last Friday evening proved the highest event of the kind ever held in this region.

There were a score in the Governor's party from the Twin cities besides some from Duluth and a large number from all the surrounding towns. The big building was comfortably crowded—and everyone pronounced it the most enjoyable gathering ever held in these parts.

Governor Eberhart and Mrs. Eberhart, Adjutant General Wood, members of the governor's staff and others including State Treasurer Walter J. Smith and Mrs. Smith attended from Minneapolis.

From the north came Colonel Gasser, Mrs. Gasser and Colonel John Dwan of Two Harbors—representing the national guard and Commander Guy A. Eaton, Mrs. Eaton, Lieutenant Commander Kelly, Dr. McComb, Mrs. McComb, Paymaster Fred Engels, Mrs. Engels and Ensign T. J. Jones, representing the naval militia.

The evening's entertainment was opened with a program consisting of addresses by Governor Eberhart, Hon. J. Adam Bede and General Wood and vocal solo by Miss Bessie Lambert and L. B. McCleary.

Governor Eberhart's line of thought lay along the way of peace and plenty. He advocated good schools, social centers and a clean manhood that would cut down the requirement for our state prison, reform schools, insane asylums and the like and help to reduce taxes.

Mr. Bede spoke with characteristic wit and, delving into world conditions as they are, declared in favor of that military preparedness which this country lacks today and expressed his belief that this country will be forced to intervene in the Mexican entanglement.

General Wood called to the attention of our people the possibilities of the new armyory and the naval militia, of which it is the home, in developing the sturdy, clean manhood of this locality.

He impressed upon the mothers within his hearing the obligation that rests with them to see their boys in the militia—not because it makes for war, which he deprecated, but because it helps to develop those characteristics upon which great nations are built—the knowledge and the power to command and the self control and perseverance to obey.

Following the program there was dancing to the tuneful strains of Cafarelli's military band until well toward morning, interrupted only by a midnight supper which was served in the big balcony by the ladies of the Degree of Honor.

Everyone seemed to thoroughly enjoy these festivities but none more than Governor Eberhart and Mrs. Eberhart and Mr. and Mrs. Smith who repeatedly expressed their appreciation of the pleasure they felt.

There was general regret that Hon. Fred A. Hodge, who donated the site for the building, was unable to be present but he was remembered by everyone present.

The supper served by the ladies of the Degree of Honor fed upwards of 200 people and gave the lodge a gross receipt of about $100. The ladies worked hard and cared for the crowd excellently.

New Postmasters in Pine County

Since Chas. Reinholdson moved the Sandstone post office into his own building on the corner of Third street and Main avenue he has one of the best post office locations in this region. He has the room excellently fitted up and it could not be better adapted to the purpose. And, besides all that, no man on earth could grace the office with better form or more courtly manner than Charles Reinholdson.

J. J. Folsom has had charge of the Hinckley post office the past couple of weeks. That office, it is expected, will remain in its present excellent location in the Odd Fellows building.

Election Results in Kanabec Co

In the Kanabec county contests King, Williams and Wescott will be succeeded by Olsen, Sellateit and Victorien. These three contests created much interest during the campaign and it was conceded that the results would be close. Victorien developed the greatest strength and defeated Judge Wescott by 207 votes. Sheriff Williams was outdistanced by his opponent by 96 votes and P. S. Olsen nosed out county attorney J. C. King by 73 votes. Sander for county audi or had a walkaway. Underwood, his opponent, moved from the county some time ago but did not withdraw his name from the ballot and received a scattering vote. Chas. J. Ericson, treasurer, A. M. Anderson, register of deeds, Willis Fairbanks, superintendent of schools, T. B. Vickery, county surveyor, Wm. Monson, commissioner 4th commissioner district and Dr. H. E. Rhein for coroner were elected without opposition.—Mora Times.

Totals in Pine County Vote

The official recount of the returns made by the canvassing board composed of Auditor Hamlin, Chairman Der of the county commissioners and Justices Lambert and Atkinson, last Thursday and Friday, made some changes in the figures previously reported but left the winners exactly as we stated a week ago.

The greatest change occurred in the case of Representative Larson whose majority was dropped to 186 in this county while he lost Chisago by 185, making his net majority over Berg only 1 vote in the district, while about 6000 votes east.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL OCCUPIED

Most Convenient and Best in This Region

SCHOOL MOVING IN THIS WEEK

Ground in Front of Building To Be Parked—Play Grounds in Rear

The new high school building is being gradually occupied this week and the work of moving in will be completed by the first of next week.

The building presents an excellent appearance from the outside but our people must go within its doors if they would really appreciate what it is.

Standing just north of the old building and in line with it, it gives additional appearance to the property in general and impresses everyone with the educational facilities of our town.

The building, of terra cotta brick, has a frontage of about 100 feet and a depth through the addition, which extends out from the center to the rear, of about the same distance. It is especially designed for whatever enlargement may be necessary to keep up with the growth of the city.

Particular features that strike one on entering the building are its compactness, its accessibility and convenience and its excellent light. Go through it carefully and from top to bottom these impressions remain with you. Every requirement is filled. Every department is supplied with the rooms it needs—rooms of the right size, too. Every room is given the light it requires—enough but not a glaring light. And every inch of room is used for something wanted—something necessary. Kelly and Williams, the Duluth architects can't be too highly praised for what they have given us.

The rooms in the main building are three stories high, the gymnasium below and the assembly room above occupy the big addition at the rear and just into the main building as well, with a double deck effect, allowing the extra high ceilings required for the purposes of the rooms and their appearance as well. Off from the landings at the end of the half flights of stairs are wash rooms, cloak rooms and the like which can take lower ceilings and this part of the building describes four "stories."

The basement contains a fine large agricultural room, a forge shop, a woodworking room, gymnasium, laboratory, recitation room, washrooms and showers, and teachers' offices. On the first floor is the superintendent's office, three large and commodious recitation rooms, two rest rooms, and a fine library room for over 2,000 books. A half flight up and an assembly hall for 125 students may be seen, also two wardrobes. Another half flight and the third floor is reached, on which may be found the domestic science rooms, consisting of sewing room, kitchen, pantry, dining room, intended for the board of education to try out the excellent cooking of the students. On the same floor also will be the chemical and physical laboratories, apparatus and darkroom. Another half flight of stairs and modern, up-to-date washrooms are provided.

Owing to finances, and without present necessity urging them to do otherwise, the board has left unfinished the forge and iron room in the manual training department in the basement, a recitation room on the first floor and the chemical laboratory on the top floor—all of them at the southwest corner of the building. The floor for the gymnasium is not in either, but this will be put in by the boys of the manual training department—cement underneath and maple over it.

The question of furnishings has bothered the board some but they have prepared sufficient so that any work on which rests the state aid to the district can be satisfactorily handled. Another year there should be more of the necessary furniture and fixtures put in—but they won't run very high.

The Knights of Pythias are going to fit the girls' retiring room, which means that it will lack for nothing, and the boys' room at the other end of the hall ought to be well furnished by some of our societies.

The grounds are being shaped up and it is hoped that by spring the entire front of the property can be grassed and parked and the play grounds all transferred to the big plot at the rear of the building.

Our school property bids fair to be not only a credit to the community of which it is the educational center, but also to become one of the beauty spots of our town.

Hundreds of Hunters in County

Every train into Pine county from the south this past week has been loaded with red capped hunters dreaming of deer tracks and about a quarter of the men and half a dozen of the women of the county as well have armed themselves with licenses and rifles to get into the game.

Scores of hunters—local and from the outside—have gone out from every point north of here, the eastern part of the county being especially filled with them. It is generally supposed that one wearing a red cap and red shirt is safe from becoming a target—but usually there are more or less "accidents" every year. Of course everyone hopes for none in this county, at least, this year.

Up to date County Auditor Hamlin has issued 700 licenses to the hunters of this county. They are pretty generally scattered over the county—and most of them will hunt more or less within the county. You see, that means a pretty fair army without those who come from outside.

THURSDAY, NOV. 12, 1914.

Howard Folson has disposed of the subscription list and good will and discontinued the publication of The Tribune at Sandstone and has purchased the Pine POKER, which he has conducted the past year, from S. G. L. Roberts who has been its owner since 1904. Mr. Folson will hereafter devote his entire time to The POKER. He will move his printing plant from Sandstone to this place and from the combination pick out the best outfit between St. Paul and Duluth. As soon as all this can be accomplished The POKER will be made better than ever and its plant will be able to turn out any printing quickly and well.

A remarkable note in Governor Eberhart's speech at the Armory opening here last Friday evening was its wealth of good cheer and sound advice and its lack of any fault finding or self praise. It was an unusual talk from a defeated chief executive and left an excellent impression. We believe that if any were there who have been opposed to Governor Eberhart in the past, they will think better of him today.

Pine City and its people are to be congratulated upon the steps of progress made in public affairs here this year. The new high school which is being occupied this week and which is superior in convenience and which is superior in the fine big Naval Militia Army with its advantages to the community as a civic center and its offer of unlimited hospitality to the entire county, the new sewer system that is being installed and the scores of lesser public improvements, to say nothing of the private works, have marked the Pine City of 1914 as one of the liveliest and most public spirited communities in the state.

Editors Eastman and MacDonold of St. Cloud are patting each other on the back because their town shipped strawberries into the market a couple of weeks ago. Over here in the milky way, we are tired and sick of strawberries and cream and the like, but the other morn as the sun poked its pink nose above the eastern horizon and extended the felicities of the occasion to our early risers, an American Beauty rose bud in Captain Seavey's rose garden shook off the dew drops that kissed it and broke out in its pristine magnificence to tell the whole world that Pine City is the home of happiness and that here we bask beneath a warmth that has got St. Cloud' darned strawberries backed off the board any old time.

The proposal to do away with the present method of electing mail carriers on rural routes and to let the jobs on contract to the lowest bidder, harks back to the old "star routes" and recalls all the scandal that was connected with them. Under the present method we are well served; intelligent, interested men are doing the work. They are in government employ and are held to government rules which compel faithful observance of the rights of the public and the requirements of their work. As much can be said of the old "star route," "contract" system, when one big concern with a strong political "pull" gathered all the contracts and sublet them to Tom, Dick and Harry - each one for a few days or a month. How would it do to put up Postmaster General Burleson's office, in which the salary is $40 a day, to let a new bidder?

We note that some of the "suffragists" have given it out that their cause will have a majority in both senate and house at the coming legislative session and that their desired constitutional amendment will surely be submitted at the next election, and in the same article is a tone of gloating over the defeat at the polls of some of those who have opposed the suffrage bills offered in the legislature in the past. The claim of control may be good politics but we deeply doubt it; the gloating, we know, will injure rather than help their cause. If the suffrage movement in this state would place its legislative program in the hands of Miss Mary McFadden we believe it would get along faster. This business of intimidation won't get anywhere in the campaign for women's suffrage. Miss McFadden has a wide acquaintance among the politicians and leaders of the state - and she has their confidence and respect.

The suicide of Win. Sauntry at St. Paul, Tuesday, removes one of the old time lumbermen of this region. Mr. Sauntry was 61 years of age. He arrived at Stillwater 41 years ago, drove oxen in the lumber woods of this region, formed a partnership with David Tozer and made a fortune. At our time he was rated at $2,000,000. He could scarcely write his name but he had an active, keen mind. He is well remembered by the old timers in this county who are sorry to know of his rash act.

Presbyterian Church Notes
 All children not in Sunday School will be welcomed by the superintendent and teachers at the Presbyterian Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Christ said "Learn of me." Morning worship at 11:00 a. m. Subject - "A Man's need of the church." Evening worship at 8:00 p. m. Subject - "What is your life?" "Come with us and we will do you good."

The Temperance program given by the Sunday School on last Sunday proved to be one of profit and a goodly number of parents and friends of the children were present. The occasion was the observance of World's Temperance Sunday and quite a number of Temperance pledges were signed during the brief lesson period that preceded the program. The exercises by the children and the solo "Bring Back My Flag" by Miss Anna Wickstrom were very effective. Of equal interest was the chart talk given by Mrs. Clark showing the effects of alcohol.

School Board Meeting
 At the school board meeting last Saturday evening, Mr. Carlson of Cambridge was paid the balance due him on the general contract on the new high school building, which was accepted by the board.

No action was taken in connection with the new boiler in the heating plant, which was previously refused as not being the one specified in the contract.

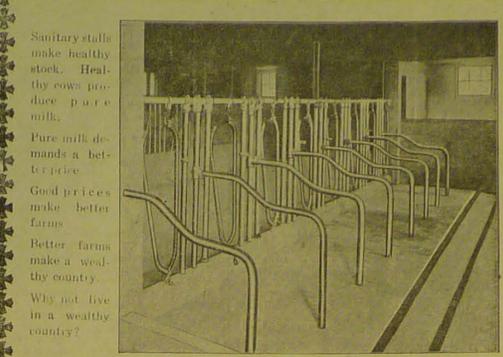

The board directed J. W. Axtell to begin work the first of this week at grading the grounds about the new building and laying the sewers out to the main in the street, a six inch pipe being laid up to the buildings with four inch connections to each of them. Mr. Axtell has had a crew on the work since Monday morning and has it well under way though he does not expect to finish for another week or more.

Little Elisabeth Greig
 The remains of little Elisabeth, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Greig of Clover town, were brought here Sunday and interred in the village cemetery. Rev. Parish preaching the funeral sermon at the home of the little girl's grandparents.

Death occurred last Thursday evening after a several days' illness from pneumonia and Mr. and Mrs. Greig drove down, bringing the remains with them.

Immediately following the service they left on their return trip to their home and five remaining children, who were being cared for by neighbors, carrying with them the sympathy of all their numerous friends here.

He filled up his bunkers with the kind of coal he made and then called for his pipe and his bowl and he laughed at Jack Frost—ever made faces at him. Of course, with these kinds of coal in his cellar, he could be cold and free. If you want to follow his example, just

TRAVERSE COUNTY EXHIBIT

Corn and Calf Show Proves Popular With Farmers—Thirty-three Boys in Corn Growing Contest

Wheaton—The second annual Traverse county corn and calf show was held at this place with 33 boys competing in the acre yield corn contest and upwards of 50 colts entered in the highest quality.

Professor T. A. Erickson of the university extension division, F. E. G. Billings, county agent of Wilkin county, were the judges of the corn entries, and Professor J. S. Montgomery of the university was judge of the colts.

In the corn contest the following were the prize winners: First, Herman Kramer; second, Mac Murphy; third, Chester Anderson; fourth, Albert Johnson; fifth, Howard Bender. More than $200 was awarded in prizes to the winners.

The colts were of high quality, and the following exhibitors were the winners in the sweepstakes: First, J. E. Doidts; second, W. W. Murphy; third, C. H. Winchell; fourth, H. A. Faeitic; fifth, Frank Jacobs.

There was a large attendance of farmers, and a program was presented in the open house by outside speakers.

DAIRYMEN LOSE MILLIONS

State Association Speaker Explains How to Make $500,000 More Annually.

St. Paul—How Minnesota farmers could make $500,000 more annually was explained at the twenty-first convention of the Minnesota State Dairymen and Cheese Makers in the Merchants hotel, St. Paul, by E. J. Holmes, state dairy inspector from Brahm, he said.

"The butter maker who buys his cream from the dairy farmer," said the speaker, "has to sell his products by standard grades. This is to his advantage and it would also be to the advantage of the farmer if he would go to the little extra trouble necessary to sell his cream in the same way. There are indications that the buying of cream will soon be put on a basis of quality instead of quantity alone."

"For example, there is one co-operative creamery which sells butter to a railroad dining car service and it has proved the great value of buying the best and selling the best. Its cream comes from inspected cattle, it is handled by men who are inspected and it grades high. The result is that the creamery gets 3 cents a pound for its butter above the market price.

"Milk and cream should be graded for sale just as barley and wheat are."

Fine New Anoka Army.

Anoka—Anoka's new army is completed and Company B held the dedicated Thursday. General Wood and other guard officers spoke. It was a social evening with a musical program. On Friday evening the opening ball was held, an 18-ounce ball. Minneapolis furnished the music. A. C. Caswell is captain of the company. The cost of the army was $1000. It stands at Fourth and Main street, or diagonally opposite the courthouse.

TWO ALBERT LEA MEN KILLED

AUTO ACCIDENT COSTS LIVES OF PROMINENT CITIZENS.

D. C. Armstrong and C. L. Luce Had Both Been Long Service as Public Officers—Other Occupants.

Albert Lea, Minn., Nov. 19.—While returning home in an automobile from Lanesboro, Minn., D. C. Armstrong, president of the Albert Lea State Bank and C. L. Luce, one two of this city's most prominent business men, were instantly killed in an automobile accident.

Accompanied by Miss Dorothy, daughter of Mr. Armstrong, and Miss Grace McKee, the men left Albert Lea shortly after noon for Lanesboro to take Congressman Sydney Anderson to his home. In going up a long hill just out of Lanesboro and when near the top, Mr. Armstrong, who was driving the car, the engine of the machine started back down the grade. The brakes were applied, but refused to work.

The car did not go over an embankment, as first reported, but struck a stone bluff on the opposite side of the road at the foot of a hill and turned over. The necks of both men were broken.

The young woman were thrown clear of the machine. Armstrong and Luce were pinned under it. Miss Armstrong was lightly injured and Miss McKee sustained contusions and bruises.

Business is Suspended.
The city of Albert Lea was plunged in grief and business practically suspended for a time. Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Luce were considered the most public-spirited men in Albert Lea and were at the head of everything that meant a "Greater Albert Lea."

Mr. Armstrong was president of the Minnesota Minnesota Better Development Association.

The bodies were brought here. Mr. Armstrong was 46 years of age and is survived by his son who is a cadet at the West Point military academy, and by a daughter who lives at home.

Mr. Armstrong was particularly active in all public and business projects of this city and county. He was at the head of the Business Men's league and a former member of the Minne sota Bankers' Association and a member of the Freeborn county board of supervisors and was a trustee of the city of Albert Lea, of the Presbyterian church and of the Freeborn County Agricultural Society.

Luce Prominent Also.

Clint L. Luce was about 53 years of age and had been identified with the publishing and other business industries of the city and county from an early date. He was for several years editor of the Albert Lea Enterprise and later was at the head of the Tribune of this city. He was interested in various business enterprises and was a member of the firm of Skinner, Chamberlain & Co., one of the largest hardware establishments in southern Minnesota.

Mr. Luce was secretary of the Freeborn County Agricultural Society and held a high position with the Business Men's league. He was never married.

SHERIFF IS AGAIN INDICTED

Duluth Officer Accused of Allowing Prisoner to Escape—Re-elected by Big Plurality.

Duluth—Sheriff John R. Meising has been indicted by a grand jury on a charge of allowing a prisoner to escape, the prisoner being Philip St. Marie, who was released from jail by order Oct. 20, 1913. This is the fifth indictment against Meising in the last two months. He was tried and acquitted by a jury two weeks ago on a charge of presenting a false bill for the honor of St. Marie, who he was not a prisoner in the jail. His explanation that St. Marie's name was carried on the jail books by mistake was accepted by the jury.

The other three indictments returned last month, which accuse him of presenting bogus bills to the county commissioners for board for prisoners, are still pending. The prosecution will push all of the cases, it is announced.

Meising declares that the indictments are the work of his political enemies. He was re-elected, notwithstanding the other indictments, by a big plurality.

Shoots Friend; Kills Self.

Duluth—Believing he had killed a friend of having received a letter from his brother, Mike Hilben, living near Whinton, shot himself over the heart. He will die, whose right arm was shattered by the accidental shot, will be crippled for the rest of his life. The man entered the woods to hunt for a deer and found himself gamed. He placed a trap on a tree and began shooting at it. Hilben's weapon was discharged by the limb of a tree.

Search For Cashier's Assassin.

Dassel, Nov. 7.—While officials were blocked at every turn in trying to solve the mystery of the murder of O. M. Palmquist in the directors' room of the Citizens' State Bank of Dassel, the search for a murderer, who is believed to have deliberately ordered the banker in an attempt to get $1,000 from the bank's vaults, led to a dead end at Fourth and Main street, where a cashier of the bank, was found dead with a bullet hole in the head.

DEFENDS POPULAR REMEDIES

Speaker Says Newspapers Should Investigate Merit of Medicines Before Barring Advertisements.

That an organized attempt has been made to blacken the reputation of the popular family remedies of this country, and to mislead the newspaper publishers into rejecting the advertising of such medicines, was the charge made by Carl J. Balliet, of Buffalo, N. Y., at the convention of the Advertising Association at Detroit.

Mr. Balliet is a director of the Proprietary Association of America, which includes in its membership two hundred firms which make the popular prepared medicines of America.

Mr. Balliet pointed out that it is the duty of the newspaper publisher to refuse the advertising of any fake or fraudulent medicine, just as it is his duty to refuse any fake or fraudulent advertising, but it is not right to shut down on all medical advertising because there have been a few bad apples. He said that he has the right to refuse to publish all department store advertising because certain stores have made a practice of lying about bargain sales.

Disease and death are mysteries. People who are perfectly well are skeptical. They laugh at the time-worn patent medicine joke, just as they laugh again and again over the many variations of the operation joke.

The operation was a success but the patient died." This so-called humor has perhaps hurt the medicine business with well people, but when the illiterate healthy man feels a severe pain or illness, he immediately wants medicine, and will believe the cure whether it be at the hands of a regular doctor or a homopath, an osteopath, a Christian Scientist or patent medicine. There is nothing more honorable than disease; nothing more honorable than to die.

Mr. Balliet referred the idea sought to be spread about that patent medicines are unpopular by showing that from 1900 to 1912 the amount of prepared medicines consumed in America increased from $100,000,000 to $100,000,000 annually. He showed that, although the American Medical Association is trying as an organization to exterminate so-called patent medicines, the latter, unfortunately, is not fighting them but prescribing them. He estimated that 40% of the prescriptions written by doctors today are for patent medicines.

The writings of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, he said, have also aimed to destroy confidence in proprietary medicines, but that Dr. Wiley's ideas are not infallible is shown by cases where his analyses were entirely wrong. Mr. Balliet mentioned a case where, with all the power of the Government, he fought a preparation as being dangerous to health, and was indignantly laughed.

There has been spread the idea that a clever faker can mix a few useless ingredients, and by smart advertising, sell tons of medicine and win money; whereas, as a matter of fact, the medicine business is notoriously difficult, and, where there has been one success at it, there have been a hundred failures. Any medicine which has no merit cannot live, because persons who are duped into buying it once will not buy it again, and the profit from advertising a medicine can only come from repeat sales to the same satisfied people. Therefore, any medicine which has been on the market for a number of years, and is still advertised, must have merit behind it to account for its success.

In conclusion Mr. Balliet declared that no newspaper should continue to its readers in the matter of medical or other advertising, unless it investigates, not only the wording of the advertisement for publication, but the merits of the article advertised. He pointed out that the few newspapers who have been deluded into the policy of barring out medical advertising have adopted this general policy, rather than to form an investigation bureau of this kind which would be a constructive and useful effort, investigate and decide what is a good product and what is a fraud, in not only the medicine business, but in every other business which advertises its wares to the public.

The audience seemed to agree with Mr. Balliet's ideas on the subject and the chairman decided the question at issue in his favor.

WAITING FOR YOU

Yes, waiting for every farmer or farmer's son—an industrious American who is anxious to establish for himself a happy home and prosperity. Canada's heavy investment this year is more attractive than ever. What is higher but her farm land just as cheap and in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta

160 Acre Homesteads are Actually Free to Settlers and Other Land at From $15 to $20 per Acre

The people of European countries as well as the American continent thus a even greater demand for Canada land will keep up the price. Any farmer who can buy land at $15.00 to $30.00 per acre—get a dollar for each and raise 20 to 45 bushels to the acre is bound to get rich—that's what you can expect in Western Canada. Wonderful yields of Oats, Barley and Flax. Mixed Fertilizer is fully as profitable an industry as grain raising. The excellent grasses, full of nutrition, are the best seed required either for beef or dairy purposes. Good schools, markets convenient, climate excellent.

My dairy service is not compulsory in Canada but there is an unusual demand for farm plots to reduce the heavy taxes now levied for service in the war. Write for literature and particulars as to reduced railway rates to Supplemental Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, etc.

SUMMARY OF IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS IN FAR OFF NORTHWEST.

Resume of the Most Important Events in Sweden, Norway and Denmark—Of Interest to the Scandinavians in America.

NORWAY.

"The Farmers' House" in Christiania has become divided against itself, and the language question is responsible for the trouble. Those who have named the house are devoted to the pure dialect Norwegian. They use the upper part of the building while people who are ordinary Norwegian-Danish tongue control the lower part of the building. There are two elevators, one in the building for the Farmers' hotel at the top of the building, and another for the people controlling the lower stories. One day the top people put a sign in their elevator saying that this elevator was only for the ruralists at the top of the building. The language used on the sign was, of course, the purest Norwegian imaginable. In a short while, however, the sign disappeared and in its place came another sign bearing a Norwegian dialect message. This did not stay long. It looked as though the fun had barely commenced, for both parties were determined to light for their language. Then came a messenger of peace, proposing a compromise, which won the day. There shall be no sign in the elevator. Thus a local language war ended without bloodshed.

Fire broke out in the roof of the Engelshagen church during service. The fire was first noticed some distance from the church, and those who saw it had presence of mind enough to send for the fire hose of the neighborhood. The flames had made considerable headway before they were noticed by the worshippers in the church, but when they did see it they did not stop long to ponder but constituted themselves a fire brigade. Some went to get ladders, some buckets and still others carried the most valuable fixtures out of the church. In a few brief minutes buckets of water began to pour in a steady row to the roof, everybody taking a hand, from girls of tender years to women of seventy-seven. The fire could not endure long under the treatment and it was put out after eating away a goodly portion of one side of the roof. Part of the church was flooded. But the services, including baptism, were concluded in a portion of the church which the water had not reached.

Acting as the agent for the Norwegian government, Lauritz S. Swenson of Minneapolis, former United States minister to Switzerland and Norway, has arranged an American loan of $3,000,000 for Norway. "Norway's credit is good, and just the other neutral countries, she has been put to additional expense in mobilizing to protect her neutrality," said Mr. Swenson. "I was asked by the government to act as agent, and cooperating with other agents of the Norwegian foreign office, who met me in New York, I helped negotiate the loan. The loan, as I understand it, is not to be put here, but to make up the deficiency caused by the extra expense. The loan was obtained through a New York financial firm. Mr. Swenson was in New York two weeks on the special mission."

The latest recruit to the ranks of the Red Cross nursing corps is the noted Norwegian actress, Ellenor Halvorsen, who has just deserted the stage to go to the battlefields of France. Miss Halvorsen, who made one of the greatest art successes any foreign actress ever achieved in London by her performance in Mrs. W. K. Clifford's play, "A Woman Alone," had planned a trip to the front in London, but she was born in Norway, twenty-eight years ago, and made her debut in Henrik Ibsen's "Little Eyolf." She made her first appearance in London in 1913, in "Panthea." In 1912 she was married to the Hon. L. Armand, who is now fighting with the allies against the Germans.

Two young men from Trondheim spent 12 days hunting in the mountains between Mjaker and Selbu, and they returned with 503 white grouse.

The lobster catch at Hvaler is small this fall. To make matters still worse the prices are only about half as high as a year ago.

The work of the wireless station near Stavanger was progressing in a satisfactory manner until the beginning of the war, and at that time it looked as if the station would be ready before the end of the year. It is now impossible to tell when it will be ready. The sole trouble is that England has put an embargo on the exportation of materials that are needed for wireless, and from any other source. The Norwegians are trying to induce England to permit the importation of the materials needed for the station, but it is doubtful whether they will succeed.

OBJECTION PLACED ON AGE
But Young Lady's Idea Was Altogether Different From What Corporal Had Feared.

"What pensions, what millions and billions in pensions, this horrible war is going to cost," said Major Fitzgerald of Boston. He added: "And some of these pensions will go on longer than they should because some of the pensioners in their old military uniforms are young girls. An old pensioner makes a good part, since his pension, you know, falls on his death by his widow."

"Perhaps," he stammered then, stroking in his embarrassment his long and snow-white beard, "perhaps I should have said that the girl calmly, 'no, corporal, you're too young!'"

Catarrhal Fever

Leper Asylum
The Kwanan Ryumin, Korea, has grown from an old tie-ken where the first leper patient was housed five years ago. She had been found on the roadside, almost dead, with worn and bleeding feet, and was taken into the warm tie-ken and fed and taught. Then followed a little wooden building of three rooms which the missionaries paid for from their own pockets. This has been displaced now by a suitable asylum, the gift of the Mission to Lepers. It will care for 100 patients. Doctor Wilson writes: "I am taking them out of the snow every day now, and we shall soon reach the 100 limit."

Two Insane Sent to St. Peter

John Peterson, 27 year of age and unmarried, was brought down from Rutledge last Friday and the following day examined as to his sanity by Dr. Emky of Willow River and Dr. Wiseman, being committed by Judge Wilcox to St. Peter. He thinks he is continually seeing a man who he says his father was killed by a train while walking on the railway track near Rutledge a couple of months ago. He has been more or less deranged, however, for 7 or 8 months past. Jacob Elger, 33 yrs. old and single, was brought down last Friday from Askov where he was picked up while wandering aimlessly about. He says he has reached the 14th grade in the Mormon church. He was also committed to St. Peter.

Presbyterian Church at Hinckley

Last Sunday the new Presbyterian church was dedicated with an appropriate service, which was attended by a large number of people.

The building has been under construction for about two years and has just been completed. It has a very fine appearance from without, and finished in a pleasing manner within. There are three beautiful memorial windows, one of which was given by W. H. Holle in memory of his wife who was a zealous worker for the church; one donated by the survivors of the fire of '94 and is "dedicated to the memory" of time; and the third is a tribute from P. A. Christianson to the memory of his brother, Rev. C. C. Christianson who was a pastor in the Presbyterian church here before the fire. All are beautiful and the historical interest attached to the two last named, appeals very strongly to the old time people.—Hinckley Herald.

Hollow'en Joy at Sandstone

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Holliday entertained a number of friends at a hollow'en party at their home last Friday evening. After all had enjoyed a few games of "500" each one conned ghost-like garb. They were directed skyward by a "witch" riding a broom, and by a small passage, were ushered into a very spooky looking room, lighted only by grotesque jack-o'-lanterns. Each one pulled his fortune from a small kettle hung from the wall and their reading caused considerable amusement. Light refreshments were then served and all departed for home declaring that they had spent a most delightful evening.—Sandstone Courier.

Chemical Tank Was Handy

A fire, which might have proven very costly, was disovered Tuesday, shortly after dinner, in the shed over the big oven at the bakery. It was first seen by some small boys who notified some men. It was beginning to burn fiercely in the dry boards when Grant Ingraham rushed to the Commercial hotel and secured a chemical tank. With this excellent fire fighting apparatus, he made short work of the blaze and the fire department was not called. For a long time it has been our opinion that more of these tank-chemicals should be placed in various parts of town so as to be handy in case of fire as they are often more effective than a big stream of water.—Sandstone Courier

For a "Dry" Pine City

The meeting at the Presbyterian church last Sunday afternoon to discuss ways and means for bringing about a "dry" town here was quite well attended, about 50 being present.

There was considerable interest in the work in view and several good talks were made, ranging all the way from a campaign to reduce the number of saloons and closing the front street of them to a campaign of education that shall eventually entirely remove them from the community.

A committee was chosen to have charge of the work, composed of Judge Atkinson chairman, Messrs. Piper and Harte, Prof McAdan and Mrs. Bede.

How Koch Made $20,000

Theo. F. Koch of Texas was a county seat visitor Tuesday afternoon. It was his first visit here in some years.

Mr. Koch is well known in Pine county because of his extensive land operations here between '96 and 1905—especially in the central part of the county where he established the Friesland and Groningen colonies.

We recall meeting him on the train one day when, with a chuckle, he said, "I have made $20,000 to-day." And when we wanted to know how he did it, he replied, "I raised the price of land a dollar an acre"—and he enjoyed the joke immensely.

He is now operating at Reviere, Texas, 6 miles from Corpus Christi, where he has a hundred thousand acres of land, a railroad and a big colony.

Young Man Killed at Hinckley

Charles Watkins was caught under a building that was being raised, Wednesday morning, and almost instantly killed. The building was one that had been temporarily erected and had been used as a storeroom and a hired man had slept in it. It was being raised to put a foundation under and at the time of the accident stood on jacks. Young Watkins crawled under it to fix something, just as a strong gust of wind struck it and tipped it off the jacks. The building fell on the unfortunate man, Charles was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Watkins, who moved here about a year ago and lived with his parents.—Hinckley Ent prise.
